DANCING AROUND THE GOLDEN CALF - PART II

THE ROAD TO THE GOLDEN CALF

By John S. Torell

THE THEOLOGICAL TEACHING THAT IS DESTROYING AMERICA

Very few people have understood that events happening today were first thoughts and then words in people living yesterday. There is a saying that "the dead rule the living" and to a great extent this is true. False religious philosophies, political platforms and financial conspiracies to control commerce are holding the world in an iron grip and forcing people to live and work according to the founders of these bizarre ideas. Unless we understand what was said and done in the past, we will have lost our ability to free ourselves from these chains, imposed by these psychopaths and their demon handlers.

THE DEMON RULERS ARE THE SAME

Very few Christians have understood that fallen angels do not age, neither do they die. The satanic hierarchy that ruled the nations in the Middle East prior to the flood is still ruling the same areas. The only satanic entities locked up in prison, are the ones who trespassed and had sexual intercourse with women prior to the flood, and those cast out by Christians and sent to prison.

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Genesis 6:1-2

For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;...

2 Peter 2:4

And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

Jude 1:6

And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. And He said unto them, "I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

Luke 10:17-19

Accordingly, the same satanic rulers who possessed kings and rulers in the past are still in possession of the current leadership in Iran (Persia), Iraq (Babylon), Syria,

Lebanon, Egypt and all other nations around the world. The demons that possessed Nero, Genghis Khan, Karl Marx, Lenin, Hitler, Stalin, Mao Zedong, Pol Pot (left), Idi Amin (below right), etc., today possess other political rulers like Kim Yong il (below), dictator of North Korea, Islamic Ayatollahs, the current president of Iran, the political leadership in Israel, the United States and all other nations. If a political leader is a born again believer in Christ, walking in obedience to the Word of God, and been delivered from demons, only then are they free from being ruled by evil spirits.

God's own Word tells us that there are demon princes who are ruling over nations with the help of millions of demonic spirits who are perverting the thinking of the people living in the nations and making men and women into beasts who enjoy killing and tormenting other human beings. That's the reason why we have the suicide bombers, young men and women committed to murdering as many people as possible and killing themselves at the same time. When a suicide bomber dies, the evil spirits exit their body and then move on to another person.

Today we can see this demonic manifestation in Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Iraq, Afghanistan, the Gaza strip, the West Bank, etc. We can see them here in the United States possessing serial killers and rapists, causing great harm to innocent victims. Even if a killer is caught, sentenced to death and executed, the demons are safe once the killer dies; they leave his body and find new victims to possess. They can enter a child, stay in that child as it grows older and use that person to commit atrocities. Most prison guards, police officers, ambulance drivers, firemen, doctors and nurses and all other people who are either around demon possessed people, or are responders to accidents where people have died, will become demon possessed if they are not saved and even if they are born again, they can become oppressed by demons.

The same holds true for military personnel involved in combat who come in contact with dead people. Divorce, suicide and substance abuse is rampant in law enforcement, prison guards, medical responders and military personnel.

And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

Daniel 10:11-13

Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come. Daniel 10:20

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Ephesians 6:11-12

MOHAMMAD WAS POSSESSED BY A PRINCIPALITY

Mohammad was a thief, liar and sexual pervert who wanted money and power to live out his selfish desires. In 622 A.D., he moved to Medina, Saudi Arabia, where he organized his new religion, Islam (meaning “surrender”). For the next ten years he formulated his religion which elevated men and demoted women to a low class, described by Mohammad as poor in intelligence and religion.¹ By doing so he took away their legal rights and relegated them to a commodity, created for the pleasure of men and procreation.

Mohammad himself had 16 wives and six concubines (female slaves). His favorite wife was Aishah, she was only six years old when he took her as a wife. He did not have sexual intercourse with her until she was nine years old.

Mohammad also taught that Jihad (holy war) was to be waged against all other people who did not embrace his religion. Men who fought in Jihad and died in battle were told that they would go straight to heaven where they would be given a large number of beautiful virgins. For the rest of eternity, the “martyr” would be able to have as much sexual pleasure as he wanted and all the alcohol he wished to drink. However, it is ironic that while on earth, a Muslim is not allowed to drink alcohol.

Mohammad had only lived ten years in Medina when he died, but during these short ten years, he established a “hell” religion which has lasted for some 1,384 years and now has over one billion followers. Ten years ago, very few people in the West knew what the word Jihad meant, but now it has become a household word. Suicide bombers from Afghanistan, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and Iraq have altered the lifestyle in the Western Nations of the world, and no one in the world today is safe from some fanatical follower of Mohammad looking for someone he can kill, all in the name of “Allah,” the demon god of Mohammad.

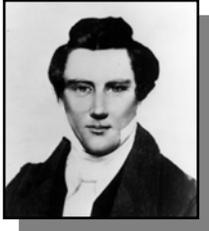

When the Taliban ruled Afghanistan, girls were not allowed to be educated. When Afghani parents send their girls to school today, a fanatical Taliban fighter will attack the school, kill the teachers and girls, and then burn down the school building. Here is the plain truth: The “prophet Mohammad” was a pedophile that has been dead now for more than 1,600 years, but his legacy lives on through a billion plus Muslims who are busy making life miserable for all the other infidels living on this planet.

