We are a Bible centered group of believers desiring to grow in the full knowledge of Jesus Christ without compromise to His Word.

"Some want to live within the sound of church or chapel bell; I want to run a rescue shop within a yard of hell. God has called me to go, and I will go. I will blaze the trail though my grave may only become a stepping stone that younger men may follow."

THE CORNER

Dear Friends,

The Lord recently impressed upon me the story of Joshua and the Israelites taking the city of Jericho with its impressive walls. God had given Joshua specific directions of how to go about taking the city. It involved a total reliance upon the Lord to show them that it wasn't by their strength or ingenuity that they would take Jericho. There was just one stipulation when it came to spoils: all the silver, gold, brass and iron would go to the Lord. Except for Rahab and her family, every human and animal was to be killed and the city burned to the ground. This was an instance where God didn't want them to keep any spoils, and if someone did, they and the whole camp would be cursed. Dwell on that for a minute. God said He would hold the entire camp responsible for the sin of one person! (Joshua 6:1-27)

Achan was one of the men who fought at Jericho, but unlike the others, he was not able to resist temptation and took of the spoils. He carefully smuggled it out of the city and brought it back to the camp where he dug a hole and hid it beneath his tent. He must have been pleased, thinking that he had gotten away with this deed but God had seen it all. The Israelites moved on and came to a small city of Ai where they were repeatedly trounced. When Joshua asked the Lord why this was happening, God replied that there was sin in the camp and the entire camp would suffer until it was dealt with. Up to this point, Achan had the chance to voluntarily come forward and admit his sin but he chose to remain silent. God then supernaturally narrowed down the guilty person by tribe, family and household until Achan was revealed to be the guilty one and confessed. Sadly, his whole family and every animal they owned died as a result of his sinful craving. (Joshua 7:1-26)

Achan is a good example of what many Christians try to do today. How many times has the Holy Spirit prompted you to confess your sins but you chose not to and hardened your heart? How long do you think He will allow this to continue? Many sinners operate under a false sense of comfort because their sins are not revealed. One of the gifts of the Spirit is the word of knowledge where you supernaturally know something about someone or something. Any Christian operating with this gift scares the daylights out of sinful people because they know that the Holy Spirit can reveal their hidden secrets. The Bible says, "...behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23) God will reveal our sins; it might take a while but it will happen.

Jesus hates sin and doesn't want it in His redeemed church. Sin hinders the Holy Spirit from moving in your life and also affects your church. One of the marks of revival is repentance where people become painfully aware of their sins and cry out to the Lord. Sin is always ugly and hurts our pride but there is such freedom and joy when you are delivered from it. Then the Holy Spirit can begin to operate in your life like He wants to.

Without repentance there is no powerful move of God. Ask the Lord to reveal the hindrance; God is faithful and will reveal the sin in the camp.

May God richly bless you today,

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND?

By John S. Torell

Life for many in the United States this June has been like a ride on a roller coaster. Unbelievers and Christians attending “fluff churches” are beginning to show fear and worry as the cost of gasoline has reached close to five dollars per gallon. What they don’t know is that the World Government plans on forcing the price of gasoline in the United States to above six dollars per gallon in the next month or so.

“Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee. Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him. They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency? For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.” (Hosea 8:1-7)

For many years I have written about the coming Antichrist system and how many of the stones in the foundation of this system have already been laid, there aren’t too many more things to fall into place before they can reveal their “superhero,” which the Bible calls “the Beast.”

I see the situation like the Mississippi river, which flooded a number of states this month. The Antichrist system is like a river rising above flood stage and the levees beginning to erode and crack. The levees holding back this satanic flood in this case is the Holy Spirit.

“And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming...” (2 Thessalonians 2:6-8)

If the time has come as set by God for the coming of the Antichrist, we will see the power of the Holy Spirit decreasing in the world and evil will grow worse. The laws legislated in a number of nations around the world, stating that homosexuals have the right to enter marriage, is a strong sign that the restraining power of the Holy Spirit is waning.

The false revival in Lakeland, Florida, led by Todd Bentley, is another sign of how gullible Christians are flocking to a man who is telling them that he is empowered by an angel. Another scripture is being fulfilled.

“Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth...” (2 Thessalonians 2:9-13)

There is a great possibility that within the next six months a terrible war will break out in the Middle East as the State of Israel is determined to destroy the nuclear capability of Iran. The country of Iran is not like Iraq was during the regime of Saddam Hussein. It has a strong army, navy and air force and is equipped with weapon systems from Russia and China.

During the end of June, the Israeli Air Force had a rehearsed for an attack on Iran, when more than 100 of their fighter bombers flew more than five hundred miles out over the Mediterranean Sea to practice refueling in the air from their aerial tankers and then mock bombed targets set up in the waters.

It is important to remember that Israel bombed the Iraqi nuclear facility in 1982 and not long ago they also destroyed the nuclear facility the Syrians had built with the help of North Korea. The political leadership in Israel knows that if Arab nations are able to develop nuclear bombs, Israel is doomed. The Zionist World Federation, which is the same as the World Government and in charge of Israel, knows that a democratic president of the United States will be less sympathetic to their wishes for Israel. Thus, if they are going to strike, it will be before Bush is out of office. The next six months are going to be crucial and the Christian community needs to pray like we have not done since World War II for God to intervene and give us some more time.

Remember what I have told you before: The slogan of the World Government is that the oil crisis in the world is a global crisis and can only be solved globally under a world ruler.

The late Senator Jesse Helms, a strong Christian and conservative, had a heated exchange in a press conference some years ago. One of the journalists railed against the senator, who responded back to the journalist, "You are a liar!" The journalist responded back, "I am a journalist!" to which Helms shouted back, "You are not a journalist, you are a liar."

Helms was one of the few American political leaders who was not afraid to tell the truth. There are very few journalists left in the world but tens of thousands of liars working for different media outlets. Let me take you back and expose the lies about the current oil crisis.

HENRY KISSINGER

Over the years I have written much about Henry Kissinger, a German born Jew, who was 15 years old when his parents left Nazi Germany and arrived in New York. This move in itself was strange since the U.S. policy at the time was to rebuff German Jews from entering the United States.

During the presidencies of Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford, he served as an assistant for National Security Affairs from 1969-75 and Secretary of State from 1973-77. Kissinger does not have a personal agenda but is merely a hired hand of the World Government. To better understand what I am talking about, Kissinger's office in the World Government would be that of Secretary of State, implementing the policies of this government.

In 1943 he was drafted into the U.S. Army, given the rank of sergeant and assigned to be a German interpreter for the 970th Counter Intelligence Corps. Kissinger played a vital role in Operation Paperclip, when thousands of Germans were extracted from Germany, taken to the United States and integrated into the military industrial complex. This assortment of intelligence officers, medical doctors from the concentration camps research centers, rocket specialists, mind control specialists, etc. were never prosecuted as war criminals.

SETTING THE STAGE FOR POPULATION CONTROL

The agenda of the World Government (WG) is to create a global government and economy. Since most people do not want this, it has to work in secrecy and bring its plans to reality through deception. In 1969 they had placed their loyal servant in the most powerful post in the American government and Kissinger did not disappoint his bosses.

Food and oil are two elements that will either make or break a nation. Mankind cannot live without food and our entire civilization is built upon oil as the main energy source. Whoever controls the oil production in the world will control nations but whoever controls the food production will control the human population.

