

A VISION ABOUT WORLD WAR III

A report by John S. Torell – September 2014

A 90 year old woman from a Lutheran Church in Valdres, Norway received a vision from God in the 1960's. Emanuel Minos, a Norwegian Pentecostal evangelist, held revival meetings where this woman lived in 1968. She came to one of his meetings and told him what she had seen and Minos wrote it down. The woman from Valdres was known for being alert, reliable and a credible Christian with a good reputation.

After the revival meetings closed down, Minos returned to his home and shared the vision he had written down with his wife. Both felt that the vision was so far-fetched and difficult to believe that they did not want to publish it.

In 1993, twenty five years later, Minos was going through old files, when he found some papers that had become yellow with age. To his astonishment, he found the forgotten notes he had written in 1968 when the 90 year old woman shared the vision with him. After reading through the notes, he became terrified since he realized that many of the details had indeed been fulfilled. He remembered that the woman had asked him to warn people because the end times was approaching. Minos also remembered that he had argued with the woman about certain points in the vision and she forcefully had told him the vision was true and that Minos would live to see it fulfilled in his lifetime. After having reviewed his notes and thinking about what the woman had said, he made the decision to publish the vision, including his initial hesitation to publish it in 1968.

I did not learn of this prophecy until September of 2014 when I read it in the Swedish magazine, "Midnattsropet."¹ This vision deeply impacted me and created a desire to learn as much as I could about the background of the people involved. I contacted Stina Fridolfsson, who is on the editorial board of the magazine. She told me that the vision had been published in a Christian Swedish magazine in Finland by the name of "Korsets Budskap" in November of 1998 and that her sister-in-law in Finland had sent a copy of the magazine to her.²

After I had talked to Fridolfsson, I found Minos' Wikipedia page and was able to verify that the vision had indeed been told to him and that he believed it to be true.

I was ready to sit down and translate the vision into English when I found that it already had been translated.³ I compared the English translation with the Swedish version sent to me by Stina Fridolfsson and it is accurate.

[Beginning of the vision]

THE VISION

I saw the time just before the coming of Jesus and the outbreak of the Third World War. I saw the events with my natural eyes. I saw the world like a kind of a globe and saw Europe, nation by nation. I saw Scandinavia. I saw Norway. I saw certain things that would take place just before the return of Jesus, and just before the last calamity happens, a calamity the likes of which we have never before experienced.

She mentioned four waves:

1. First, before Jesus comes and before the Third World War breaks out, there will be a “détente” like we have never had before. There will be peace between the super powers in the east and the west, and there will be a long peace. {Note by Minos: Remember, that this was in 1968 when the cold war was at its highest.} In this period of peace, there will be disarmament in many countries, including in Norway and we will not be prepared when it (the war) comes. The Third World War will begin in such a way no one would have anticipated - and from an unexpected place.
2. A lukewarmness without parallel will take hold of Christians, causing a falling away from true, living Christianity. Christians will not be open to penetrating preaching. They will not, like in earlier times, want to hear of sin and grace, law and gospel, repentance and restoration. There will come a substitute instead: prosperity (happiness) Christianity.

The important thing will be to have success, to be someone; to have material things, things that God never promised us in this way. Churches and prayer houses will be emptier and emptier. Instead of the preaching we have been used to for generations (i.e. to take up your cross and follow Jesus), entertainment, art and culture will invade the churches where there instead should have been gatherings for repentance and revival. This will increase markedly just before the return of Jesus.

3. There will be a moral disintegration that old Norway has never experienced the likes of. People will live together like they were married without being married. {Note by Minos: I do not believe the concept of “co-habitation” existed in 1968} Much uncleanness before marriage, and much infidelity in marriage will become the natural or common and it will be justified from every angle. It will even enter Christian circles and be accepted – even sin against nature. Just before Jesus returns there will be TV programs like we have never experienced. {Note by Minos: TV had just arrived in Norway in 1968.}

TV will be filled with such horrible violence that it teaches people to murder and destroy each other, and it will be unsafe in our streets. People will copy what they see. There will not be only one “station” on TV, it will be filled with “stations.” {Note by Minos: She did not know the word “channel” which we use today. Therefore she called them stations.} TV will be just like the radio where we have many “stations,” and it will be filled with violence. People will use it for entertainment. We will see terrible scenes of murder and destruction one of the other and this will spread in society. Sex scenes will also be shown on the screen, the most intimate things that takes place in a marriage. {Note by Minos: I protested and said, “We have a law that forbids this kind of thing.”} Then the old woman said: “It will happen, and you will see it. All morals we have had before will be broken down and the most indecent things will pass before our eyes.

4. People from poor countries will stream to Europe. {Note by Minos: In 1968 there was no such thing as immigration.} They will also come to Scandinavia - and Norway. There will be so many of them that people will begin to dislike them and become hard with them. They will be treated like the Jews before the Second World War. Then the full measure of our sins will have been reached. {Note by Minos: I protested at the issue of immigration. I did not understand it at the time.}

The tears streamed from the old woman's eyes and down her cheeks as she said: "I will not see it, but you will. This will happen shortly before Jesus is coming back and World War III begins."

WORLD WAR III

She then continued to share the vision and said that it will be a very short war. All that I have seen of war before is only child's play compared to this one, and it will be ended with nuclear atomic bombs. The air will be so polluted that one cannot draw one's breath. It will cover several continents; America, Japan, Australia and the wealthy nations. The water will be contaminated. The soil in these places can no longer be used for growing food. The result will be that only small areas will remain that can be used to grow food. The remnant who survived in the wealthy countries will try to flee to the poor countries, but they will be as hard on us as we were on them, and will refuse to accept the people seeking refuge.

I am so glad that I will not live to see it, but when the time draws near, you (Emanuel Minos) must take courage and travel all around and tell this vision that I have seen to people.

I have received it from God and nothing of it goes against what the Bible tells.

The one who has his sin forgiven and has Jesus as Savior and Lord, is safe.

[End of the vision]

VERIFIED BY HISTORY?

Has this vision been verified by history? Let's examine the following facts and see if they corroborate the vision:

EXAMINING POINT #1

From 1968 to 2014 there have been a number of regional wars but peace has basically been maintained in the world. With the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991, Russia, the United States, NATO and many other nations in Europe have downsized their military capacity. General peace has now lasted for 46 years in the world. Consider the time span between World War I and World War II was just 21 years.

