We are a Bible centered group of believers desiring to grow in the full knowledge of Jesus Christ without compromise to His Word.

"If sinners will be damned, at least let them leap to hell over our bodies. And if they will perish, let them perish with our arms around their knees, imploring them to stay. If hell must be filled, at least let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go there unwarned and unprayed for."

THE CORNER

Dear Friends,

The Holy Spirit recently impressed upon me the importance of respecting (fearing) God. It is scriptural and keeps us from being a fool, because if you don't believe in God, you will become a fool.

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction." (Proverbs 1:7)

God has said there is no preference treatment with Him in that He does not discriminate toward anyone; we are all treated the same and will all have the same judgment upon what we do with the Word.

The Word of God is clear and open, all that's left is to obey and believe it. A little child may cover his eyes with his hands and say, "You can't see me now," and believes you really can't see him, and that is precisely how so many people are in regards to the Word of God. They don't believe it and don't want to acknowledge the many truths found therein.

They may say something silly like "I don't think God exists because I don't see him" or "God is love and he would never condemn the way I am living my life." Whether they realize it or not, they have cut themselves off by their erroneous belief and negated the truths found in the Bible.

The Holy Spirit wants us to understand that the Bible is a fixed point of reference. It is a moral compass designed by God to show our need for Him and to help us draw closer to the Lord. Without a fixed point you will be lead astray by moral relativity and I would urge you not to cut yourself off from truths found in the Bible by saying, "I don't believe in that." Check the Word and see what it says. If you have a belief that is different, dig into the Word and find the truth because you will be held accountable. We will all stand before the Lord one day and be judged: what will you hear, praise or rebuke?

Blessings in Christ,

Carole West

THE ELECTION CHARADE CONTINUES

John S. Torell

February 1, 2012

In the January 2012 issue of Charisma, which is the main Pentecostal Charismatic publication in the United States, the central theme was “2012: America’s Final Warning?” and was based upon the book, “The Harbinger,” which was written by the Messianic Jewish rabbi, Jonathan Cahn of New Jersey who states that the 9/11 attack on America was the first in a series of judgments, which then caused the stock market crash in 2001. The second judgment was the collapse of the American economy in 2008. Charisma devoted two articles on this subject with a dire warning that if the people in America do not repent

God is going to destroy our nation. According to most of the American Christian leaders, the first step to repentance is making sure that the United States is totally on the side of the State of Israel, defending that nation regardless of the cost.

THE GREAT DECEPTION

I wholeheartedly agree that America needs to repent but that has nothing to do with the political and military support of the State of Israel. Without getting emotional, we need to ask if there is a special group of people in the United States that is responsible for the moral decay in our nation for the last 200 years. Yes, there is and they are devoted to a religion that teaches sinning is to serve God. The more a person sins, the more he is worshipping God.

What is the reasoning behind such a bizarre religious teaching? The religion of this group teaches that God became confused when He worked on the creation in the beginning and a portion of him fell from heaven into the bottomless pit. That portion then took the form of the “holy serpent,” which in this religion is their messiah. The serpent has been stuck in the bottomless pit for thousands of years, and in order for the messiah to be able to come to earth and establish his kingdom, he must be rescued from the bottomless pit.

Some 3,000 years ago, the leaders of this religion met and discussed how they could get the serpent out of the bottomless pit. According to the religious instructions written their prophets, there were two ways to get the serpent out. One was called the “high road” and the other, the “low road.” The first option was to minister to all people on the earth and make them good, whereas, the second option was to minister to all people on the earth and make them evil.

As the leaders discussed this great issue, they agreed that it was too difficult to make all people on the earth good and that it would be easier to make them evil. Once the decision was made, the leaders made sure that their decision was written down in a decree and presented to the members of this religion. They all agreed to work hard toward this task with the result that they destroyed their nation and invoked God’s wrath. One of God’s genuine prophets, Isaiah, thundered against this damnable religion some 700 years before Christ:

“Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.”
(Isaiah 28:14-18)

Some 200 years later, the prophet Jeremiah cried out against the religion of the serpent:

“And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.” (Jeremiah 11:9-10)

The prophet Ezekiel was a contemporary with Jeremiah and he also spoke out against this religion:

“There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.” (Ezekiel 22:25-31)

Five hundred years later, John the Baptist called them by their real name:

“But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance: And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.” (Matthew 3:7-9)

Jesus recognized this group and spoke out against them:

“Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.” (Matthew 12:33-34)

THE SYNAGOGUE OF SATAN

It was the risen Christ that gave them the name they had earned after thousands of years working in the dark; he called the religion the Synagogue of Satan:

“Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” (Revelation 2:9)

Jesus repeated this a second time:

“I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” (Revelation 3:8-9)

THE SECRET RELIGION

When the city of Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 A.D., the leaders of this secret religion spread out all over the world and planted themselves wherever Jewish people lived. Through the Talmudic writings and their own written doctrine, the Kabbalah, they worked tirelessly for centuries to bring their cursed dream into a reality.