JOSEPH SMITH WAS POSSESSED BY A PRINCIPALITY

Time has been kind to Joseph Smith as the Mormon spin doctors have for years created an image that never existed. If we were to use modern terms for Smith, he would be described as a psychopath who at the age of 14 suffered from dementia praecox, a form of insanity also known as schizophrenia. As a young man, he suffered from hallucinations and conned a number of people into paying him to search for hidden treasures which he knew did not exist. He was known as a liar and thief to the people living in his community. He dabbled in the occult, became a Freemason for a while, and also attended a number of different churches. Being a dishonest man who did not like to work, he invented a religion which gave him a license to live out his sexual perversions.

Just like Mohammad, Smith created a religion that elevated men and treated women as sex objects who were to bear children and make sure that the husband was satisfied in his lustful sexual fantasies. He taught that the god of this creation was a man, who in previous times had lived as a man, joined a Mormon church and when he died he was elevated to godhood. Millions of men on this prehistoric planet had become gods and each one was given a solar system and millions of women as wives. This particular god, Elohim, kept having sexual intercourse with all his women and their offspring were souls which were flown down to the present earth and inserted in unborn babies.

Behind Elohim was another god, and behind him was another god, with this pattern going back for eternity. In the future, the same pattern will be followed with Mormon men becoming gods, who will in turn populate their solar systems and the whole cycle of Adam and Eve, the fall in the garden and the coming Messiah will be repeated for eternity with the making of a new set of gods.

Smith taught that there is a general resurrection for men but not for women. If a Mormon man has pleasure in his wife, he may wake her up from the dead, but if he is displeased with her, she will never wake up and simply cease to exist.

Joseph Smith had a sexual appetite that could not be satisfied, and as a result, he took a number of wives. His first wife, who had born him eight children, was forced aside as he brought in younger women to satisfy him.

He used his knowledge of freemasonry to design temple rites which degraded young women when they came to the temple to be married. First, they were stripped naked and examined to make sure they were virgins and then rubbed down with oil before they were allowed to dress and go through the wedding ceremony.

When Joseph was killed in prison, the movement split in two, with Brigham Young taking the biggest amount of people and leading them to Utah. The family of Joseph went south to Missouri and formed what is called, "The Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints." Brigham Young was even more brutal and ruthless than Joseph and once he had established himself in Salt Lake City, he surrounded himself with a harem of women, who were in reality slaves. A militia was formed called "The Avengers," who would ride at night and kill people opposed to Brigham. If bishops or other leaders in the Mormon Church lusted after a wife of another man, the Avengers would simply kill the husband, and force the new widow to marry the man who had lusted after her.

When the United States finally took control over Utah, there was a showdown between the U.S. Army and the Mormon Church. With the threat of being attacked and destroyed, the Mormon leadership in 1890 changed its theology and forbade polygamy, but tens of thousands of hardcore Mormons continued to practice polygamy secretly, even to this very day.

WARREN JEFFS IS POSSESSED BY A PRINCIPALITY

A prime example of this continued polygamy is the Mormon branch called the Fundamental Latter Day Saints (FLDS) with its headquarters in the twin cities of Hilldale, Utah and Colorado City in Arizona. The current leader is Warren Jeffs, born in 1955, took over leadership in 2002 when his father Rulon Jeffs died. Rulon left behind 75 wives and 65 children. Warren is said to have about 80 wives and over 250 children that are spread out in a number of different states including a large ranch in Eldorado, Texas. He had been on the FBI Most Wanted list for several years and is accused of molesting young girls and sodomizing young boys. When his father died, he took a number of his father's wives and married them.

When Warren took over the sect, he removed all the children from public school, and had all their books burned. Just like days of old, if Warren or one of his leaders finds a woman attractive, the husband is either killed or driven out of the community and the "new widow" is forced to marry the man who lusted after her. Young men are driven out from the community on a regular basis since there are not enough women to go around. People in these two cities are scared and do not speak to strangers. The State Police and Sheriff departments of Utah and Arizona are not able to control these twin cities and Warren reigns as king over some 10,000 people. Even the FBI doesn't dare to go into these cities to arrest him but would preferably try and arrest him while he travels and is more isolated. When

Warren does travel, it is always with armed bodyguards known as "God's Patrol."

The people living in these two cities are forbidden to have television sets and are not allowed to read newspapers or books. The only books allowed are cookbooks. According to the teaching of this Mormon branch, a man must have at least three wives in order to become a god in the next life. The more wives a man accumulates, the greater status he has in the sect. Warren Jeffs operates just like the Taliban do in Afghanistan. He presides over trials as a judge with no jurors, he is the sheriff, and he controls the people's money through his own private bank. Consequently, he is able to extract large sums of money from his followers, which gives him the freedom to live a lavish lifestyle, travel, and pay his bodyguards.