The World Government wants a smaller world population that is easier to control. War is not a big enough killer, a lesson that was learned from WWII when more than 80 million people were killed in all the warring nations. Stalin gave orders to murder more than 40 million people in the Soviet Union and Mao Tse Tung was able to have more than 80 million Chinese killed but that was only a drop in the bucket. The only real solution for the World Government is to create massive famines in different parts of the world and kill off a few billion human beings. But plans like this can only come into being during a crisis situation, and that is the reason that the World Government continually creates political and military crises in order to keep their agenda moving.

If you are not familiar with the history of the World Government and its past activities, order the "End Times Info Package" from us. It contains Dove magazines and newsletters that will fill in the gaps and answer many of your questions. We do not charge for this package but ask for a love offering to cover our expenses.

THE BRETTON WOODS SYSTEM

Following the Normandy invasion in June 1944, the World Government, through the American government, hosted a financial summit in the month of July in the small community of Bretton Woods, New Hampshire. Forty four allied nations with a total of 730 delegates met and the powerful American delegation dictated a new international monetary system that was to be implemented as soon as the Germans and the Japanese were defeated.

At this time the U.S. government was firmly controlled by the Zionist World Federation and American and foreign Jews held key positions in the White House; through election finances, they also controlled Senators and Congressmen.

The industrial nations in Europe had been bombed to pieces and Japan was about to receive massive bombing raids by B-29s to be followed with two atomic bombs. The factories in the United States were untouched and the America had become a world empire. Riding on this giant behemoth were Zionist Jews with their own agenda.

The following key elements came out of this summit:

- The dollar would be tied to gold with the permanent value of a dollar to be $35 per ounce of gold.
- Oil would be traded in dollars only.
- A new bank was to be established called The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD).
- A monetary fund called the International Monetary Fund (IMF) would be set up.

THE MARSHALL PLAN

The entire world was in shambles in 1945 after WWII with the exception of Australia, parts of Africa, North and South America where there had been no fighting. The Marshall Plan involved sending money from American taxpayers overseas as foreign aid. Since there was not enough money from taxes for rebuilding the different nations, the United States borrowed money from big banks, with the loans to be paid back with taxpayer money.

American and foreign corporations were given the task of rebuilding the war torn nations just like Halliburton and other American corporations were chosen to rebuild Iraq. The Jewish controlled banks and corporations made billions of dollars in profit and were able to increase their financial stranglehold on the different nations. As a result, German and Japanese factories were rebuilt with the latest technology, and in ten short years, older American steel mills and manufacturing plants could not compete with the newly built German and Japanese plants with the result that American corporations started to close down factories in the U.S. and the "rust belt" was born. Thus, the American taxpayer was taken to the cleaners twice, first when his money was taken away and then his job.

LET'S TALK ABOUT MILK

When you go to the supermarket to buy a gallon of milk, it will cost you around $4.50. The farmer that produced that milk is not going to get that amount; he might get a mere 10% from the dairy. The dairy has the cost of transporting the milk, processing and putting it in containers and shipping it to the stores. The dairy does not sell milk directly to the store but uses a wholesaler who sits on a mercantile exchange and buys the milk from the dairy. Supermarkets then purchase the milk from the wholesaler who has the biggest profit margin with the least amount of work involved. For comparison, a supermarket profit margin is only 2-3% on the items they sell, whereas, the wholesaler makes at least 40% profit.

LET'S TALK ABOUT OIL

Once WWII was over, American and British oil companies moved in quickly and took control of oil production all over the world but particularly in the Middle East. Purposely, very few refineries were built in these nations, instead, the oil was sent to Europe and the United States to be refined. The governments in Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Iran and other Middle East nations were paid a small royalty on each $2 barrel of oil. The profit winners were the international oil corporations and the banks which financed them. Again, billions of dollars flowed into the hands of already rich Jewish people.

Around 1950, the younger educated people in the Middle East saw what was happening and became angry. This uprising was exploited by the Soviet Union, who sent in military trainers to foment and organize unrest. The result was that regime after regime in these different nations fell and Arab nationalists took power. In time, the new governments started to nationalize the oil fields and took them away from the "Seven Sisters", as the seven international oil companies were called.

Both sides realized that neither could live without the other. The oil producing states needed to sell their oil to make money, but since they did not have the capacity to refine or transport the oil around the world, a stand off was negotiated. The governments wanted a bigger share, and by 1973, the price of oil had risen to $3.50 per barrel. That was the sale price in the West but the oil producing government received much less than that.

ORGANIZATION OF THE PETROLEUM EXPORTING COUNTRIES (OPEC)

These governments realized that they were no match for the Zionistic Jews, and in 1960, five government representatives met in Baghdad to form this organization. The goal was to be better paid, and as a group of nations having banded together, they figured they could exert more power. OPEC currently consists of 14 member nations and they now have the upper hand in the oil business.

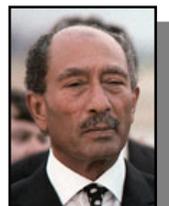

Without going into detail, I want you to know that from 1945 up until now, American, British, French, Israeli and Soviet intelligence services have all had their people infiltrate the political parties in the different OPEC nations, assassinating leaders, fomenting unrest and starting revolutions. Leaders like Saddam Hussein, the Shah of Iran and many more were put in power and removed when they did not toe the line. Much blood has been spilt over the issue of oil.

In the early 1970's the political leaders in the OPEC nations thought that they had accumulated enough power to once and for all get rid of Israel and drive the Jews into the Mediterranean Sea. They had not understood that the Mossad, CIA, KGB and MI5 had spies in top cabinet level positions in their nations.

Prior to the attack on Israel in 1973, President Nixon had taken the dollar off from the gold standard, canceling the Bretton Woods agreement. The dollar was now a paper currency, backed by nothing and allowed to flow freely against other world currencies.

THE YOM KIPPUR WAR

On August 23, 1973, King Faisal of Saudi Arabia and President Anwar Sadat (below) met in the capital of Riyadh, Saudi Arabia to iron out the coming attack upon Israel. Saudi Arabia was the richest of the OPEC nations and the majority of financing for the war came from Saudi Arabia. It was decided that oil would be used as a weapon.

October 6th that year was the day of Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement), when the entire State of Israel would shut down in memory of this day. They would fast and pray for the sins of the previous year and the high priest would do his yearly atonement sacrifice. (Hebrews 9:7)

The Soviet Union was deeply involved in this coming war and had supplied weapons and training to the Syrian and Egyptian armed forces. If Israel could be defeated, the United States would be driven out from the Middle East and the production of the rich oil fields would come into communist hands.

On September 15th OPEC declared a united negotiation front to raise the price of crude oil. The top government leaders in the nations involved knew that war was coming and so did the governments of the United States, England and the Soviet Union. There was much money to make and everybody wanted this little war except for the men and women who had to fight and lose their lives.

On October 6th Syria and Egypt jointly attacked Israel early in the morning. Syria deployed 60,000 soldiers, 1,400 tanks, 800 armored carriers, 600 tubes of artillery and 73 aircraft. Egypt sent 80,000 soldiers across the Suez Canal to attack the Israelis with 800 tanks, 2,400 armored carriers, 1,120 tubes of artillery, and 220 aircraft.

Both the Syrians and the Egyptians advanced during the first 48 hours until resistance stiffened. The U.S. called for a cease fire in the United Nations but the Soviet Union was against it. It was not until Syria and Egypt were about to be destroyed militarily, that the Soviet Union called for a cease fire and the war came to an end on October 26th.

Christian Zionists rejoicing and believe that God intervened and supernaturally defeated the Syrian and Egyptian armies. The truth is that both the Syrians and the Egyptians were infiltrated with Israeli spies, and through intelligence information, the Israelis knew when and how to strike.