A nation like Sweden has scrapped its national defense and only maintains a small air force, navy and a small army combat force which is basically used for United Nation deployments. There is no mandatory draft of young men for the armed forces anymore.

Most people born after 1960 have no knowledge what life was like from 1945 to 1960. The Soviet Union had more than five million men under arms, and the nation's belonging to the Warsaw Pact led by the Soviet Union also had millions of men under arms. The United States had more than half a million soldiers stationed in Western Europe and the different NATO countries maintained a large contingent of armed forces. By the year 2000, the armed forces of the East and the West were significantly reduced.

EXAMINING POINT #2

The young people's view of marriage changed with the onslaught of the Hippie movement in the early 1960's. The hippies on the West Coast of the United States made new rules under their slogan "free love," and instead of getting married, men and women just moved in together and started to have children. The hippie culture spread rapidly from the American west coast to the rest of the United States, Canada and Western Europe. As of 2014, a large number of people simply prefer to live together without marriage.

The Pentecostal and Evangelical churches in the Scandinavian countries have moved into apostasy. A number of denominations in Sweden have merged into a new multi-denomination, where they accept homosexuals as ministers, allow their members to live together without being married, practice homosexuality and in general live a low morality lifestyle. The use of alcohol and tobacco products is no longer frowned upon.

The Pentecostal and Evangelical churches in Sweden have formed committees to discuss building bridges between themselves, the Roman Catholic Church and the Swedish Jewish community. The topics of salvation, water baptism through immersion, the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and living a holy life are avoided in sermons.

Some Christian churches have also started to share their facilities with Islamic congregations since Muslims worship on Fridays.

The Swedish parliament in the year 2000 voted to sever its ties to the State Lutheran Church and since that time it has been in a free fall of immorality. Eva Brunne was installed as bishop of the diocese of Stockholm in 2009 even though she lived as a homosexual and openly flaunted her partner. The church hierarchy voted that same year to allow priests to perform same-sex marriages.

Christianity in the United States has also deteriorated since the 1960's. First came the prosperity movement led by Kenneth Hagin and Kenneth Copeland in the 1960's. This was followed by the Discipleship movement led by Don Basham, Derek Prince, Bob Mumford, Charles Simpson and Ern Baxter that lasted from 1970's into the 1980's.

The 1980's was a decade of scandals for American television evangelists who had either sexual misconduct or financial mishandlings. The most prominent of them was Jim Bakker, Jimmy Swaggart, Pat Robertson, Paul Crouch, Robert Tilton, Morris Cerullo and many more.

A number of denominations in the United States today allow homosexuals to be ministers, perform same sex marriages, teach that the virgin birth of Jesus is not true, Jesus was not God, and there is no need for personal salvation.

Let's not forget John Wimber and the Vineyard churches which ushered in holy laughter and barking manifestations through the so-called Toronto blessing and the Pensacola and Brownsville revivals.

The current destruction of Christian faith in America is being spearheaded by Rick Warren, Bill Hybels, Joel Osteen and many others who are systematically destroying the remaining moral fiber of the church in America.

Rick Warren

Bill Hybels

Joel Osteen

The vision about a moral decline in the churches has indeed been fulfilled. There are only remnant churches left in 2014 who are staying true to the Bible.

EXAMINING POINT #3

From 1946 until 1986 there were three television networks in the United States. In 1962 there were 800 cable operators in the United States, serving mostly rural areas with feeds from the three networks. Television broadcasting in the Scandinavian countries began on a small scale in the late 1950's and for the next 50 years each country had a monopoly on radio and television. For years the Scandinavian nations only had one state run channel which they could view.

With the American space program came satellites that destroyed the European nation's monopoly on television broadcasting. By the 1990's people in Sweden could watch television programs from all over the world and today there are thousands of channels available.

In Western Europe and the United States it is now common for men and women to live together and start a family without being married. Homosexuality is an epidemic that is spreading into the Christian community. Many nations have legalized same sex marriages, which includes giving homosexuals the right to adopt children.

Pornography is rampant and young children are being used to make sex movies for pedophiles. Young women from Eastern Europe are lured into the sex industry and sold as slaves on the markets in the Middle East. Wife swapping and sexual orgies take place without people feeling remorse and the movies and television programs have sunk to such low levels that no one in 1960 could have dreamed would happen. Sexual intercourse, homosexual acts and bestiality are being shown to the general public. Most entertainment shown to people is based upon violence, murder, rape and sex.

This vision of moral decay has indeed been fulfilled.

EXAMINING POINT #4

People in the United States have not understood the massive impact immigration can exert upon a country. Europe has changed a lot since 1990. When I left Sweden in 1963, it had a population of around 8 million people, with 99% of them being native Swedes. The population today has grown to 9.5 million but it is mostly due to immigration. The increase has come from third world nations and most of them are Muslim. Mosques are being built around Sweden, paid for by Saudi Arabia and the clamor for Sharia law is increasing.

The same holds true for the majority of the European nations. Finland, Norway and Denmark are restricting the number of people seeking refuge. England and France are overrun with Muslims, who are building their own enclaves in the cities and demanding Sharia law.

The native population initially accepted some refugees, but with hordes of them coming in and going on welfare and taking advantage of free services such as healthcare to rent free living quarters, the indigenous people are getting angry, and in a number of European nations, political parties have been formed based upon hatred of immigration policies.

For example, when a woman in Sweden is raped and she reports it to the police, the police cannot by law reveal that the rape was done by a Muslim. Young Muslim men in Sweden and other nations have no respect for non-Muslim women and rape has increased dramatically.

This part of the vision has also been fulfilled.

WORLD WAR III

I am convinced that the vision told by the 90 year old woman is from God and that He has given us a strong warning that we should heed. There is no preparation that can be done in the physical except if people move to third world countries. But most of us do not have the means to make such a move, more importantly, God has not told me to leave California and this ministry. I am willing to move if God tells me to go but I am not going to move because of fear. I know that when the war comes, I am saved and if I die, I will just move from this life to a new life in heaven. In the meantime, our job is to warn people so that they can put their lives in order. The first phase of preparation is to be saved, be baptized in water through immersion, delivered from demons and baptized in the Holy Spirit.

DO I SEE ANY DANGER NOW?