Young girls are never given a chance to select whom they want to marry. Once a girl reaches the age of 12, she will automatically be taken into marriage. A young girl is only notified a few hours before the wedding is to take place, then taken by force to the wedding ceremony and later "molested" by her husband.

Warren Jeff is a psychopath living a lavish life style and a rapist of young boys and girls. The media in the United States is partly to blame for this because they have stayed away and not given this situation any coverage. Most Americans don't know there is a home grown "Taliban" in the heartland of the United States that no government agency wants to tackle. This brings to mind a burning question for which there is no answer at this time, "Who is protecting this child molester, murderer and wife stealer?"

LATE BREAKING NEWS

Warren Jeffs was arrested on August 28th, just outside of Las Vegas by the Nevada

Highway Patrol at a traffic stop. He was riding in 2007 Cadillac Escalade with $50,000 in cash, cell phones, laptop computers and wigs.

Again, I want to remind the reader that Joseph Smith's perverted demon ruler designed a religion around 150 years ago and today its spin doctors have cleaned up the history of violence, murder, incest and corruption and made it into a modern American religion with some ten million members, half of them outside the United States. The Mormon Church is the largest corporation in the Western United States and owns stock in the airline, manufacturing and insurance industries. The Mormon Church is always pushing its family values, but to those inside the church, it is a corrupt system demanding absolute loyalty, even with finances. Members are forced to show their IRS filings each year so that they can be properly taxed by the Mormon leadership.

Remember this, the Mormon Church began as a thought in the mind of Joseph Smith, and today even though he is dead, Joseph Smith still rules the living that have joined the Mormon Church. The same satanic spirits who possessed and ruled through these psychopaths are still in charge of the current leadership and it is not the dead men who are ruling today, but powerful demonic principalities that are perpetuating Islam, Mormonism and all other false religions.

I have chosen these two examples to show the reader that the dead are indeed ruling the living and only through Jesus Christ can we be liberated. Jesus is not dead; He is risen from the dead and very much alive.

I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

Revelation 1:10-18

Please consider the following organizations, which have billions of people in a death grip, Communism, Hinduism, Buddhism, Roman Catholicism, New Age groups, Freemasonry, and all kind of secret societies. The dead rule the living!

But the worst is yet to come. The majority of the Christians in the world are now being led astray and programmed to be the guardians of the coming Antichrist and his system. Read these verses in the Bible and begin to weep!

Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

*Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5

Let's trace the falling away that happened among Christians so that you can avoid being sucked into this spiritual "black hole!" It began with William Miller.

William Miller (1782-1849)

William Miller is the most well-known American who started a movement claiming that the return of Jesus Christ was imminent. He worked as a farmer in his youth, and when war with England broke out in 1812, he served in the U.S. Army as a captain. In 1816, he abandoned his stand as a Deist, and became a Christian and joined a Baptist church. Two years later, he announced that Jesus Christ was going to return to the earth in 25 years (sometime in March 1844) and set up his 1,000 year kingdom. In 1833, Miller was licensed to preach by a Baptist church, but he was never ordained. He published a pamphlet in 1833 with the title, "Evidence from Scripture and History of the Second Coming of Christ about the Year 1843." People became excited about his teaching, and he was able to attract some 50,000 followers who were also known as "Adventists," which later became known as "Seventh Day Adventists." William was able to speak in many churches but was barred from Episcopalian and Roman Catholic Churches. He mainly moved in two states, Vermont and New York. When Christ did not return in March 1844, Miller made a new calculation based upon Daniel 8:14, and set the new date as October 12, 1844.

The entire Millerite movement collapsed as most of his followers' faith in Christ was destroyed. But Miller was a slick operator, and he came out with a new explanation: Christ had indeed returned, but Miller had not understood that Christ first had to come to the "Heavenly Sanctuary," which he was now busy cleansing. Once Jesus had cleaned things up in heaven, he would come back to the earth. A remnant of his followers bought into this lie and formed the Advent Church and in 1845 Miller became the first president of this denomination. The name was later changed to Seventh Day Adventist and when Miller died in 1849, a new false prophet took over by the name of Ellen G. White.² The demonic activity was very high during these years, because Joseph Smith (1805-1844), another religious huckster was operating in New York at the same time. As Miller was stirring up the Christian community with his predictions, Smith operated in the backwaters and on April 6, 1830 he founded the Mormon Church, also known as the Latter Day Saints (LDS). By 1839 Smith had a following of some 20,000 persons.

A MODERN MILLERITE RULED BY A RELIGIOUS SATANIC SPIRIT

Harold Camping, the president or dictator of the radio network known as FAMILY RADIO has done and is continuing to do great damage to the Christian community in the world. Just like so many other false teachers, this man does not have any formal theological education, but is a businessman who has proclaimed to be a “prophet and Bible teacher” from God. Family Radio was founded by some Christians in the late 1950’s with one station in San Francisco and over the years built a network covering the entire United States. As a businessman, Camping invested a substantial amount of money, and as a result secured for himself a dominant role in the network. For many years, there was wholesome solid Bible teaching outreach mixed with great gospel music and featured great programs like Unshackled, Back to the Bible, Haven of Rest and many others. The downfall of Camping came when he began to teach that the gifts of the Holy Spirit were not for today, that the powerful work of the Holy Spirit ended with the last apostle in the first century after Christ.