Regardless, there was a cost in lives. The Israelis had 2,656 soldiers killed and 7,250 wounded. The Arabs lost around 15,000 soldiers and up to 35,000 were wounded.

On October 16th OPEC raised the price of crude oil to $3.65 per barrel and announced they were cutting back on production.

On October 19th a large portion of OPEC nations declared an oil embargo on the United States. On November 27th President Nixon signed the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act, authorizing price, production, allocation and market control. On March 17, 1974 every OPEC nation except for Libya declares the embargo against the United States is over.

MY PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

I came back to the United States from Europe in November of 1973 and found that life had become crazy while we were gone. Gasoline was being rationed and you could only purchase 10 gallons at a time. Many service stations ran out of gas and I had to line up around five in the morning and wait for several hours before it was my turn to fill up. Additionally, I could only fill up on even or odd days, depending on the last number on my license plate.

Since I lived in the San Francisco area and traveled in the Bay Area, I became very angry when I saw row after row of full oil tankers anchored in the Bay but forbidden to unload. There was no shortage even if there was an embargo. It was all done to artificially raise the price of gasoline and put in place more government control.

In May of 1973, the average gasoline price was 38.5 cents per gallon but by June of 1974, it had risen to 55.1 cents per gallon with the price of crude oil in costing $12 per barrel.

From the oil crisis in 1973-74, the cost for crude oil has slowly been creeping upwards from $12 per barrel to $35. After 2000 the price of crude oil has slowly continued to rise, until something happened in 2008, when the speculators drove the price higher and higher until they have now upped it to around $145 per barrel. Why has that happened now?

CHANGES MADE BY THE GOVERNMENT

The national speed limit was set at 55 miles per hour in 1973 and it was not repealed until 1987 during the presidency of Ronald Reagan. Daylight saving time was also mandated in 1973 and has been with us since that time.

During the Jimmy Carter presidency, the American people were bombarded with the propaganda that the earth was rapidly running out of oil, which we had to conserve and raise the price in order to slow down the consumption of the remaining oil. On August 4, 1977 the creation of the Department of Energy was signed into law by President Carter.

THE WORLD GOVERNMENT WANTS HIGHER PRICES

Food production needs fertilizers, and when the cost of fuel goes up, so does the cost of fertilizer and transportation. Third world nations cannot keep up with cost increases, meaning less food for the people living in these nations and a greater chance that people will die of starvation. As Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger was told to tighten the grip of food production and bring it under tight control.

Kissinger started off by negotiating with the Soviet Union in 1974 on a grain deal of 30 million tons of American grain. In return, the Soviets would sell the U.S. oil. The reader must remember that this was during the height of the Cold War when the U.S. and Soviet Union were officially bitter enemies. Kissinger bypassed the Federal Agricultural Department in order to make this deal go through. Once the deal was announced, the speculators (mostly Jews) moved on the commodity market and caused the price of wheat to rise 70%. Wheat went from $65 per ton to $110 and soybean prices doubled.

During that year there had been severe draughts in many nations with the result that more people in the poorest nations died of starvation.

The Soviet grain deal was paid for by U.S. Export-Import Bank Credits, which meant that the tab was picked up by the U.S. tax payers. American farmers were paid low prices for their wheat, another win for the World Government since they were working to destroy locally owned farms. Their policy is to create large agricultural corporations to handle the farming in the United States. This huge deal with the Soviet Union established giant grain producers and traders like Cargill, Archer Daniels Midland, Bunge and Continental Grain.

Having looked at the past, let's move up to 2008 and see what the World Government is doing now.

THE WORLD GOVERNMENT IS GOING FOR THE JUGULAR VEIN

From August 1990 until February 1991, we went through the first Gulf War led by President George H.W. Bush. On April 19, 1995 we saw the Oklahoma City bombing of the Federal courthouse. On September 11, 2001 we watched in horror as the twin towers in New York went down, the Pentagon was attacked and a hijacked airliner crashed in Pennsylvania. On October 7, 2001 American and British forces invaded Afghanistan and that war is still going on. On March 20, 2003 American forces led the invasion of Iraq and that war is still going on.

The result is that America now has a Department of Homeland Security which came into being March 1, 2003. In 2007 it had 208,000 people working with a budget of 44.9 billion dollars. Its second director is Michael Chertoff. He is an American Jew and the son of a rabbi. Even though Chertoff is a dual citizen of Israel and the United States, he has been put in charge of one of the most sensitive posts in the United States government. This shows again that the most powerful positions in the United States government are held by either American born or foreign born Jews, most of them holding dual citizenship.

THE WRECKERS OF THE WORLD ECONOMY

Two American Jews destroyed many American manufacturing businesses in the 1980's. The leaders of so-called junk bonds were Michael Milken and his partner, Ivan Frederick Boesky, both of them American Jews. They issued junk bonds with the promise of a high yield return and were able to raise hundreds of million dollars in this way. This money was used to buy up profitable American businesses and sell off all the assets of the business, pay off the people who had invested and still make a profit. Hundreds of thousands of American business were gutted and closed down and many people lost their jobs.

There were a lot of security frauds and eventually they were both arrested. Boesky testified against Milken and received a short prison term. Milken was facing a ten year sentence, when he hired the American Jewish lawyer Alan Dershowitz (left), who had connections with Bill Clinton. The judge in the case, Kimba Woods, was "talked into" giving Milken a reduced sentence so that he only stayed in prison from March 1991 to January 1993.

As a reward for her favor to Milken, Woods was nominated for Attorney General in 1993 but was forced to withdraw because she employed an illegal alien as a nanny. Milken ended up being fined and paying back $647 million dollars but his personal wealth is still worth more than $2 billion dollars. I have detailed this historical event to show you the power American Jews hold in America.

JEWISH WORLD SPECULATORS

George Soros is a Hungarian born Jew (1930) who escaped the Nazis and in time became super rich as a speculator in foreign currencies. In 1947 he moved to England and then to the United States in 1956. He is actually a front man for the financial department of the World Zionist Federation (WZF), who was given vast sums of money to destroy the economy of different nations in the world. During his glory days in business, he was greatly feared by national governments since he had so much money to invest or withdraw that he could bring a nation to its knees by destroying its currency.

He was labeled an "economic war criminal" in Thailand and in France he was indicted for insider trading and fraud. The French government never had a chance to bring him to justice. His handlers from the WZF have rewarded him well for his actions being worth around $9 billion dollars.

The average person doesn't know there are thousands of Jews and Gentiles who live on speculation and do not work for a living. They are trading and speculating in stocks, bonds, gold, oil, coal, silver, steel, diamonds, food commodities, etc. and these are the people who are responsible for driving the prices up or down. The kingpins of these traders and speculators are mostly Jews of different nationalities, most of them holding dual citizenship, but always loyal to Israel and Jewish causes first.

One of the most well known Gentile speculators is Warren Buffett (born 1930). He has stated that he was influenced by two men, Murray Newton Rothbard (1926-1995, born to Jewish parents in New York) and Benjamin Graham (1894-1976, born to Jewish parents in London) who became his mentors. Both of these men were involved in the financial market and also taught and wrote books. Buffett would never have achieved his financial success unless he had the blessing of the American Jewish leadership. Buffett used his money from speculation to buy up the majority of shares in Berkshire Hathaway, a holding company with more than 233,000 employees, and is the CEO of this corporation. Currently Buffett's net worth is estimated to be around $62 billion.

INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATIONS

In the late 1800's, as the Zionistic Jewish leadership were re-writing tax laws and working to establish the Federal Reserve Bank in the United States, they introduced the concept of foundations. Rich Gentile and Jewish people were then able to transfer their wealth into foundations which were tax exempt. The person creating the foundation could draw a limitless salary from the foundation. Some of the most well known foundations from that time would be the Carnegie Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation and the Ford Foundation. Most of them supported communism, nazism, fascism, including a horde of left wing causes. Prosperous American businessmen, bankers and investors transferred their vast land holdings into their foundations and were able to live a luxurious life in fabulous estates without any taxes on it. It also helped them to transfer family wealth from one generation to the next without paying taxes.

Not too long ago Buffett announced that he is giving away 83% of his wealth to the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Bill Gates is an American born Jew who founded the Microsoft corporation.

TIME TO BREAK THE AMERICAN ECONOMY – THE HOUSING BUST

There were the junk bond kings in the 1980's and in the late 1990's, it was the careless lenders who entered the housing market and inflated it with "creative financing." It used to be that in order to buy a home, a 10% down payment was required along with an income that was large enough to handle the monthly mortgage payment. Then the speculators and loan qualifications became less and less stringent and even did away with the down payment. Lenders used all kinds of tricks so that people's income was inflated and loans were given so that the borrower only had to pay interest for the first few years with very low monthly payments. Thus, people with lower incomes were able to get into the housing market but they didn't know that sooner or later their variable interest rate loan would suddenly sky rocket, making the monthly payment so high that they could no longer afford the pay it. The result was foreclosure.

Current home owners were enticed to refinance and take out large amounts of cash from their equity. This money was used to purchase automobiles, boats and a number of luxury items, giving the American economy a good boost.

The mortgage lenders would do what is called "bundling," where they would sell a bundle of 10,000 mortgages to a financial institution. This was termed "sub prime mortgage sales." The investment bank or a firm like Bear Stearns Hedge Fund would know that there were good loans as well as high risk loans in this bundle. The investment managers would not divulge the risk in this business activity and the shareholders were duped into believing that their investments were safe.

Millions of Americans purchased homes from 2000 until 2007 at prices which were over inflated. A home purchased for $400K is now worth less than $300K but the bank loan has not changed. If the house owner cannot continue to pay the mortgage payments and tries to sell the house, he is going to be stuck with $100K that he still owes to the bank. Most people in these situations just walk away from their homes and let the bank foreclose on it.

When the housing bubble burst in 2007, banks and investment firms were scrambling to get a handle on it. But as the foreclosures increased, more loans turned out to be worthless because the people could not pay their mortgages and the banks and investment funds were forced to write off huge losses. The big investment company of Bear Stearns collapsed and dragged others with it. Matthew Tannin, its manager was arrested and indicted for fraud. More than 400 mortgage managers and top executives across the United States have been arrested for fraud and are awaiting trials.

Samuel Israel III is a classic example of speculation and investment fraud. He was born in 1959 in Louisiana to a well-known Jewish family of speculators. His grandfather had founded ACLI International, a commodity trading house which was sold in 1981 to Donaldson, Lufkin and Jenrette for $42 million.

Israel III is the founder of the Bayou Group Hedge Fund, which collapsed in 2005, losing $450 million for its investors. He was arrested and tried on fraud, and was found guilty in a trial and sentenced to 20 years in federal prison. On the day he was supposed to report to prison, he faked his own suicide and was on the run for about three weeks until he surrendered in the month of July, 2008. He is now incarcerated and will also be charged with additional charges for not surrendering himself to the prison authorities. He has told people that he is a Christian and that he has abandoned Judaism. This could be the reason that the Jewish American leadership did not protect him, like they have done with other speculators in the past.

The construction industry has come to a stand still and is dragging down all its suppliers. Many builders have gone bankrupt. With this enormous drag on the American economy, the WZF told their international speculators to drive the cost of oil as high as possible.

We quickly saw the stable oil market shooting from $45 to $145 per barrel. There has been no decrease in the production of oil or a diminished supply except for speculators with enormous amount of cash purchasing oil futures and driving the price higher and higher.

WHAT IS THE RESULT?

1. American and international airlines are being driven into bankruptcy as we hear everyday of airlines cutting back on routes or going out of business.

2. The American automobile industry is on the verge of collapse as people cannot afford to buy the trucks and SUVs when gasoline is close to five dollars per gallon.

General Motors, Ford and Chrysler have more or less stopped production on all pickup trucks and SUV's. Factory after factory has been closed, and many dealerships in the country are closing their doors and declaring bankruptcy. Hundreds of thousands of workers across the nation are being laid off. This means that they can no longer make mortgage payments on their homes and shop like they used to. The destruction of the American automobile industry will have huge ripple effects, there will be less demand for steel, tires, electronic equipment, etc. and the automobile suppliers are going out of business with more people out of work.

3. The housing industry consists of more than contractors and construction workers. When homes are not being built, it means that the lumber industry will be affected, manufacturers of windows, carpets, flooring, roofing, plumbing, electrical supplies will shut down with no buying material. More people will be unemployed.

4. The recreation industry is going under as very few people can afford to buy motor homes, trailers or boats at this time. More companies going out of business and more people losing their jobs.
5. With fuel prices continually rising, the cost of food is also increasing. This means that people will have less money to buy food and a number of grocery outlets are going to close their doors. General retail stores are feeling the pinch and there are store closings happening every week with more people out of work.

FACING REALITY

The American dream is dead and life as we have known it is gone for good. The ruthless speculators are circling like sharks and killing the American economy; exactly what the World Government has ordered. They want chaos and destruction; the more there is, the better it is for them. Once millions of Americans have become homeless, with no jobs or food, there will be riots and looting in the cities like we saw during the Watts riots in Los Angeles in the 1970s.

This is what the World Government has dreamed of and worked for during the last 300 years, when finally, they will be able to offer their solution to the masses, a strong political leader who will promise to restore law, order and financial security once again. The cost will be heavy as the American people will have to give up their freedom and submit to a global world ruler who will give them food and shelter. In a time of chaos like this, the American people will not think twice, but will sell their birthright just like Esau did!

“And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint: And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom. And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright. And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me? And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright.” (Genesis 25:29-34)

THE MAN OF SIN (2 Thessalonians 2:3-12)

If there is a man living on the earth at this time that meets the requirements of being “THE MAN OF SIN?” The most outstanding man in my eyes that could be the Man of Sin is the current French president, Nicolas Sarkozy.

Sarkozy was born in 1955 to a Jewish mother, and according to Judaism, this qualifies him for being a Jew. His mother's family comes from Salonika (Thessalonica) in Greece, the stronghold of the followers of Sabbetai Sevi, the Jewish rabbi who declared himself to be the Jewish Messiah in 1666. As an infant he was baptized into the Roman Catholic Church, which is in line with the followers of Sabbetai Sevi, that they officially belong to the religion of the land in which they live but secretly stay a “crypto Jew.”

Sarkozy is street smart but he is not his own man. His handlers are European Jewish leaders who made it possible for the man to rise as a politician and be elected as President of France in 2007. The French newspapers discussed how he is morally corrupt and a user of alcohol as a recreational drug. He has a great appetite for women, but he is also said to have desire for sex with men. But the most interesting was the leak that Sarkozy had worked for the Mossad since 1983 as a political sayan.¹

Sarkozy was married for the first time in 1982 and two children were born to him and his wife. He divorced his first wife in 1996 after 14 years of marriage. His reason for divorce was that he had met a fashion model who at that time was married. He persuaded this woman to divorce her husband and marry him in 1996 and they had one son. Both Sarkozy and his second wife were unfaithful and in October 2007 they were divorced as he had set his eyes upon another model turned singer by the name of Carla Bruni.