Given what I have stated so far, you might be wondering if I see any danger now? Yes, I do. I have been speaking and writing since 1975 about a World Government that is working hard to prepare the world for the Antichrist. The United Nations and European Union are important pawns in their plan for world domination. There are two vital areas that are important to the World Government. The first is Israel and Jerusalem; the second is Western Europe and the United States. The latter serves as the power base for the World Government and Jerusalem is going to be their capitol as predicted by Jesus. (Revelation 11:3-13)

A BRIEF HISTORICAL VIEW OF RUSSIA

Those who are familiar with history know that Russia has always been a wild card in the political arena. Russia and Sweden were at war for centuries as Sweden conquered Finland in the 12th century and later occupied the three Baltic states. After more than 600 years of war, Russia crushed the Swedish army in 1809 and made Finland a province of the Russian Empire. Russia had conquered the Baltic countries in earlier fighting.

Due to the aristocratic system under the Tsars, there was no real middle class in Russia and the farmers were more like slaves as they worked on the huge estates owned by the aristocrats. It was not until the middle of the 19th century that the different Tsars began to invite skilled German workers and farmers to settle in Russia and help it become modern. Millions of Germans took advantage of this offer and settled in the Volga region.

Russia was constantly at war with the different countries in Europe but was never able secure territory in central Europe. Poland was held as a Russian province for years. Napoleon Bonaparte declared war on Russia in 1812 and put together an army to defeat Russia once and for all. His army consisted of 680,000 men, of which 300,000 were French. The rest of the soldiers came from conquered nations that had been conscripted into service. The Russians could not match the firepower of the French army and kept retreating, burning towns and villages to deny food and supplies to the French. Napoleon was able to push all the way to Moscow and capture the city while he negotiated with the Tsar Alexander I. The latter knew that time was on his side and that the Russian winter was coming. Starved of supplies, Napoleon was forced to order a retreat. His army was attacked and ambushed on the way back home, and by the time they crossed the Russian border and came back to Germany, he had less than 40,000 soldiers left.

Tsar Alexander I

The Rothschild bank and other Jewish banks in Europe that dominated the financial and political arena during the 19th century had no love for Russia, even though it had a large Jewish population. The Jewish leadership in England and Germany despised Jews from Russia and Eastern Europe and looked upon them as inferior. The World Government, which had been formed by the Jewish Zionist movement and supported by the Jewish world bankers, instigated a war against Russia in 1904 in which Japan was the aggressor. The Russian government unsuccessfully tried to borrow money from the Jewish world banks. Jacob Schiff, a German Jew and the CEO of the Jewish American bank Kuhn, Loeb and Company in New York, had a personal vendetta against Tsar Nicholas II and did all he could to finance the Japanese war effort. Russia was humiliated as the strong Japanese forces pushed the Russians back.

In 1905, Jewish Marxist revolutionaries operating from bases in Germany and Switzerland unsuccessfully tried to topple Nicholas II and his government.

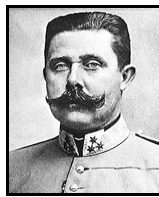

Nicholas II wanted to increase Russian influence in Europe, and when tension arose from the assassination of the Archduke Franz Ferdinand of the Austrian-Hungarian Empire on June 28, 1914 and led to the outbreak of World War I, Russia declared war against Germany and the Austrian-Hungarian Empire. The result for the Russian armies was a disaster and more than a million Russians soldiers were captured.

THE BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION

The World Government moved to crush Russia once and for all and eradicate the Romanov family which had ruled Russia. A communist organization had been built up with its headquarters in Switzerland. More than 90,000 young men and women had been recruited for the largest terror network the world had ever seen up to this time, and most of them were Jewish.

Another group had been recruited in the United States under the leadership of Russian Jew Leo Trotsky, who had formed a special unit of 275 "special forces," who were to take control of the government buildings in St. Petersburg and murder all officers and officials belonging to the Russian government.

The agents from the World Government incited strikes which led to violent riots in St. Petersburg in March of 1917. Nicholas II was eventually removed as emperor and a provincial government was formed and led by Alexander Kerensky. This was the ruling government of Russia for the next eight months.

Vladimir Lenin informed the German government of his intention to stop the war with Germany as soon as he took control of Russia. This was a gift to the German government who had been fighting a two-front war. As a result, Lenin and his group of terrorist leaders left Switzerland and traveled unmolested throughout Germany on a train furnished by the German government. The train was put on a ferry at the German town of Sassnitz at the Baltic Sea and ferried to Sweden where Swedish soldiers travelled as armed guards with them all the way to Tornea in the north. From there the train moved into Finland, which at the time was a Russian province. Lenin stopped briefly in Stockholm, the capitol of Sweden, where he met with Swedish Prime Minister Hjalmar Branting and Jewish Swedish banker Olof Aschberg, who was the CEO for the bank Nya Banken, which was tied in with the Rothschilds and Kuhn, Loeb and Company. Ashberg handed over a large sum of cash to Lenin, and for the next few years, he became the banker for the new Soviet Union government.

Leo Trotsky and his group arrived via ship from New York to St. Petersburg with $20 million in gold coins furnished by Jacob Schiff, which was used to bribe officers and officials in Russia, as well as pay the terrorists that worked for them.

The 90,000 trained terrorists started to filter into Russia through different nations, just like fighters have filtered into Syria and Iraq to join ISIS.

As soon as Trotsky and his elite force arrived, they started killing those who had toppled the Russian government and replaced them with his own people in leadership. On November 4, 1917 Lenin and Trotsky took power from the provincial government and declared the birth of the Soviet Union. A civil war broke out and it was not until the early 1920's that the communists had finally taken control of Russia.

Lenin, Trotsky and Stalin were just as ruthless as ISIS has been in Iraq and Syria in 2014. The only difference between the two groups is that the communists filmed many of their mass killings but did not make them public like ISIS has done.

When the Red Army (murder gangs) led by Trotsky took a village or a city, every official, policeman, school teacher, pastor, priest, attorney, judge, engineer, factory supervisor, shop owner, Christian and every good looking boy and girl were slain and buried in mass graves. More than 20 million Russians were slaughtered as a result. Russia's educated people were all murdered and great fear came over the Russian people. It became very clear to the Russian people that the Bolshevik revolution was not a Russian revolution; it was very much a Jewish Marxist revolution.