In 1666, the Kabbalistic rabbi, Sabbatai Sevi announced he was the messiah, but he was not able to bring up the serpent from the bottomless pit. In the next century Jacob Frank told his followers that he was the incarnation of Sabbatai Sevi and would succeed in getting the serpent back to earth but he too died without having been able to do what he promised.

THE KABBALAH BOOKS

I have written a series of booklets called, "The Kabbalah: The Mother of All Harlots" in which I trace the religion of the Kabbalah down through the centuries in order to inform Christians living in the 21st century why things are happening the way they are.

What you must know is that the Kabbalah is the religion of the Antichrist and his false prophet, and from having been an obscure religion with the Jewish community, it is now a world religion that has been embraced by world leaders who are all determined to work day and night to bring the serpent up from the bottomless pit. This false messiah is called the "son of perdition" and "the beast" in the Bible.

The Kabbalistic rabbis control Hollywood, Bollywood in India, the movie studios in France, Germany, England, Italy and just about every movie studio in the world. They control the pornographic industry, the major whorehouses in all the nations, the gambling casinos in Nevada, Monaco and wherever they are found on this earth, they control the sex slave trade of selling women, boys and girls; they are the ones that run the whorehouses in Thailand, where boys and girls are sold on a daily basis to the pedophiles coming from the whole world.

They have sent in their agents to control the newspaper, radio and television media. They are responsible for the shock jocks like Howard Stern (an American Jew) and others.

The rabbis have used their agents to write filthy educational material used in our public schools and don't forget the explosion of homosexual militants who are taking over every nation in the world.

The Kabbalistic rabbis have succeeded in bringing the people in the world to such a level of evil that there is little goodness left in the human race. They believe that when the last spark of goodness is gone, the unholy serpent will rise from the bottomless pit and enter the world as the man that is going to solve all problems and bring in the millennium for the Kabbalistic Jews. Look at this Bible reference and take heed:

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If any man have an ear, let him hear." (Revelation 13:1-9)

The time is late and we are just about ready to see this prophecy fulfilled in our lifetime:

THE AMERICAN JEWISH LOBBY

The strongest political force in the United States is the American Jewish Lobby which is divided into a number of organizations. The strongest is known as AIPAC (American Israel Public Affairs Committee). Originally the name of this organization was "The American Zionist Committee for Public Affairs" (AZCPA) and was founded by a Canadian Jew named Isaiah L. Kenen in 1947, who had been chosen by the Zionist leaders to form a lobby group. He was born in 1905 and moved to the U.S. in 1926 and died in 1988. The Jewish leadership recognized that in order to attract Gentile support for their organization, they had to take out the word "Zionist" and replace it with the word "Israel."

During a Senate investigation in the early 1960's, it was learned that part of the operating cost for this lobby group came from the State of Israel. When the U.S. government found this out, it ordered the organization to register as an agent of Israel under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

Presidents Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower privately complained about the pressure that the Jewish lobby put on them. When Evangelist Billy Graham met with President Richard Nixon at the White House in 1973, their conversation was recorded on tape. Nixon complained about the vast power wielded by the American Jews in politics along with the liberal Jews' political activism and media clout. Graham was heard agreeing with Nixon and told how the Jews befriended him but that "They don't know how I really feel about what they're doing to this country."¹ Graham also brought up the term "the synagogue of Satan," which is found in the Bible in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9. Graham later denied ever saying such a thing.²

In 2002 when Graham was confronted by American Jewish leaders and accused of anti-Semitism, he told the media that he had no recollection of such remarks and wanted to apologize for any offense they may have caused. As more recordings were released in 2009, more accusations were leveled at Billy Graham. Larry Ross, a spokesman for the evangelist, defended Graham and stated that he had never been an anti-Semite and that the remarks from 1973 should be understood in context, as part of a conversation with the president. In 2009, Abraham Foxman, the director of the Anti-Defamation League, attacked both President Nixon and Billy Graham with this statement: "While never expressing these views in public, Rev. Graham unabashedly held forth with the president with age-old classical anti-Semitic canards."³

American pastors live in fear of being labeled anti-Semitic by the Jewish lobby. When Adrian Rogers (1931-2005) was president of the Southern Baptist Convention, he made a statement that people could only be saved through the name of Jesus and this applied also to the Jews. The American Jewish media picked it up and the resulting firestorm had Rogers publicly apologizing for the "horrible statement" of truth he had made that offended every American Jew.

AIPAC is the most powerful lobby group the Jews have in America and they have done such a great job that in between the years 1948 to 2004, the United States gave more than $140 billion of aid to Israel on top of the $3 billion it receives annually as part of the American foreign aid program. Israel receives 20% of the total American foreign aid program per year courtesy of the American taxpayers. As of 2007, AIPAC had an active membership of more than 100,000 people. It has 10 regional offices and seven satellite offices to serve and rally its members in all 50 states for fundraising and contacting political leaders.