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. 2 Timothy 3:5

I have been a daily listener to Family Radio since 1969 and Camping’s heresy has now gotten so bad that he has lost control of himself. Some of the wonderful staff either quit the network or were fired, as he streamlined the organization to be a group of rubberstamping yes men, who would admire and accept everything Harold would come up with. In 1992, the religious spirits from Satan completely took him over as he wrote a book titled, “1994,” in which he predicted that Jesus’ second coming was to take place between September 15th and 27th in the year 1994. Camping pushed his book frequently on the radio, teaching from it on his program, “Open Forum” and other Bible teaching sessions. When September 1994 rolled around and Jesus did not return, Harold worked like a showman who is caught and said that he had not understood the message from God, but predicted a new date which was good. The date was afterward changed eight times until he settled for the year 2008. Look at the following dates:

- (a) September 6, 1994? (Subsequently extended a few days, given the slight variations in the ancient calendars). Or,
- (b) September 15, 1994, the Jewish Day of Atonement? Or,
- (c) September 25, 1994, the Jewish feast of tabernacles? Or,
- (d) October 4, 1994, the actual birthday of Jesus, calculated by Mr. Camping? Or,
- (e) December 25, 1994, our traditional celebration of Christmas and Christ’s incarnation and birth, based on the statement in Revelation 11:10 that the enemies of God’s people would “send gifts one to another”? Or,
- (f) February 25, 1995, the Jewish feast of Purim? Or,
- (g) May 3, 1996, when he was so sure of this date that he devoted several Open Forum programs to explain how the “four watches” (alluded to in Mark 13:35) extended the September 6, 1994 date until then? Or,

- (h) His current teaching, that September 6, 1994 was the right date, after all, but for the beginning of the Great Tribulation, not Judgment Day? And, since we are at least halfway through the Great Tribulation, simple arithmetic says that the return of the Lord will be no later than 2008.

MY CONTACT WITH FAMILY RADIO

Once I heard this teaching on Family Radio, I decided to call them and ask them if our church could take over the network since Jesus was coming back shortly and Harold Camping would not be around. Since Harold could not take any money with him to heaven, I told them they should really give the entire network to us free of charge. The person answering the phone became very uneasy and told me that she did not really believe what Camping was teaching, but could not do anything about it. Harold was planning all along to keep the network which told me that he didn't even believe in his own insane teaching. In the meantime, Harold Camping directed his staff to keep on soliciting funds and doing their monthly fundraising. Camping is like all other false prophets and charlatans, there is no shame, just greed to get more money, making the ministry bigger and bigger, and make a name for him self. Here are two statements from people inside Family Radio:

"I am a Family Radio employee. You probably already know that some of us who disagree with Mr. Camping are staying on at Family Radio (for now) in the hopes that there will soon be some pieces to pick up and rebuild what has arguably been the premier radio outlet for the gospel message in much of the United States. We do our jobs as well as we can under the circumstances, not hiding our disagreement, but bearing up under the pressure to conform to a blasphemous heresy. It is our hope for the future that keeps us here, not cowardice and not agreement with Camping. There are many ways to work toward the goal of restoring the orthodox gospel message to Family Radio, and some of us have chosen to remain for now. Rest assured that if the time comes when it is clear that there is no hope of the true gospel being restored to Family Radio, I will leave, not looking back."

"I know quite a lot about this subject, since I've been an employee of Family Radio for 18 years. You don't know the pain we've been going through. The 1994? debacle was bad. I've personally been verbally assaulted by people in the church who assume I agree with Harold Camping, because I work for Family Radio. I calmly try to tell them that, no, I do not agree with him. But now it's worse. Now Family Radio employees are hearing things like "Hey man, you work for a cult. Why don't you quit?" The answer is: most of the people that work for F.R feel that Mr. Camping is just plain wrong, or has gone delusional in his advanced age. We are praying that the board of directors will do something about the situation. In the meantime, we are holding on - waiting for the situation to be resolved so we can rebuild Family Radio to the faithful ministry it used to be. We aren't quitting in droves because we feel that Family Radio is still doing a lot of good, and still deserves to be supported. Yes, in the future if things get worse (and believe me, they can) then the decision to leave will become more attractive. That is a personal decision. But the point here is that the attention so far has been on how Mr. Camping's teaching has degenerated, and not on the faithful employees who are trying to do God's will under bad circumstances."

WILL HAROLD CAMPING DIE AS A FALSE PROPHET?