It was not until the late 1980's that Russian members in the communist party had been able to kill and destroy the Jewish leadership of Russia. Vladimir Putin as a KGB officer saw the purge with his own eyes and has never forgotten what the World Government and the Jewish bankers did to Russia. If a person does not know Russian history, they will never understand what drives Putin to risk war with the West.

Finland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania managed to break loose during the Bolshevik revolution and become independent nations. There was a bitter civil war in Finland before the Finnish communists were defeated and most of them killed. Poland was also able to break loose from the Soviet Union.

NAZI GERMANY

It was the World Government and American Jewish bankers who financed Hitler and his Nazi Party. The secretive Thule Society was used to organize and finance the Nazi Party. The irony is that Adolf Hitler, who was an enlisted soldier in the German Army, was recruited by the German Army intelligence and ordered to infiltrate the Nazi Party in Bavaria. For a couple of years he became part of the Nazi Party and no one knew that he was an agent working for the German government. In time Hitler decided to break with the German government and embrace the Nazi doctrine.

England and France had put severe restrictions on Germany after its defeat in World War I. As a result, Germany and the Soviet Union began a secret cooperation between their armed forces, and German troops were trained in Ukraine to hide their activities from the British and French governments. In return, German officers became advisers to the Soviet army and naval forces. German factories were built in Ukraine to produce armament for the German armed forces.

Hitler was appointed Reich Chancellor of Germany on January 30, 1933 and was informed of the cooperation with the Soviet Union.

Hitler began to speak about "Lebensraum" (living space) and declared that he was unhappy with the way the victors of World War I had taken territory from Germany and placed severe restrictions on their military.

The Saar basin in western Germany had been taken from Germany after WWI and placed under the administration of the League of Nations, the forerunner to the United Nations. Hitler sent in agents to create dissent, and after a hard campaign, elections were held on January 13, 1935 and 90% of the people living in the Saar region voted for re-unification with Germany. The League of Nations was forced to accept the vote of the people and Hitler took control over the region. It is noteworthy that the Saar Basin is the home of coal mines and steel mills, just like it is in eastern Ukraine.

With the reunion of the Saar region, Hitler announced in March, 1935 that he was increasing the size of the German Army to 600,000 men, the formation of a new Luftwaffe (Air Force) and an increase in the German Navy. This was a defiant breach of the Treaty of Versailles which Germany had signed on June 28, 1919. The League of Nations met and France and England raised great concerns but no action was taken.

Adolf Hitler withdrew Germany from the League of Nations in October, 1935 when he realized that the governments of England and France were not going to take any action.

Hitler was aware of the World Government but he began to think that he could build up Germany and defeat this world leadership. In March of 1936 he ordered the German Army to enter the Rhineland region that had been taken from Germany and made into a demilitarized zone. The French and the British government met again to discuss this violation of the peace agreement from 1919 but none of them were willing to go to war over the issue. Hitler once again realized that he had nothing to fear from his enemies because they refused to act.

Hitler's next target was Austria and German provocateurs began to infiltrate Austria and invite the military and political leadership to merge with Germany. Vladimir Putin must have copied Hitler's playbook when he took over Crimea in 2014.

Hitler stirred up the population in Austria by promising them a better future in a "Gross Deutschland" (Great Germany), and when the Austrian prime minister tried to have a general vote on the issue to let the people decide what they wanted, the Germans sabotaged the vote. On March 11, 1938 the Austrian Nazi Party staged a coup and toppled the elected government. The new Nazi government in Vienna then voted to transfer all power to Germany and German troops poured into Austria. Hitler declared that the unification with Austria was complete on March 12, 1938 and that the two nations were once again unified. Again, there was a lot of talk from the British and French governments, but no action was taken.

Hitler by now was very confident. He had rebuilt the German war machine and had taken back large territories of German speaking people. He then set his eyes on the Sudetenland, a large portion of land in the western part of Czechoslovakia. This time the British government decided to become more active to head off this next move by Nazi Germany.

The Austrian-Hungarian Empire had been broken up after World War I and the Western powers created a number of new states, one of which was Czechoslovakia, which had a huge German population in the Sudetenland province. Again, judging Putin by his actions, he must have studied Hitler's playbook on how this was done.

Adolf Hitler

Édouard Daladier

Neville Chamberlain

Walter Runciman

Immediately after Hitler had taken Austria, he began to publicly speak about the fate of the German speaking people in Sudetenland. Knowing how to manipulate the situation, he activated the previously organized Sudetenland Nazi Party. Konrad Heinlein was a Sudetenland German and a Nazi sympathizer who became a political leader. The drumbeat got louder as the Germans in the Sudetenland disliked the Czechs, Slovaks, Poles and the Hungarians that made up the population of this new nation. They wanted to become a part of Germany.

Hitler spoke in different places about how badly the Germans were being treated in the Sudetenland and that it was his duty to protect his fellow Germans. British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain sent Walter Runciman, a well-known politician, to Czechoslovakia to see if the Czechs were willing to compromise. He proposed a similar political model for Czechoslovakia as in Switzerland where Germans, Italians and French lived together as a nation and also had some kind of independence.

Hitler strongly objected to this plan and ordered the Nazi party to hold massive rallies and stir up the German population, who in turn embraced the propaganda.

Just like Putin, Hitler was a skilled political chess player and played the game well. There was “shuttle diplomacy” as representatives from France, Italy, Britain and Germany met in different locations. On September 15, 1938, Prime Minister Chamberlain flew to Berchtesgaden, a city in the German Alps to meet with Hitler. Hitler repeatedly told Chamberlain that this was his last territorial quest and that there would be peace once the Sudetenland had been united with Germany. Chamberlain flew back to Germany on September 22nd and met with Hitler in the city of Godesberg, a suburb to the city of Bonn, to make sure that he had a valid agreement with Hitler.

French Prime Minister Édouard Daladier met with Hitler on September 25th and was told the same story. He likewise made an agreement with Hitler just as Chamberlain had done.