CARLA BRUNI

Carla was born in Turin, Italy in 1967 and her family moved to France in 1973. They owned a tire company in Italy and were well off. Her parents later revealed to her that she was offspring of an affair. This bastard curse continues in the bloodline for ten generations. (Deuteronomy 23:2)

At the age of 19 she started modeling and did photo shoots of her naked body for the pornographic industry. As a young woman she lived for a while with the Enthoven family and seduced their son, Raphael, who was a philosophy professor and she had a son with this man. So now a bastard child had fostered another and the curse continued in the bloodline.

At one time she made this statement to the Le Figaro newspaper: “I am a tamer [of men], a cat, an Italian. Monogamy bores me terribly... I am monogamous from time to time but I prefer polygamy and polyandry [its female equivalent].” She has been true to her immorality and has slept with a number of men including Mick Jagger, Eric Clapton and Donald Trump.

After Sarkozy’s second divorce Carla moved in with him but for the very immoral French people even this was too much. Having a French president traveling to foreign capitols with a whore that host governments were expected to treat like a wife created a firestorm in France and they were married shortly thereafter.

I’m not saying that Nicolas Sarkozy will be the World Government’s person of choice to introduce as the “Savior” of the world but he is a good prototype. He is a playboy and spoiled brat with no morals who wants to be seen as a great man. Sarkozy is a man of sin and could very well be the man of Satan’s choice.

Remember, a global leader is coming; it is just a matter of time. The only thing holding him back is the Holy Spirit.

WHAT SHOULD CHRISTIANS DO IN TIMES LIKE THESE?

I believe it is time for us to set our houses in order and prepare physically and spiritually for a possible war that will bring chaos to the whole world and lead to martial law.

First of all, there is no safe place to hide on this earth; there is only one hiding place and that is in Christ Jesus. This is the time to lean on Jesus, and in faith, proclaim, that whatever is coming, we are safe and secure in Christ.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?” (Matthew 11:28-30)

“Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God’s elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:28-39)

We are pretty much in the same position as the apostles and the early church were in. They didn't know what the future on earth would be like but they clung to the Rock (Jesus Christ). Some 100 years after the birth of Jesus, all of the apostles and the first disciples had gone to be with Jesus, but they left behind a strong vibrant church and a written New Testament which has been our guideline for the last 1,900 years. It didn't matter that some were executed, some of them starved and others spent years in prison; life on this earth is short and temporary and we need to focus on Jesus.

Secondly, we need to make whatever physical preparation we can. The church in the Book of Acts did.

“And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea: Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.” (Acts 11:27-30)

It is prudent to store extra water in our homes and plan on living like you're camping out in the woods. We have been told by our government after the Katrina hurricane, that each family should prepare to survive at least seven days, before help is on the way. This is important because supermarkets only stock enough food for three days. If there are no trucks bringing in food supplies, all stores will be out of food in three days. If martial law is declared, you will not be able to drive your car and go anywhere. Prepare to survive where you live or a place to which you can walk.

Thirdly, stock up on witnessing tracts, so when people are suddenly out of work and just milling around wringing their hands, you can share the Gospel with them. People will be scared at this time, having lost their lifestyle, they will be looking for God and He will be ready for them.

If you have been a tither, your finances are handled by God himself. Investing in the Kingdom of God is the only safe place that will not only give earthly dividends but eternal dividends too. My wife and I have been tithing since 1966 and God knows this. This is the time to stand on all of God's promises and in faith proclaim that His Word is solid and can be trusted. Look at these verses:

“Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts. And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.” (Malachi 3:10-12)

I was born at the outbreak of World War II, and my first six years were spent during the war years with food rationing and covering our windows with black tar paper so that bombers trying to attack our town at night could not see our houses. I know how it feels when dinner is one small hot dog per person and some potatoes. But we were among those who were blessed; more than 300 million people were driven from their homes, living in the open and having no food to eat for days in a row.

We have no fear, for whatever comes, God will see us through. Our lifestyle might change, gasoline will be a rare commodity, food might be the bare essentials and we might have to leave our homes. But sooner or later our time on this earth will be over and then we will spend eternity in heaven with God. At that time we will agree with the apostle Paul:

“For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.” (Romans 8:18)

Since we don't know when a disaster might strike, we are going to occupy the earth until Jesus comes back.

“And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.” (Luke 19:13)

The Coming Catastrophe?

The finishing touches on several contingency plans for attacking Iran

by David DeBatto

Global Research, June 23, 2008

Global Research Editor's note

We bring to the attention of our readers David DeBatto's scenario as to what might occur if one of the several contingency plans to attack Iran, with the participation of Israel and NATO, were to be carried out. While one may disagree with certain elements of detail of the author's text, the thrust of this analysis must be taken seriously.

"Israel has said a strike on Iran will be "unavoidable" if the Islamic regime continues to press ahead with alleged plans for building an atom-bomb." (London Daily Telegraph, 6/11/2008)

"Chancellor Angela Merkel of Germany joined President Bush on Wednesday in calling for further sanctions against Iran if it does not suspend its uranium enrichment program." Mr. Bush stressed again that "all options are on the table," which would include military force. (New York Times, 6/11/2008)

We are fast approaching the final six months of the Bush administration. The quagmire in Iraq is in its sixth painful year with no real end in sight and the forgotten war in Afghanistan is well into its seventh year. The "dead enders" and other armed factions are still alive and well in Iraq and the Taliban in Afghanistan again controls most of that country. Gas prices have now reached an average of $4.00 a gallon nationally and several analysts predict the price will rise to $5.00-$6.00 dollars per gallon at the pump by Labor Day. This, despite assurances by some major supporters of the decision to invade Iraq that the Iraq war "will pay for itself" (Paul Wolfowitz) or that we will see "$20.00 per barrel" oil prices if we invade Iraq (Rupert Murdoch).

One thing the Pentagon routinely does (and does very well) is conduct war games. Top brass there are constantly developing strategies for conducting any number of theoretical missions based on real or perceived threats to our national security or vital interests. This was also done prior to the invasion of Iraq, but the Bush administration chose not to listen to the dire warnings about that mission given to him by Pentagon leaders, or for that matter, by his own senior intelligence officials. Nevertheless, war gaming is in full swing again right now with the bullseye just to the right of our current mess – Iran.

It's no secret that the U.S. is currently putting the finishing touches on several contingency plans for attacking Iranian nuclear and military facilities. With our ground forces stretched to the breaking point in Iraq and Afghanistan, none of the most likely scenarios involve a ground invasion. Not that this administration wouldn't prefer to march into the seat of Shi'ite Islam behind a solid, moving line of M1 Abrams tanks and proclaim the country for democracy. The fact is that even the President knows we can't pull that off any more so he and the neo-cons will have to settle for Shock and Awe Lite.

If we invade Iran this year it will be done using hundreds of sorties by carrier based aircraft already stationed in the Persian Gulf and from land based aircraft located in Iraq and Qatar. They will strike the known nuclear facilities located in and around Tehran and the rest of the country as well as bases containing major units of the Iranian military, anti-aircraft installations and units of the Revolutionary Guard (a separate and potent Iranian paramilitary organization).

Will this military action stop Iran's efforts to develop nuclear weapons? Probably not. It will probably not even destroy all of their nuclear research facilities, the most sensitive of which are known to be underground, protected by tons of earth and reinforced concrete and steel designed to survive almost all attacks using conventional munitions. The Iranian military and Revolutionary Guard will most likely survive as well, although they will suffer significant casualties and major bases and command centers will undoubtedly be destroyed. However, since Iran has both a functioning Air Force, Navy (including submarines) and modern anti-aircraft capabilities, U.S. fighter-bombers will suffer casualties as well. This will not be a "Cake Walk" as with the U.S. led invasion of Iraq in 2003 when the Iraqi Army simply melted away and the Iraqi Air Force never even launched a single aircraft.