Currently Family Radio is pushing Camping's latest pamphlet called, "Has the Era of the Church Age Come to an End?" There are probably some one million Christians listening to the Family Radio network and most of them are conservative and Bible anchored. These are the people who cherish moral family values; they are tithing members of churches and active in Sunday school and other evangelical outreach programs. In other words, the stalwart of the Christian church, the very backbone, is being destroyed by Camping. I want to share a letter with you, which was written to the Board of Directors of Family Radio:

"Dear Sirs,

"Greetings in Christ Jesus our Lord. I have been a supporter of the network since shortly after my conversion in 1988. 90% of your programming is excellent. I hope Family Radio can be salvaged.

"Harold Camping's book 1994? prompted me to then write a lengthy review denouncing the work, and now I am hearing and reading things equally absurd and untrue. Mr. Camping asserts that all the churches are dead and are to be abandoned. Not merely the 'liberal churches,' but all churches. This is unbiblical and destructively divisive. To put a point on it: This teaching is satanic. Those who support and/or promote this teaching are partakers of his evil doctrine. Notice the contradictions between the quotes below and those in the postscript of this letter.

"According to Camping, the two witnesses of Revelation 11:3ff are the church, and they (she) are now dead: the church is turned over to Satan, and he rules therein. A few faithful groups remain (Family Radio is the only one he ever mentions), but just as Israel was in captivity in Babylon, so the church today is under Satan's complete sway. To wit: the sacraments are ineffectual and not to be observed just as the animal sacrifices and circumcision were not done in captivity."

"His 'good news' appears to be: The temple is destroyed, the gates of hell have prevailed, and the church is dead, never to rise again. So send your money to faithful Family Radio!"

"He writes: 'No longer are you to be under the spiritual rulership of the church. This command is given because God is finished with the era of churches being used of God to evangelize.'"

"We must remove ourselves [sic] from the church."

"But as judgment comes on the church the true believer is to stay outside the church bringing the Gospel to the world."

"Because the church era has come to an end the churches have become dead as the church of Sardis long ago became dead. (Rev 3:1). The churches of today have had their candlestick removed even as the church of Ephesus of Rev. 2 was warned that God would remove their candlestick if they did not return to their first love. The church has ceased to be an institution or divine organism to serve God as His appointed representative on earth.

"The elders and deacons are being guided by their own minds rather than by the Holy Spirit."

WHAT TO DO ACCORDING TO HAROLD CAMPING

"If the individual or family are simply attending a church and are not members they can stop attending that church but continue to fellowship outside of the church with individuals of like mind.

"If a congregation decides to be obedient to this command they can reorganize their congregation from a church congregation, to become a fellowship of believers. The elders will no longer be elders. The deacons will no longer be deacons. The Pastor will no longer be pastor. In other words no individuals will have spiritual rule over the congregation. Those members of this congregation who disagree with this decision to disband would have to find membership in another congregation."

The above quotes are from Camping's article, "The End of the External Church."³

His hyper-Amillennialism has gone beyond pessimism. Is there any recourse to pull the plug on him? I call on the faithful involved in Family Radio's management to stop airing Harold Camping's latter-day teachings. Family Radio is too wonderful a ministry to let go to pot. But Mr. Camping appears to be in his dotage, and it is dangerous when God's word is being so wrongly divided. To whom can I look for help in this matter? Any help you can be is appreciated. Thank you.

Yours in Christ,

Hugh McCann

P.S. Ironically and contradictorily Mr. Camping is also quoted as saying:

QUESTION: What do you say to those who suspect you of trying to get a following - of starting a new movement or a new church?

MR. CAMPING: "I don't want anyone to follow me. I am not asking anyone to follow Family Radio, because at our best all we can do is teach God's Word and be an example of the fact that we all need to go back to the Word of God alone for our answers. Oh, if only pastors could see that we are not their enemy. We are not opposed to them, we are not trying to put them down, and we are not trying to come with controversial or contentious doctrine. Actually, God's marching orders in Matthew 28:19 and 20 are two fold: the Church is to teach and to baptize. We are not a church. We do not baptize. In fact, we urge those who listen, to go to a Bible-teaching church, be baptized and submit to the discipline and fellowship of the believers there. We can never become a church...we are only a network of radio stations - a voice speaking out clearly - teaching the Bible by spoken word, by song (as mentioned in Ephesians 5:19) and giving opportunity to those who want to challenge, question, even debate what God is saying to all of us in His Word. I feel badly that there are those who misunderstand why I teach as clearly as I do. I don't claim to be infallible. I want no personal following. No one has to agree with my teaching to be a member of the Family Radio FAMILY. Even our staff is not required to agree with my teaching. They are, of course, required to be students of the Word themselves and to live exemplary lives." ⁴