No representatives from Czechoslovakia were invited to these peace talks. The meetings were held in secret and the German, English and French agreed that it was of utmost importance that the Czechoslovakian armed forces be kept in the dark and prevented from taking defensive positions and opposing the German annexation. To make the scenario more appealing to the world, the decision was made to have a meeting in Munich, where Italian dictator Benito Mussolini would be invited to meet with Adolf Hitler, Neville Chamberlain and Édouard Daladier. The meeting took place on September 29th and the plan to annex the Sudetenland was approved and signed in what became known as the Munich agreement. It gave Germany the right to immediately move in its troops and possess the Sudetenland. The Czech government was sent a copy and simply told to sign the Munich agreement, which happened on September 30, 1938. The German Army rolled into the Sudetenland on October 1st and the Czech army had no time to respond. Hitler and his staff were jubilant! Chamberlain returned to London, and as he exited the airplane, he held up the Munich agreement in the air and announced that he had been able to secure peace that would last a lifetime. He told reporters that Hitler had promised not to seek any more territorial claims. History proved Chamberlain to be weak as he only emboldened Hitler to seek newer and larger territories.

THE CITY OF DANZIG

The city of Danzig was another creation by the victors of World War I in 1920. At the time it was located in Poland but there was an ethnic German population since it was close to East Prussia. The region of Danzig consisted of more than 100 small towns and villages and was declared a free city under the control of the League of Nations. Hitler never told the British and French prime ministers that this was his next conquest and once again used the same ploy as in earlier territorial grabs. Nazi agents were sent to the area to stir up the people. Hitler began to publicly speak about how the German population in Danzig suffered under the control of the Poles and that Germany needed a land corridor through Poland between Germany and Danzig. The Polish government refused and England and France finally declared they would protect Poland militarily if the Germans tried to create a land corridor.

Adolf Hitler began a high stakes political poker game. It had become clear that he had pushed England and France into a corner and any further expansion would start a war. His solution was to sign a pact with the Soviet Union in order to make England and France think twice before they chose to go to war.

Hitler sent a delegation to Moscow led by Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop to meet with the Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov. A non-aggression pact was signed on August 23, 1939 in which Hitler and Stalin agreed to divide Poland into two sections, the west for Germany and the east for Russia.

Joachim von Ribbentrop

Joseph Stalin

Vyacheslav Molotov

Stalin also requested to be allowed to attack Finland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania and bring them into the Soviet Union. Germany and Russia would also carve up Romania, which would give Germany access to the Romanian oil fields.

The ethnic German people in the Sudetenland and Danzig met a terrible fate in 1945 at the end of WWII. Many were slaughtered in Danzig when the Red Army rolled in and the rest were forcefully driven out to resettle in Germany. The same fate happened to the Germans in the Sudetenland. They paid a high price for their desire to join the Third Reich as they lost their homes and belongings and ended up in refugee camps when they came to Germany. Danzig was given the Polish name of Gdansk.

WORLD WAR II BREAKS OUT

On September 1, 1939, the German army rolled into Poland as the German Luftwaffe dominated the skies over Poland with death and destruction. At the same time German naval forces attacked the Polish defenders around Danzig. The Polish troops were overwhelmed and it was only a matter of time before they were defeated. Soviet forces attacked Poland on September 17th from the east and all Polish resistance was crushed.

Joseph Stalin attacked Finland on November 30, 1939. The armed forces of Finland with Swedish volunteers were able to resist and partially beat back the Russians. By 1940 the three Baltic nations of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania had been taken by the Soviets, and before World War II was over in 1945, 25% of their population had either been killed or forcefully relocated to Siberia.

England and France declared war on Germany on September 3, 1939, but they were not prepared militarily, and instead of preventing the war, they could only react and it would be five long years before Nazi Germany had been defeated. More than 80 million people perished in this devastating war that could have been prevented. Adolf Hitler gambled and lost and the people in the different nations had to pay with their lives for the poor chess game that had been played by Neville Chamberlain and Édouard Daladier. Who was the big winner of World War II? It was Satan and his World Government!

WHERE ARE WE NOW IN 2014?

It is obvious that World War III is going to break out one day as we have learned from this prophetic vision. The high stakes gambler in world politics today is Vladimir Putin. Opposing him is the World Government and its puppets Barack Obama, British Prime Minister David Cameron, German Chancellor Angela Merkel and the French President Francois Hollande.

Obama is a former hippie turned community organizer in Chicago who was groomed for politics and elected by a population craving government handouts and more security. Cameron is a shrewd politician but he is not that bright when it comes to dealing with ruthless ex-communists. Merkel grew up in East Germany and does not possess the aggressiveness that a political leader must have when facing an opponent like Putin. Hollande is a womanizer and a far left politician who is unable to mount any opposition to Putin or any other aggressive political foe.

WHO IS VLADIMIR PUTIN?

Vladimir Putin was born in 1952 and grew up during the glory days of the Soviet Union. He happened to be in the right place at the right time and became a career agent in the KGB that was stationed in East Germany for more than 10 years. To become a KGB agent requires intelligence, aggressiveness and the ability to please your superiors in order to advance in rank. A good KGB agent must be an excellent liar and have the ability to skillfully deceive people. Putin had access to the KGB files and knew about the Jewish leadership in the Bolshevik revolution. He also knew about the Jewish murderers Lavrentiy Beria and Lazar Kaganovich and that Joseph Stalin had Vladimir Lenin and Leon Trotsky murdered. He knew about the purges over the years when loyal communist leaders were accused of petty crimes and executed.

When the Soviet Union crumbled in the late 1980's, he was in the right place and became a protégée of Boris Yeltsin, an old communist who jumped ship and betrayed his friend, Mikhail Gorbachev.

Yeltsin was a corrupt political leader and knew that when his term as president came to an end, there would be an investigation, and he might have to go to jail. Just like Richard Nixon did with Gerald Ford, when Nixon asked Ford to pardon him after his resignation, Yeltsin and Putin worked out a similar agreement. Putin honored his patron and gave him a blanket pardon the moment he became the new Russian president.

Vladimir Putin became a devoted member of the Russian Orthodox Church and has rejected his communist roots. He is a nationalist that dreams of a greater Russia and hates the Jewish world bankers and their World Government.

Putin is a risk taker and we have seen this in his annexation of Crimea. He is moving more slowly into Eastern Ukraine. If you look at the events in Ukraine, you cannot help but notice the similar tactics used by Adolf Hitler seventy-five years ago. Putin is using the same playbook, and even more dangerously, he has access to nuclear bombs, something which Hitler never had but worked hard to achieve.

Adolf Hitler always had to worry about a two front war. Putin doesn't have that problem because his territory extends from Eastern Europe all the way to the Pacific Ocean. He has signed a strong military and economical agreement with communist China and does not have to worry about Japan which has been reduced to a third world nation when it comes to their military.