Not even close.

If the United States attacks Iran either this summer or this fall, the American people had better be prepared for a shock that may perhaps be even greater to the national psyche (and economy) than 9/11. First of all, there will be significant U.S. casualties in the initial invasion. American jets will be shot down and the American pilots who are not killed will be taken prisoner - including female pilots. Iranian Yakhonts 26, Sunburn 22 and Exocet missiles will seek out and strike U.S. naval battle groups bottled up in the narrow waters of the Persian Gulf with very deadly results. American sailors will be killed and U.S. ships will be badly damaged and perhaps sunk. We may even witness the first attack on an American Aircraft carrier since World War II.

That's just the opening act.

Israel (who had thus far stayed out of the fray by letting the U.S. military do the heavy lifting) is attacked by Hezbollah in a coordinated and large scale effort. Widespread and grisly casualties effectively paralyze the nation, a notion once thought impossible. Iran's newest ally in the region, Syria, then unleashes a barrage of over 200 Scud B, C and D missiles at Israel, each armed with VX gas. Since all of Israel is within range of these Russian built weapons, Haifa, Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and virtually all major civilian centers and several military bases are struck, often with a result of massive casualties.

The Israeli Air Force orders all three squadrons of their F-16I Sufa fighter/bombers into the air with orders to bomb Tehran and as many military and nuclear bases as they can before they are either shot down or run out of fuel. It is a one way trip for some of these pilots. Their ancient homeland lies in ruins. Many have family that is already dead or dying. They do not wait for permission from Washington, DC or U.S. regional military commanders. The Israeli aircraft are carrying the majority of their country's nuclear arsenal under their wings.

Just after the first waves of U.S. bombers cross into Iranian airspace, the Iranian Navy, using shore based missiles and small, fast attack craft sinks several oil tankers in the Straits of Hormuz, sealing off the Persian Gulf and all its oil from the rest of the world. They then mine the area, making it difficult and even deadly for American minesweepers to clear the straits. Whatever is left of the Iranian Navy and Air Force harasses our Navy as it attempts minesweeping operations. More U.S casualties.

The day after the invasion Wall Street (and to a lesser extent, Tokyo, London and Frankfurt) acts as it always does in an international crisis – irrational speculative and spot buying reaches fever pitch and sends the cost of oil skyrocketing. In the immediate aftermath of the U.S. invasion of Iran, the price of oil goes to $200.00 - $300.00 dollars a barrel on the open market. If the war is not resolved in a few weeks, that price could rise even higher. This will send the price of gasoline at the pump in this country to $8.00-$10.00 per gallon immediately and subsequently to even higher unthinkable levels.

If that happens, this country shuts down. Most Americans are not be able to afford gas to go to work. Truckers pull their big rigs to the side of the road and simply walk away. Food, medicine and other critical products are not be brought to stores. Gas and electricity (what is left of the short supply) are too expensive for most people to afford. Children, the sick and elderly die from lack of air-conditioned homes and hospitals in the summer. Children, the sick and elderly die in the winter for lack of heat. There are food riots across the country. A barter system takes the place of currency and credit as the economy dissolves and banks close or limit withdrawals. Civil unrest builds.

The police are unable to contain the violence and are themselves victims of the same crisis as the rest of the population. Civilian rule dissolves and Martial Law is declared under provisions approved under the Patriot Act. Regular U.S. Army and Marine troops patrol the streets. The federal government apparatus is moved to an unknown but secure location. The United States descends into chaos and becomes a third world country. Its time as the lone superpower is over.

It doesn't get any worse than this.

Then the first Israeli bomber drops its nuclear payload on Tehran.

Child Abuse In the Jehovah's Witness Cult

From John S. Torell

Recently I was tipped off that there was a widespread child abuse activity among the Jehovah's witnesses and that the leadership was protecting the abusers from being prosecuted. I was directed to Silentlambs who is aggressively trying to force the abusers out into the open so that they can be prosecuted for their crimes and help the victims.

I believe this information will help you to confront Jehovah's Witnesses when they come to your door and force them to see the error of their organization in which they are trapped.

When JW's recognize that they have been lied to, it will be easier to present the Gospel of Jesus Christ and lead them to a personal faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, not as the archangel Michael, who came and died on the cross for their sins. May God use this information to rescue the perishing from this terrible Cult.

The History of Silentlambs

In recent months there have been some speculations about how Silentlambs was started and where the origins of the organization began, for those reasons the following information should be helpful to establish the facts.

Silentlambs was solely founded by William H. Bowen. Bowen was a second generation Jehovah's Witness that served as the Presiding Overseer in a small western Kentucky congregation. He served as an elder for around fifteen years, was removed as an elder in 1992 for not backing down on a matter involving the appointment of a child molester. Bowen was reappointed in 1994 and used for many privileges following that reappointment. Bowen had a long career in the organization, served at headquarters called, "Bethel" from 77-79, pioneered for several years in his youth, taught many schools, participated in many judicial committees, had parts on district conventions and circuit assemblies since he was five years of age. His father served as an elder for over 40 years, was a presiding overseer, an assembly overseer and sub CO, so in his life he was involved in many inner workings of the organization.

In the year 2000 Bowen became aware that a fellow elder was a confessed child molester. Due to his past history in being removed in 1992 he knew that he needed to go straight by the book to have the matter addressed properly. Bowen worked for almost a year to have this person reported to police, especially due to the fact that in the process of investigating the original allegations, it was discovered that there was strong evidence to suggest another child was being molested. Numerous calls were made to the Service and Legal Departments along with involvement of three presiding overseers from nearby congregations. In the end the final decision was to keep everything confidential and simply remove the molester as an elder. In disgust Bowen started writing his letter of resignation in November of 2000. In the process of writing that letter he wrote a line,

*"There is a silence of the lambs, the little ones, who look to You and Bodies of Elders for protection, but instead are crushed and ostracized by an organizational policy when they needed help the most. The Watchtower is protected; the pedophile is protected, too bad for the silent lamb."*¹

It was from that line that Bowen solely came up with the name "Silentlambs" to represent victims of abuse. After writing that letter he began posting anonymously on the internet as "Silentlambs."²

In January of 2001 after threats from the organization to not do so and after resigning as an elder, he personally reported the child molester to authorities.

From that point he began to be inundated with emails from abuse survivors. There were so many stories being sent privately, yet, Watchtower spokesman were publicly denying that there were any problems with abuse or for that matter that there were any abuse survivors in the organization.³

Different ones privately approached Bowen and offered private advice and understanding of the inner workings of the organization. Understanding this was very helpful in having the fortitude to stand the ground on the abuse issue. We are grateful for their kind assistance.

In February 2001 Bowen had a sleepless night due to the blatant lies of Watchtower spokesmen along with the hundreds of horrific stories of the abused needed to be addressed. About 3am in the morning Bowen sat down at his computer and wrote the story, "The Day The Lambs Roared."⁴ The point of the story was that the voice of the victims could move mountains and silence the misrepresentation of WT spokesman. At that point Bowen sold two rare JW books to a collector for $1,000 and used that money to start the Silentlambs website in March of 2001. The picture of the cartoon lamb featured throughout the website was given to Silentlambs by an eleven year old abuse survivor and became the mascot for the organization. Bowen developed the content, creation, editing, and development of the silentlambs website. Three months later Bowen incorporated Silentlambs as a non-profit organization with three members on the board of directors, Bowen, his wife, and Rush Hunt an attorney from the Kentucky area. They were actually the founders of the Silentlambs organization.