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE GIDEONS

Most members in The Gideons are conservative strong Bible believing Christians, and since Family Radio from the beginning had a wonderful programming of majestic Christian music and Bible teaching programs from a variety of conservative Christian pastors and teachers, thousands of Gideons have been Family Radio listeners over the years. For those of you who might not know anything about The Gideons, it is an organization dating back more than 100 years, who has been placing Bibles in hotels, motels and giving out New Testaments to nurses, military recruits and students in high school and colleges, etc. Each member must be a businessman or a professional, like a doctor, lawyer, etc and must be in good standing in his home church. Gideons are organized in chapters in most cities and counties in the United States and in many foreign countries. They go to churches, where they speak and raise money to buy Bibles, which are then placed above mentioned places free of charge. Millions of Bibles have been placed and thousands upon thousands of people have been saved over the years. When Harold Camping declares that the age of the church is over, with only a few spoken words, he is trying to destroy an organization which God raised up. Has Harold really thought through how much destruction he has done and is continuing to do? Most likely not! The religious demonic spirit that possesses Harold Camping sits with a smirk on his face as Harold "drools" out his garbage on the air waves. Unless a person is strongly anchored in the Bible and has the discernment of the Holy Spirit, he will be swayed by the "smooth talking" of Harold as he sits a self-proclaimed prophet in the little kingdom he has stolen, known as Family Radio. What a tragedy!

CAMPING IS REPEATING THE SAME LIES OF THE LATTER DAY RAIN PEOPLE

During the time 1940-1955, there was a revival movement sweeping through Canada and the northern states of the U.S., which became known as the Latter Day Rain. From this movement we have buzz words like "Joel's Army, Manifest Sons of God, Better Covenant, The True Sons of David, Over Comers, The Joseph Company, Qualified Christians, True Sons, Remnant Sons, etc." Before we take a look at the Latter Day Rain People, here is a truth I would like to share with you:

SEEKING SIGNS INSTEAD OF SEEKING GOD

The downfall of so many Christian pastors, evangelists and other leaders in the United States has been THEIR HUNGER FOR THE SUPERNATURAL, FOR HEALINGS, SIGNS AND WONDERS! Instead of seeking the Healer, Jesus Christ, they cried, prayed and fasted for miracles and instead of hearing from God, demon spirits came to them, disguised as angels sent from God. When miracles began to manifest in their meetings, the focus was on the gifts. Most Christians do not know the Bible very well, they have a shallow prayer life, and they are not walking in the holiness of God. Many Christians came to Christ because they did not want to go to hell, but they are not interested in walking with God and serving Him on this earth.

They reject the food laws of given by God as found in Leviticus chapter 11 and choose to eat junk food and drink lots of sodas. As a result, their bodies are breaking down and sickness is setting in. The two World Wars in the last century lowered the moral values in the United States, sexual promiscuity became rampant, and movies from Hollywood have had the terrible impact of promoting pornography.

The mainline denominations offered no relief from sickness and the Baptist churches rejected the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, when a healer arrived on the scene, people flocked by the thousands to get relief. Now understand this statement: The focus in the miracle services was not on repentance from sins, salvation, a call to change the lifestyle and live a holy life! The focus was primarily for the sick person to get a healing so he could go back home and resume his normal lifestyle!

The apostle Paul gave a strong warning to the church in Corinth:

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

2 Corinthians 11:13-15

Jesus warned about focusing on the power and rejoicing in the power itself. Here is what Jesus said:

And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Luke 10:17-20

The Bible speaks about seducing spirits and doctrines of devils:

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

1 Timothy 4:1-2

*But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 2 Peter 2:1-3

Many healers became wealthy men and lived a lavish lifestyle; others became snared in doctrines and teachings from the occult and led many people astray. Some began to see themselves like “gods,” and instead of being servants, they became lord and master over their followers.

WHO LAID THE FOUNDATION FOR THE HEALERS?

John Nelson Darby (1800-1882) was the man following Miller to prepare the way for the Devil to take control over the Christians. He was born in London, England to a prominent Anglo-Irish family and received his early education at Westminster School in London. At the age of 15, his parents moved to Ireland and took up residence in an ancestral castle. John continued his education, attending Trinity College in Dublin and graduated in 1819. He continued his education with the study of law, and in 1822, he was admitted to the Irish Chancery Bar. Darby never married.

During his secular studies, he had also been a student of the Bible, and proclaimed himself to be a Christian. Whether he was born again or not is impossible for us to know today. He felt compelled to minister to the poor Catholics of Ireland. Consequently, he gave up his law business, and in 1825, he was ordained as a Deacon in the Church of Ireland. The following year he was promoted to priest and served in this capacity until 1827 when he resigned. Darby stated that the reason for his resignation was that he felt that the church should not be controlled by the state and that ministry came from the Holy Spirit, who gave the gifts with which to minister.

There were prophecy meetings at this time held in the mansion of Viscountess Powerscourt near Bray. It was at these meetings Darby was introduced to John Bellett, Anthony Groves and John Parnell. There were a number of other men, all having the same feeling that organized churches were in error and that something new had to be birthed. From these discontented men came a movement, known first as, "The Brethren," and later known as, "The Plymouth Brethren". The movement dates its birth back to 1828 in a larger meeting in Dublin.