Barack Obama and the rest of the leaders in the West are like paper tigers who like to draw red lines, and when the line is crossed, they do nothing. They also impose useless sanctions but they are not willing to be forceful and Vladimir Putin is making them react like puppets to every move he makes.

Putin has forces in Syria; his pilots are also flying from Iraqi airbases and supporting the Shia regime of Bagdad. He has taken Crimea just like Hitler took the Rhineland.

Now he is slowly grinding down the Ukraine and has destroyed most of its armed forces and equipment. Obama and his cronies are imposing sanctions against Russia but they are unsuccessful because sanctions will never stop a power hungry man.

Crimea won't be given back to Ukraine and eastern Ukraine is also lost. Putin wants to restore lost territories to Russia. He won't be satisfied with eastern Ukraine because he wants it all. Putin also wants the Baltic States; he is eyeing Finland and Sweden has been coveted for years. He wants to reunite with Poland and the other eastern European nations that Russia once ruled when it was the Soviet Union.

The World Government will never allow Russia back into Europe again because it will set back their plans for world dominion. Putin is aware of the situation and will trigger World War III if he thinks that he can keep pushing his agenda just like Hitler did so many years ago.

The situation doesn't look good as far as I am concerned. This is a time for Christians to pray that God will hold back the demons of war and give us time to preach the Gospel and lead people to Christ.

Most Americans are like the passengers on the Titanic that ate, drank and danced until the ship suddenly struck an iceberg without warning and perished in the icy waters.

Have you been born again? Is Jesus your Lord and Savior? This is the time to set your house in order to meet your Creator regardless of what will happen.

The world's problem is not ISIS as the mainstream media would have you believe but it is the World Government, Vladimir Putin and the fanatics who surround him.

1930'S AND TODAY

The demonic rulers over the nations in Europe and Russia encountered little resistance from Christian churches in the 1930's. After the war ended in 1945, the Holy Spirit began a mighty work in the nations which had been enslaved under the Soviet Union. A strong underground church developed in Russia and the enslaved nations. Courageous believers in the West started a network of smuggling Bibles to the believers in the oppressed nations. Some of the most well-known groups and people were the Swedish Slavic Mission and the Dutch missionary known as Brother Andrew.

When the Soviet Union fell apart in 1991, the underground churches were able to openly operate and Baptist and Pentecostal churches began a strong outreach as the Holy Spirit moved upon the spiritually starved people. The leadership in these churches didn't pay attention to national borders since there is a genuine bond of love between the Christians in Russia, Ukraine, Poland, the Baltic states and all the other former slave states. Oppression also creates an urgency and the people in these churches know how to pray! As Putin is waging war in the Ukraine, the people in the churches are petitioning the Lord, and this should provide us with hope. Let's join them in prayer for the people who are living under the threat of Putin, that God will destroy his land grab attempts and that he will suffer the same fate of King Herod. (Acts 12:18-24)

A FAITHFUL SERVANT

Jesus warned that the world population would revert back to the lifestyle that existed before the great flood during the time period before His second return. He also stated that people would be so seduced that they would not even be able to discern the end of time was at hand. Jesus exhorted His followers to stay alert and watch for the signs that would precede his coming.

Jesus then laid out the steps for a Christian that wanted to be faithful to God. We are to do the works of God while there is time:

1. Share the Gospel and leading people to Christ. (Matt. 28:18-20)
2. Heal the sick and cast out demons. (Matt.10:1; Luke 9:1-2)
3. Tithe to the work of the Lord. (Mal 3:6-12)

In order to carry out these assignments, there should be a corporate effort where Christians band together to use their resources in order to send out people and there will also be individual work on a daily basis to share your faith in Christ with unbelievers. It didn't take many days after the Day of Pentecost until believers in Christ had organized themselves in Jerusalem to take care of daily needs and reach out. (Acts 4:23-35)

As individuals, we are commanded to give 10% of our income to the work of the Lord. The tithe is normally given to the church that you attend, but as pastors and denominations are moving deeper and deeper into apostasy, it is hard for a Christian to know what to do with his tithe. The logical rule is that you put your tithe into the place where you are spiritually fed, but if the church you are attending is not feeding you the whole counsel of God, it is a sin to support such a church since they are not carrying out the will of God. Therefore, if you put your tithe into a ministry that squanders the money on projects which God has not called them to do, you will also be held responsible. It is your responsibility to find a ministry that meets your spiritual needs and that is where your tithe should be given if you want to be a faithful servant.

As we approach evil times, we should take an inventory of how we spend our time and finances. When you see refugees on television coming out from Syria into Turkey or Jordan, these men, women and children are staggering toward safety and carrying small bundles of belongings. Their homes, possessions, jobs, cars and bank accounts are forever gone. They have nothing to give as refugees to the spreading of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

All that you have will one day be taken away in a war or through death. This begs the question: how much did you invest in the Kingdom of God? Everything you invest in the Kingdom of God will be waiting for you in heaven, where the dividend is 100% of what you invested. If you haven't thought about it, now is the time to spend less money on yourself and more money on the different ministry's God has on earth.

“Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?”

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” (Matthew 24:45-51)

THE KABBALAH BOOKLETS

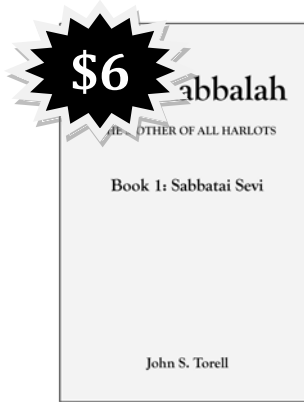

Exposing the hidden secrets of the future World Government!

Have you ever wondered what motivates the people who make up the World Government? What religion do they embrace? This is important because religion is a foundational building block behind every political movement. It is true of Communism, Nazism and Fascism. Do you know that all three of these violent movements have the same religion? Furthermore, it is the same religion that inspired these Satanic movements which is also the religion of the people in the World Government.

In this series of booklets you will learn how the diabolical Kabbalah was started in the days of Moses, more than five thousand years ago by men who rebelled against God. This secret religion among the twelve tribes of Israel burned like a smoldering fire under the surface and it was King Solomon who fanned the fire some 900 years before Christ and made it into the refined system we see today. As we approach the coming of the Antichrist and the Mark of the Beast, it should be of utmost importance to know about the religion of this coming world dictator.