Since that point in every newspaper, news cast and documentary done on the abuse issue Silentlambs has always firmly held that abuse survivors would be given a platform to speak out about their abuse. Whenever reporters attempted to make the story about Bowen or outside issues, he would refuse to go forward unless abuse survivors were featured first and primary before anything else. That formula has proven quiet (sic) successful as of 2007 over 24 documentaries have featured JW abuse survivors around the world. In addition, Silentlambs has assisted abuse survivors to appear in hundreds of newspaper articles and magazine articles around the world as well, including the New York Times and Newsweek.⁵

In the spring of 2002 Silentlambs also assisted in bringing the first series of major civil lawsuits against Watchtower over the mishandling of child abuse. Silentlambs spent thousands of hours in legal research, provided key background material, and actually helped write the first lawsuit filed on behalf of abuse survivors. Bowen's background as an elder was instrumental in educating the attorneys as to how the inner workings of the organization defined the abuse policy. For five years Watchtower Lawyers spent millions of "World Wide Work" donations to seek to evade paying for their crimes against children. In the end, in March of 2007 it has been reported that they paid out over $12 million to several JW abuse survivors. The sad part is the victims were required to sign "gag" orders to prevent them from speaking about the settlements or the abuse they incurred. Once again Watchtower purposefully created "silent lambs."

Silentlambs reported on these events as the abuse survivors once again needed a voice to expose this latest attempt to cover up abuse within the organization.⁶ Silentlambs received national coverage in May 2007 and provided copies of the actual settlement papers of each lawsuit. Once again at the press conference, six abuse survivors were given a platform to speak out about their abuse. Silentlambs was proud to help them have that moment.

In subsequent months others were able to obtain more detailed information about the lawsuits and now we are able to provide this information at no charge. You can read each of the lawsuits along with several hundreds of pages of courts cases that have been filed over the last seven years.⁷

Over the last seven years different ones have assisted Silentlambs with information and we greatly appreciate their help. When certain ones in the XJW movements have by their comments or actions insulted abuse survivors we have stood up to them as we have Watchtower spokesmen.⁸ That is the only course to take when you have an organization that has as its first priority - the support of abuse survivors.

At Silentlambs we are proud to say that we have appreciation and support from abuse survivors that are JWs and XJWs. At the same time we are maligned and hated by members from both groups for exposing their leaders for creating, covering up and defending the abuse policies of the organization including those past and present members of the Governing Body.

That is the history of Silentlambs and we hope that with your support we can continue to be a beacon to those that suffer and an educational source to protect children.

U.S. Government Condemns 'Unintentional' Anti-Semitism

By Rev. Ted Pike

Are you an unintentional anti-Semite? The US State Department's "Office of Global Anti-Semitism" warns not just of conscious, intentional anti-Semitism but of another lurking form of potential bigotry: unintentional anti-Semitism. (See, Contemporary Global Anti-Semitism: A Report Provided to the United States Congress, page 4)¹

According to our government, this consists of criticisms of Israel which, though true, might be manipulated by others to Israel's detriment. To avoid assisting Israel's enemies, the state department recommends that every comment about Israel (including its leaders and military) first be scrutinized for whether it could put Israel in a bad light. If so, it shouldn't be said. Only then can we consider ourselves both consciously and unconsciously free from anti-Semitism.

The state department needn't lecture evangelical Christians against possibly assisting Israel's enemies. At least a century ago, evangelical leaders anticipated the state department's warning. Today, evangelicals reflexively honor the code that, no matter how true an unflattering fact or opinion about Jews may be, it will not be repeated. As a result of a century of self-censorship, tens of millions of evangelicals live in a virtual iron curtain of exclusion of truth about Jews, Judaism and Israel. Taught to see, hear, and speak no evil of Israel, they subsist on a religious and political diet of Zionist-approved pabulum. The magnitude of truth that has never been allowed to reach them is encyclopedic.

ARE EVANGELICALS ANTI-SEMITIC?

Evangelicals think that, by only speaking well of Jews, they are beyond the reproach of ever being labeled anti-Semitic. Wrong. The state department says that if Christians believe the New Testament account that Jewish leaders had Christ crucified they are the very worst kind of anti-Semites: "classical" anti-Semites. That's what Hitler was.²

To please both Jews and the government, evangelicals must now fulfill two criteria: Never say true but unflattering things about Israel and abandon belief in the New Testament.

Will evangelicals accommodate the state department's new requirement of philo-Semitic correctness? Countless followers of John Hagee already do. They agree with his book "In Defense of Israel" that the New Testament testimony that Jews killed Christ is an anti-Semitic lie that birthed the Holocaust.

Yet an increasing number of Americans are no longer content to be insulated from truth. Many visiting truthtellers.org are rediscovering an enormous reality: We don't have to fear the whole truth concerning Jews or anything else. Truth can be trusted entirely. Truth doesn't beget error and evil; rather, it bears the good fruit of knowledge, wisdom, moderation, and guidance in a darkened, confused world.

Because statements of truth affirm reality, they are akin to God Himself, the ultimate Reality. Jesus said, "Thy Word is truth." (John 17:17)

People who don't love reality hold back part of the truth. They consider too much truth to be potentially dangerous. Evangelical leaders believe they protect Jews from possible persecution by censoring truth about Jewish supremacism and creation of Christian-persecuting hate laws. In reality, protection of Jewish anti-Christian activists empowers them to flourish and expand their corruption of society. This in turn only increases criticism and resentment of all Jews—most of whom are innocent of such evil. Many bitterly resent the Anti-Defamation League, architect of hate laws, for the bad reputation it gives the Jewish people!

The "Israel-first" church should not fear truth about the Jews; rather, it should fear the mounting juggernaut of Jewish anti-Christianity. This is a force that Rabbi Daniel Lapin says is "now in relentless attack on evangelical Christians." (See, Rabbi Lapin: Christians Under 'Relentless Attack' by 'Secular Judaism')³

In order to hold back this threat, the truth must be allowed to flourish in the full light of day. For evangelical leaders and media to continue to parse the truth to the people only distorts reality. Evil flourishes amidst such distortion.

HALF-TRUTHS ARE ACTUALLY LIES

But evangelical leaders may reply: "Surely telling half the truth about a sensitive subject is better than telling no truth." Not so. When a respected leader tells half the truth, he inoculates his followers against the whole truth. They are satisfied they have found the truth and no longer search for it.

Also, they become misdirected in their opposition to evil. For example, evangelical leaders say, "The liberal media is behind the corruption of America." This half-truth directs their followers to oppose liberalism, an ideology so pervasive and amorphous that it's almost impossible to effectively combat. However, if a leader tells the whole truth, that big media corrupting America is primarily Jewish, then defenders of freedom are immediately directed against a racial-religious group of conspirators. These shadowy ogres don't want us to reflect unfavorably on the fact that they, as Jews, are corrupting America. Such scrutiny puts Judaism in a bad light. It could prompt both Christians and Jews to pressure them to desist. That would mean an end to their efforts to corrupt Christian civilization in order that a Judaic one-world order, presided over by their false messiah, Anti-Christ, might be established.

Here we see the radically different consequences of telling a half-truth versus a whole truth. Half-truths lead to misdirection and dissipation of Christian activism. The whole truth leads to effective resistance and restoration of society. Consequences this different and profound could mean the difference between saving America and losing her. Not telling the whole truth is thus worse than a misrepresentation; it is a lie. Lies distort reality, creating false premises which lead to misguided actions and disastrous results—confusion.