In 1828, Darby wrote a pamphlet entitled, "The Nature and Unity of the Church of Christ." In it he laid out the doctrine of this new movement. In 1830, Francis W. Neuman persuaded Darby to visit Oxford (the university town in England) where he introduced him to Benjamin W. Newton from Plymouth. That year Darby made his first visit to France. This is important because there was great political upheaval in France at this time, as it had not yet recovered from the Revolution, Napoleon and his wars. It had reverted back to a type of monarchy under an iron grip of the Illuminati and its banking was in the hands of the Rothschild banking empire. In order for Darby to travel to France, there had to be people working behind the scenes, providing protection so that he could freely travel within France. I will give further details about upon this protection later on.

In 1832, there was a gathering of Darby's fellow believers, and the beginning of The Plymouth Brethren came into being. The official publication of this new organization was called, "The Christian Witness," and Darby was one of the writers. Between the years of 1836-79, Darby traveled extensively in Western Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand.

There are some troublesome questions that surface when a person tries to investigate and track the life of Darby. For example, travel was not that easy during that part of the 1800's, yet Darby moved like a modern day "jet set" traveler. Traveling by train was just in the early stages of development in 1830, there were no automobiles and airplanes, and to move on the sea had to be done via sailing ships until steamships came into use toward the latter part of the 1800's. Traveling cost money, so from what source did Darby get his money? During the years of 1837 through 1838, Darby spent much time in French speaking Switzerland. Darby spoke and taught the Bible to Methodists, Anabaptists, and Robert Haldane's reading groups and other denominational churches.

Looking back from a historical position it becomes clear that Darby had an agenda which was not known to the groups to which he ministered at that time. He was a man with a distinct mission, THE DESTRUCTION OF ORGANIZED CHURCHES AND A FOUNDATION FOR THEIR OWN ORGANIZATION. Darby also taught that the church age was over and the imminent return of Christ was at hand. He recommended that believers in Christ should not be involved in politics, education and building communities, but rather, they were to withdraw and just wait for the return of Christ. This doctrine became known as "dispensationalist teaching."

Darby taught that the Church was in ruins; it had failed and could not be restored. All the previous systems that God had set up for man had failed and the Church of Jesus Christ was going in the same direction. The result was not slow in coming as scores of Christians left their churches in Europe and joined the new group called, "The Plymouth Brethren." The result of this theology would not be felt until the next century when Christians had withdrawn from all public life and left politics and education to the unbelievers. Hence, there was little resistance in Europe to the devastating policies which gave birth to World War I and II.

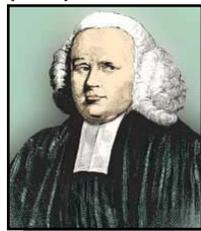

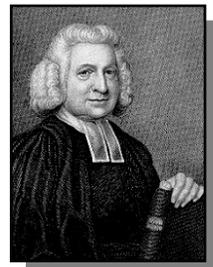

EUROPEAN JEWISH LEADERSHIP NOTICED DARBY

As I have pointed out in previous articles in The Dove magazine, Jewish leaders in Russia, the Baltic nations, Poland and other East European countries had been working on a plan to retake the land of Palestine and establish a Jewish state. It later became known as the Zionist movement. Moses Hess, Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels (German Jews) developed the doctrine of what became known as Communism. Zionism was birthed out of communism, and to this day, Israel is a socialistic state, even if the kibbutz system is slowly fading away. Any Christian reading a statement like these for the first time is going to be shocked, but again, I would refer you to back issues of The Dove, which are available upon request.

When the Illuminati (a Jewish led group) fomented the French Revolution in 1787, there was no significant Christian church in France, since the French Protestants known as "Huguenots" had either been killed or driven into exile and the last persecution led by the Roman Catholic Church took place between 1745 to 1754. The leaders of the Illuminati knew that they had been successful in France, but their attempt to foment a similar revolution in England failed due to the strong Christian influence when vast numbers of people in England were

knew that persecution could not be started in England and the United States but if they could infiltrate and alter the doctrine of the Christian faith, it would help them to obtain political power in these nations.

There is an old cliché, "Follow the money trail and you will find the source." Strange as it may sound, both Darby and Cyrus Scofield received financing from Jewish sources, which was not known at the time that it happened. Strong political or religious ideas can sometimes make strange bed fellows. The road to the Golden Calf was being built.

DARBY WAS A RUTHLESS LEADER

When Darby came back to Plymouth in 1845, he found that the group had increased numerically under its local leader, Benjamin Newton. However, Benjamin had different views on the doctrine of prophecy and church administration. Darby at once broke fellowship with Newton and formed a new organization with people who were following him. In 1847, some teaching notes by Newton were given to Darby, who labeled them heresy. At this time, Newton admitted "mistakes" and published a statement to correct his teaching, but this was not good enough for Darby who excommunicated Newton and his followers from the Brethren movement. Darby's followers became known as Darbyites.

In 1848, the war between Darby and Newton escalated. Both George Muller (1805-1898, right), famous for his orphanage work, and Henry Craik were Brethren leaders in the city of Bristol. They had received two members from Newton's group and allowed them to participate in communion. Darby became furious and stated that his excommunication was not being upheld.