- What do Kabbalists believe?
- Who is their god?
- What are the plans and goal of this god?
- How is the Kabbalah affecting many aspects of your life?

The knowledge you gain about this evil religion will help you resist the Mark of the Beast and the oppression that is going to come on this earth.

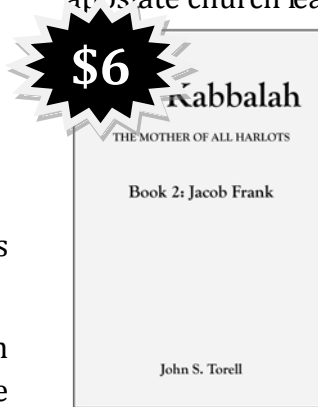

THE KABBALAH - Book 1: Sabbatai Sevi

Sabbatai Sevi proclaimed to be the messiah in the year 1666, but unlike Jesus, he lived an immoral life, and the Kabbalah teaches that through his sinful life and death through sickness, he opened the door for salvation for them that believe on him. Striving to live a sinful life is not the nature of God, but of the Devil, and the complete opposite of what the Bible teaches of Jesus, who was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and died on the cross for our sins.

The messiah concept found in the Kabbalah is actually "Satan's gospel" and the core belief of the people in charge of the coming World Government. If you don't understand this concept, you will be deceived by the Antichrist system and might even be assured to take the Mark of the Beast by apostate church leaders and the media.

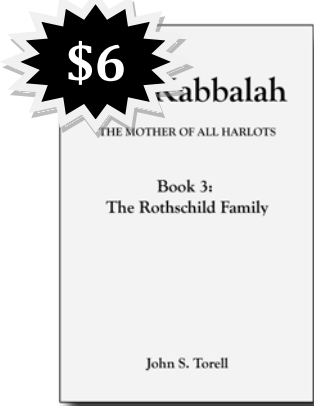

THE KABBALAH - Book 2: Jacob Frank

For thousands of years people believed the earth was flat and the center of the universe, and anyone who challenged these assumptions was arrested, tried and put to death by the Roman Catholic Church. So what happens

today when someone makes an assertion that is considered anti-Semitic but can be proven otherwise? Few Gentiles know about a Jew named Jacob Frank in the 18th century who was deeply educated in the Kabbalah and believed he was the reincarnation of Sabbatai Sevi. He believed in nihilism and advocated overthrowing every national government, executing every king and eradicating every trace of Christianity. He strove to destroy God's laws and lived in total sin.

While Frank was never able to put his revolutionary ideas into practice, his writings did become the foundation for the scourges of Communism, Nazism and Fascism and someday they will also be used by the Antichrist. The millions that were killed during the Second World War and the communist takeovers of Russia, China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Cuba are a direct result of Frank's writings. Their blood cries out for truth concerning this demonized man so that future generations can be warned about this hellish future.

THE KABBALAH - Book 3:
The Rothschild Family

A successful revolution requires a lot of money, but when the goal is to subdue the world and put it under a dictatorship, entire financial systems must be taken over. The Kabbalistic leadership wants to take dominion of the earth and rule it with their messiah and they need to control the banking system to achieve this objective. The Fugger family was promoted in the 14th century but they did not protect their wealth. Jewish traders became very wealthy during the next two centuries as they operated in all nations and supplied warring armies but there was no centralized control that could be projected over the banking systems of different nations.

Meyer Amschel was selected to be the founding father of a global banking family. He was sly, deceitful and intensely loyal to the Jewish cause that is spelled out in the Talmud and the Kabbalah. The Kabbalistic leadership invested funds and coins which Amschel used to build a strong banking house in Frankfurt and his five sons proved to be more shrewd than their father. In less than 50 years the Rothschild family had penetrated the financial markets in Austria, Germany, France, England, Italy and Spain. This is the story of the Rothschild's, who through the Kabbalistic leadership were able to set the policies in these nations and achieve a monopoly that is unrivaled today.

THE KABBALAH - Book 4:
The Stealth Takeover of the United States

The Kabbalistic Jews learned through the Rothschild takeover of the European banking system to disguise themselves and find Gentiles who are willing to do their bidding. Another lesson they learned was that it is impossible for any nation or group of people to take control of the world through military power. The only way to succeed is to take control of the different nations' monetary systems and forge them into a global banking and trade system. Once this has been achieved, food is the ultimate weapon since no one can live without it.

The stealth takeover of the United States was done by Gentile businessmen, lawyers, elected political leaders, educators, Christian ministers and military commanders who were willing to carry out orders that included shooting on the American people to make them comply. This book takes you from 1828 until 1907 and shows the treason, sellouts and the rape of the American people that were carried out in such a remarkable way that no one could resist it and survive.

God was also carrying out a parallel program through D.L. Moody and R.A. Torrey, who were used to bring millions of people in the United States and England to Christ and hindered the ultimate goal of the Jewish world leaders to usher in their new world order. Ironically, the same tactics employed more than a hundred years ago are still being foisted upon us today and the old adage is still true that those who don't know their history are doomed to repeat it.

THE KABBALAH - Book 5:
The Rise of the Illuminati

Do the mythical Illuminati even exist and what are the intentions of this secretive group? Most people interested in prophecy and the Mark of the Beast will invariably come across a mysterious organization called the Illuminati. A great deal has been written about this secretive group but how much of it is truth? Who was Adam Weishaupt and why did he create the Illuminati? To answer that question we must examine his political viewpoints that were formulated upon writings of Plato, Jacob Frank and the Kabbalah. Utilizing this information along with historical facts that have been preserved in various libraries of France, England and the United States will present a picture of his mindset and intentions toward humanity.

While the Illuminati fomented revolution in France that resulted in widespread death and destruction, God simultaneously worked upon John Wesley, George Whitefield and Jonathan Edwards, who became lightning rods for a revival that would touch the entire world. Weishaupt had similar plans for revolution in England and the American colonies, but these three men were instrumental in thwarting this effort and you will be inspired to learn about God's intervention in human affairs.