Such confusion is where John Hagee and tens of millions of evangelicals are. It's where our Zionist-directed Mideast foreign policy is. It's where countless Americans, sitting before their TV sets, are: depending on Jewish media to orient and instruct them about the very greatest moral and national issues America has ever faced.

Any religion, civilization or government that depends on filtered information will lose its way. As long as America allows Jewish media to guide us, we will only find ourselves repeatedly foundering in national dilemmas and foreign entanglements. Despite our most fervent efforts to find relief and safety, we will remain perpetually, inextricably lost.

HOPE IN THE GRASSROOTS?

Will evangelical leaders continue to perpetuate lies about Judaism, even as Jewish activism undermines their ministries? Because of their enormous vested commitment to Zionism, the answer is almost certainly yes. After all, they have to please their pro-Zionist supporters to survive. Such leaders do not really lead the people; the power of the pursestring of their constituents leads them.

On the other hand, an encouraging trend is quietly developing: apart from ADL, truthtellers.org dominates "hate laws" at Google. With WorldNetDaily almost constantly exposing hate law abuses to its 7 million Christian/conservative readers, many thousands of evangelical Christians, googling hate laws, rebound to truthtellers.org each month. There, they find not only the world's most complete information on hate laws but a Biblically balanced perspective on Israel that is evangelical-friendly. Truthtellers.org teaches that God still has a wonderful destiny for a remnant of repentant Jews at Christ's return. We also teach that it is not anti-Semitic to rebuke evil Jewish leaders. Christ and the prophets did it all the time.

At Truthtellers, we receive frequent appreciation and encouragement from evangelicals with virtually no criticism. In fact, we have encountered no intelligent, systematic, and even-handed criticism since the founding of the National Prayer Network in 1981.

Many of these evangelicals, finding "Ted Pike" on Google, undoubtedly link to my video The Other Israel at video.google.com where it has now been viewed more than 110,000 times.

Perhaps, with such truth flooding into evangelicalism from the internet, it is not evangelical leaders who will save America from the top but independent-thinking Christians from the bottom. There is evidence of an ever-increasing number of evangelicals in the grassroots who want to do just that.

What can we do right now?

Pray for America and spread the whole truth! Where the people lead, the "leaders" will follow.

Ted Pike is director of the National Prayer Network, a Christian/conservative watchdog organization. He is a national opponent to federal hate crimes legislation proposed by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. In the tradition of Christ and the Hebrew prophets, Pike is an outspoken critic of ADL's evil Jewish leadership. www.truthtellers.org

PASTOR JOHN'S WEEKLY SERMON MESSAGES

Many of you know that Pastor John preaches a weekly sermon message. Some of you receive it in the mail while others get it from our website. Did you know that you can also print the same outline from our website that Pastor John uses in his sermon as you listen along?

But did you know that we have set up a podcast so that your computer can automatically download the sermon MP3? Just go to the following link to find out more. www.eaec.org/rss_feeds.htm

Did you know that in addition to English, we now have the sermon outline translated into German, Spanish and Swedish every week.

Dear Pastor Torell,

I just wanted to send this brief message with my annual donation to thank you for your diligence and hard work. You have a very effective ministry and I know that it's receiving a mighty blessing from God. Please continue in the Lord's work, for He is supporting you.

I have received great blessings from listening to your weekly sermons on CD. It is a convenient way to listen to them. In order that you can put your resources to better use, I will download the sermons from your web site from now on. You can discontinue sending me the CDs.

I pray that your ministry and congregation will continue to be filled with Holy Ghost power and that you will continue to preach the Gospel to the masses so that many more will come to salvation and repentance.

With much love, Geoffrey

FUTURE THREAT

John S. Torell

On July 9, 2008 we had an unusual experience in our ministry as some of our computers lost their Internet connection. After some troubleshooting, the problem was traced to an update released by Microsoft and downloaded by our computers. The problem was resolved as the update was removed from each computer and the Internet connection was immediately restored.

The Holy Spirit showed me that most of the world's personal computers operate on the Microsoft Windows operating system. One scenario in which the government needs to keep people from the Internet would be to have Microsoft release a disguised update that would shut down a person's internet connection. This is just one way for the coming World Government to take control of this communication system and shut it down for all people except for those who belong to them.

THE CALIFORNIA MARRIAGE AMENDMENT

Charles Thorell

Marriage is under attack by radical homosexuals who think that their counterfeit relationships are the real thing. On May 15, 2008 they managed to convince the California Supreme Court that the God-given institution of marriage should not be limited to one man and woman but can also be made up of two "loving people" of the same gender. This has opened Pandora's Box, making it possible for marriage to be even further redefined. Who's to say that two men and dog cannot be wed in unholy matrimony sometime in the future? That will lead to group marriages and even contract marriages where a marriage will expire after a predetermined time.

Californians have the opportunity to put this all to an end in November when we go to the polls and vote on Marriage Protection Act. This constitutional amendment will specify that "only marriage between a man and a woman is valid or recognized in California." Those new words will forever lockout marriage to those that seek to pervert it into something it's not. These radicals have overturned the will of the people on marriage and done away with Proposition 22, which passed with a 61% majority. Now something stronger like a constitutional amendment is needed to stop politicians and courts from re-defining marriage against the will of the voters. You can find out more at ProtectMarriage.com

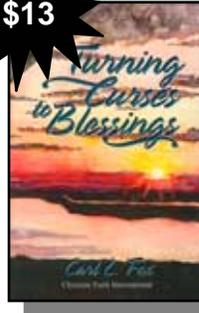

Is it a coincidence that a day after the Supreme Court handed down its decision, California was struck with over 5,000 lightning strikes causing more than 1,000 wild fires? Some of the biggest fires are still burning with losses in the hundreds of millions of dollars and thousands of homes burned down.

Turning Curses to Blessings

Do you ever wonder why the same old problems keep coming back into your life? Why some things just never seem to get resolved? Why you continue to be sick? Does it seem like the flow of God's blessing is just out of reach? While much of Christianity believes curses are non-existent for believers, God's Word says differently. This book is a teaching that brings a much needed understanding regarding the subject of curses. The anecdotes are vivid testimonials of the deliverance and healing available because of the work our Lord Jesus accomplished on the cross.

Judgment Always Begins With God's People

John S. Torell

For the last 2,000 years, there have been no prophets like those in the Old Testament who foretold future events. In today's day and age, how are Christians supposed to find out what is going to happen in advance, and how do we know if natural catastrophic disasters are the result of judgment from God?

Only in reading the Bible can we find the answers to these questions! God's wrath has two purposes: to bring His people back into repentance and to show unbeliever's that sin will not go unpunished. But what happens when people refuse to listen? What will God do when people refuse to repent? It is true that God is love but there will come a time when He will not extend any more mercy. When we read the Scriptures, we see exactly how God dealt with His people, so why should we expect special treatment when we stray from His commandments?

Breaking the Authority of the Bastard Curse

Carl Fox & Paul Norcross

Do you know any hurting Christians who are cut off from the body of Christ? The bastard curse shows up in significant ways to trouble the pursuit of intimacy with the Lord. Deuteronomy chapter 23 and Hebrews chapter 12 shows this curse lasts for ten generations and hides in generational bloodlines as a potent means for Satan to legally prevent believers from having an intimate relationship with God. This book explains how offenses continue to plague churches, how goats arise in the church and affect the sheep and how God's children can be delivered from the effects of this curse in their bloodline.

Thousands of people have been delivered from this curse and experienced immediate and profound results after reading this book. Marriages affected by this curse have been saved and relationships within the Body of Christ have been healed. Written by Pastors Carl Fox and Paul Norcross, this is a very powerful book about deliverance from a well concealed weapon of Satan's kingdom.