Darby then demanded that Muller and Craik publicly repudiate Newton's teaching. When the group in Bristol refused to comply with Darby's request, he declared the Brethren from Bristol "unclean" and refused fellowship with them. This caused a schism in the entire Brethren movement and the two camps became known as "Open" and "Exclusive." Darby became the undisputed leader in the exclusive group.

When Darby was invited by D.L. Moody (1837-1899), the great American evangelist, to present some Bible readings in Chicago, a conflict arose between Darby and Moody over the issue of the free will in the Christian. The contention became so heated, that in a public meeting Darby closed his Bible and left the meeting. After this, Darby publicly condemned Moody's work, saying that it would bring worldliness into the church. Darby's last visit to the United States took place in 1877.

There is no doubt in my mind that God protected Moody and used this incident to get Darby and his teaching out from the revival meetings of Moody. As a result, Moody did not embrace Darby's teaching that the church age was over, but he was infected with the spiritual disease of dispensationalism and the coming political state of Israel.

DARBY UNDER ATTACK FROM WITHIN

In 1866 Darby was attacked by close friends because he had developed certain views that appeared similar in nature to what Newton years ago had retracted. Darby was now an extreme dispensationalist and stated that the church was in a state of ruin due to human error. The church could not be restored and had to be abandoned. Believers were to meet in home groups and live a holy life while they waited for the return of Christ. The Scriptures were to be the sole and sufficient guide for a believers' faith and conduct according to the interpretation of the Bible written down by Darby.

THE FOUNDATION IS LAID

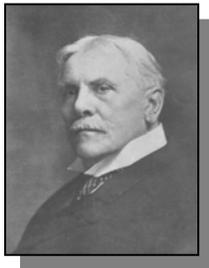

The doctrines laid down by Darby were to be used by others for years to come. American Jewish leaders would in the future finance preachers and evangelists who would teach that Jews did not have to accept Jesus and be born again but that God had a special plan for them and the formation of the State of Israel was part of that plan.

By preaching a hyped up message that Jesus' return was imminent and Christians should therefore abandon all involvement in civic duties, like voting, holding political office and being active in public education, it was all handed over on a plate to future organizations like the ACLU, etc.

The doctrine of the failure of the Church of Jesus Christ was picked up by the Mormons and the Jehovah's witnesses and made it easier for them to pick off Christians and get them into their clutches. It also gave life to the Latter Day Rain movement in the 1940's and its many offspring groups which are now infecting Christianity from different angles. It has also become the cornerstone in Harold Camping's end-time doctrine.

WHO WERE DARBY'S HANDLERS?

In the book "The Incredible Scofield and His Book," Joseph M. Canfield, shows that Cyrus Ingerson Scofield (1843-1921) became the American minister who would bring Darby's teaching into the mainstream of Christianity in the United States. In his book, Canfield brings out the connection between Darby and Scofield, the finances of these men, and also the Jewish connection.⁵

Using information from Canfield's book in my next newsletter, we are going to look at the "Secret Six," a group of prominent men from Boston, who not only fomented the opening salvo of the American Civil War, but also worked behind the scenes in paving the way for the teachings of Darby to be spread.

We are also going to look at the people from Europe who were not part of the Brethren movement but influenced Darby in his thinking.

Some people might say, "Why are you detailing all these historical facts instead of just painting a broad picture?" Well, right now in the year 2006, we are experiencing the greatest deception and destruction in the Christian church since the first century. It is imperative that today's generation understands what is happening and why they hold certain theological views. Unless the Church lines up with the Bible, it will end up in the camp of the Antichrist.

WAS DARBY AWARE THAT HE WAS BEING USED BY JEWS?

Looking at the writings Darby left behind, my belief is that he had his own agenda and did not understand that he was manipulated by others who had a different agenda. Karl Marx coined a phrase that would fit Darby – "Useful Idiot." Darby had a short temper, he could not tolerate others challenging his views; he was egocentric and felt that he and only he had the whole truth from God. These are the weaknesses used by Satan to take brilliant men and turning them into false prophets and teachers. When men and women are insecure and filled with inferiority, they tend to become bullish, loud, and stubborn while trying to prove that only they know what is right.

Pride drove Darby to make sure that his doctrine would survive his own death and spread as far as possible on the earth for the ages to come. He did not know it then, but knows it now, that he was possessed by a religious spirit from the Devil which led him astray and has caused millions of people to end up in hell or are on their way to hell.

Was Darby ever born again? It is possible that he was saved as a young man but we will not know this until the judgment seat of Christ. If he shows up there, we will know he was saved; but if he shows up at the Great White Throne judgment, then we will know that he never knew Jesus, that he was an impostor just like Judas Iscariot.

The most important thing for you to settle is, "Are born again and on your way to heaven?" If you do not know for sure, stop everything you are doing and pray to God that He will help you to be saved. Contact us and ask for help how to be born again. We have the Plan of Salvation clearly laid on our web site or you can contact us and request it. It clearly lays out God's prerequisites step by step in an easy to understand layout.