THE KABBALAH - Book 6:
The Illuminati Writers and the Revolutions

The Al-Qaida terror network is nothing compared to the terrorists who sought to change the world in 1848! The last ten years have been filled with news of the Al-Qaida terrorist network and its organization of radical killers, but did you know that there was an even more sinister terror network operating in Europe 180 years ago? They worshiped Satan with all their might and arose in coordinated revolutions by the hundreds of thousands in 1848 to overthrow governments and cause a world upheaval. They were trained in military skills and revolutionary ideas by men whose names have been mostly forgotten by history, but the words of these writers still remain and continue to work in the hearts of the impressionable students at universities and seminaries.

The Illuminati writers are long dead but they trained another generation to carry on their evil intent for a world government and that cycle has continued to perpetuate itself. In fact, their message can be found at the core of every dictatorship in existence today. This narrative of the Illuminati writers shows Satan's intent to enslave all nations of the earth through revolution and form a world government which will usher in the kingdom of the Antichrist. The disciples of these writers have set their sights on destroying the United States, and unless God's people wake up, America will go down in history as the last of the great nations who forsook the Lord. If that seems improbable, you need only look at what happened in the past to see what lies in the future.

Biblical Truth Concerning the State of Israel

John S. Torell

Early in January 2009 the Holy Spirit moved upon Pastor John to preach on the political state of Israel from a biblical point of view in order to shed light on the Zionists and their Christian supporters. From its creation in 1948, the State of Israel has been hailed as a fulfillment of Ezekiel's prophecies, but why would God need men to lie, cheat, kill and destroy to accomplish this task?

Pastor John digs into history to show how the Israelites entered the Promised Land and how they lost it. Over the centuries the political parties of the Pharisees and Sadducees were formed along with the creation of the Talmud and the Cabala. It was against this backdrop that Jesus (the true Messiah) was repeatedly confronted to set up an earthly kingdom but he brought out that the kingdom of Israel was forever gone. The Jewish leadership was not interested in a heavenly kingdom and took it upon themselves to re-establish Israel and continue to wait for their messiah, which the Bible tells us is Satan himself.

Many Christians don't understand just how interconnected the coming Antichrist will be with the political state of Israel as the Beast (Revelation chapter 13) slowly tightens his grip upon the world. The tragedy is that most pastors have not understood that the current State of Israel is not of God and Christian Zionists are misled because they don't understand the truth. The purpose of this series is to establish biblical truth in order to keep you out of the clutches of the Antichrist system and to reject the Mark of the Beast that is just around the corner.

God's Key to Health and Happiness

Elmer Josephson

Would you like to be in perfect health? No more unnecessary illness, no serious disorders, just a glowing of health and happiness? If so, this book is for you! It is a remarkable, life-changing guide to good health, based on the dietary laws in the Manual for mankind God created! This remarkable study on nutrition tells what foods are dangerous to our health (the list will astound you!) and reveals how to correctly prepare the food that good and nutritious to eat - "live foods = live bodies."

God's Key to Health and Happiness was born out of the author's own complete nervous and physical breakdown. This resulted in years of private research and study before the book was written. It has reached hundreds of thousands of lives with hope and recovery.

THE SIX-POINTED STAR - O.J. Graham

The hexagram became known as the Seal of Solomon after he married the daughter of Pharoah, built an altar to Ashteroth and entered into Baal worship. Since then, usage has continued in Solomonic rituals of freemasonry. Long used in magic and witchcraft, the six-pointed star has been used as the chief symbol of worship to Moloch in burnt human sacrificial rituals. Used by Druids and astrologers, the six-pointed star has been used consistently in the occult, and was used by occultist Adolf Hitler during the holocaust. In more recent times, it has almost replaced the seven-branched candlestick given to the Israelites as an everlasting covenant. Is the 666 seen in the six-pointed star a sign of things to come?

ISRAEL: OUR DUTY, OUR DILEMMA - Ted Pike

This book explains how the ancient Pharisees led Israel astray and how those same "blind guides" today continue to prejudice Jews against Christ and Christianity. Ted Pike demonstrates that Jewish opposition to the gospel, far from being over with in the book of Acts, continues today in movies, television, Jewish "civil liberties" groups, in anti-missionary laws in Israel, as well as explaining the only workable, Biblical solution to strife in the war-torn Middle East.

THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIANITY

John S. Torell

The average Christian is not familiar with their Bible and possesses almost no historical knowledge regarding the birth of Christianity because most churches in the United States emphasize contemporary worship, a short sermonette and lots of social activities. This series of messages will educate you about the struggle that the early church faced in breaking away from Judaism.

The Talmud was so deeply ingrained in the apostles that they ignored the words of Jesus to evangelize the whole world because Gentiles were considered unclean and likened to animals. It would take some time before the church leaders finally lined up with their departed Master and understood that the Second Covenant is for the Jews and Gentiles alike.

But this didn't put a stop to misunderstandings about circumcision and the parts of God's law which were applicable to the Gentiles who were ignorant of the Old Testament and didn't have access to the scrolls in the synagogues.

Eventually it became necessary to hold a special conference in Jerusalem and straighten out what should be done with the Christian Gentiles. Their ruling was man's attempt to solve a spiritual problem in the flesh and it would be years later before the doctrine of the Christian church was finally written that corrected the errors from this conference and established the Christian faith.

A Wonderful Deception

Warren Smith

The further New Age implications of the Emerging Purpose Driven Movement.

Five years after writing Deceived on Purpose: the New Age Implications of the Purpose Driven Church, former New Age follower Warren Smith continues to reveal how Christian leaders wittingly or unwittingly are leading the church into a spiritual trap.

Smith examines church metaphors, concepts, and beliefs that are essentially the same as those being used in today’s New Age teachings. And while biblical prophecy is being minimized and explained away, the “new science” is being used to prepare the world -- and the church -- to accept a New Spirituality and a false New Age Christ.

This book explains how all the puzzle pieces are in place for the strong delusion described in 2 Thessalonians. A “Wonderful” Deception pierces right into the heart of this deception while preparing believers in Jesus Christ to effectively stand against it. Some key areas addressed in this book:

- How a “broad way” Christianity is deceiving many in the church.
- How the “new science” will try to prove that God is “in” everything.
- How Rick Warren continues to align himself with New Age sympathizers.
- How attempts have been made to discredit critics of the Purpose Driven movement.
- How the best-selling novel, The Shack, fits into the “wonderful” deception.
- Ten scriptural reasons not to be connected with the Purpose Driven movement.