AIPAC political specialists are working with synagogues and Christian churches to promote support for Israel and recruit new members. There is a special outreach to make sure that African and Hispanic Americans are educated and recruited to support Israel and its causes in the Middle East. Its troubleshooters work high school and college campuses to make sure that the students are persuaded in becoming friends of Israel and refute any person or organization trying to undermine support for Israel.

AIPAC is also constantly working to secure resolutions favorable to Israel in the Senate and the House as soon as there is a conflict in the Middle East. Members are constantly asked to bombard the president, senators and congressmen with e-mail, phone calls and letters that urge them to vote in favor of any action that concerns Israel. AIPAC empowers pro-Israel activists across all ages, religions and races to be politically engaged and build relationships with members of congress from both parties in order to get support for Israel through foreign aid, government partnership and joint antiterrorism efforts.

AIPAC AND THE MOSSAD

The Mossad is the Israeli intelligence service which operates on a worldwide scale. Its number of employees is much smaller than the CIA since it operates on a different philosophy. A Jew living in any nation is loyal to the State of Israel, which they consider to be their God-given homeland; therefore, any Jew or Jewish organization can be recruited when there is a need and do covert work for the Mossad, which gives it potential access to millions of agents in every nation on the earth. When a Jew does service for the Mossad, he or she is only paid for expenses since they consider this a divine service for their god. However, there are hundreds of thousands of Jews who are not Zionists and will not work with the Mossad nor do any bidding for the Zionist World Federation. But just like Gentiles, they do not control the media or the finances in the world and therefore their voices are not heard.

In August of 2004, the FBI and the U.S. Justice Department's counter intelligence bureau announced that they were investigating a top Pentagon analyst suspected of spying for Israel and handing over highly confidential documents on U.S. policy toward Iran to AIPAC, which in turn handed them over to the Israeli embassy in Washington D.C.⁴ The FBI had been covertly investigating senior Pentagon analyst, Colonel Lawrence Franklin, USAF, and AIPAC leaders, Steven Rosen and Keith Weissman, for several years prior to their indictment. Franklin was a Roman Catholic of Irish descent who had been working closely with American Jews, Michael Ledeen and Douglas Feith, in fabricating the case of going to war with Iraq in 2003. Feith was the Under Secretary of Defense, 2001-2005 and Ledeen was involved in the Iran/Contra affair, who later worked as a consultant for the National Security Office, the White House, Department of State and the Department of Defense.

Lawrence Franklin was a top Pentagon analyst on Iran and had access to all the White House deliberations. The Israeli government wanted a war with Iran to subdue and destroy their quest for nuclear weapons, so the Mossad instructed the AIPAC leaders to get as much information as possible.

Franklin was arrested on May 4, 2005, and Steven Rosen and Keith Weissman were also arrested and charged with violation of the Espionage Act in the conduct of AIPAC's work on August 4. Franklin promised to cooperate with the FBI investigation and lead them to the different Israeli contacts he had, but a mole in the FBI disclosed this information to CBS on a newscast on August 29, 2004.

The American Jewish leadership went into a damage control mode and as a result Franklin stopped his cooperation with the FBI. Abe Foxman of the Anti-Defamation League called for a special prosecutor to investigate the leak of the FBI sting and stated that the image of Israel was being tarnished. The Israeli government denied any involvement and so did the Israeli embassy. Attorney General John Ashcroft was a strong Christian Zionist who intervened in the FBI investigation and held it back. Congressmen and Senators came out in defense of AIPAC stating that this Jewish organization was unjustly accused by having its integrity questioned.

In the month of December, 2004 the FBI subpoenaed four senior staffers at AIPAC to appear before a grand jury and searched the Washington office of the pro-Israel lobby seeking additional files on Rosen and Weissman. AIPAC strongly denied any wrong doing of any of its staff but in time the leadership realized that they could no longer cover for Rosen and Weissman, and in April 2005, both men were fired and AIPAC refused to pay their legal bills. In a press release, they stated that Rosen and Weissman had resigned from their positions. In August of 2005, all charges were dropped against them because the pressure from the American Jewish lobby broke the back of the FBI investigation and the case was thrown out.

On January 20, 2006, Judge T.S. Ellis sentenced Franklin to 151 months of prison and fined him $10,000. The prison sentence of almost 13 years was reduced to ten months of house arrest.

The moral of this story is that the U.S. government and its agencies are powerless against the American Jewish lobby. If a non-Jewish person wants to advance in America,

⁴ THE POWER OF ISRAEL IN THE UNITED STATES, James Petras, Clarity Press, 2006, pp. 76-81

he needs to make sure that he does not offend any Jew or state anything negative about Israel and Zionism.⁵

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN ZIONISTS

AIPAC has been able to build a strong coalition among Pentecostal and Evangelical Christians in America. The leaders in these Christian groups are well compensated when they lend their support to the cause of Israel. Hal Lindsey is a prime example of an agent for the Jewish lobby, followed by the late Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson and his 700 Club, Jim Bakker and his PTL television network, Paul Crouch and his TBN television network, all other Christian television networks on cable and satellite, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart, Joseph Farah of WorldNetDaily, etc. There are few denominational pastors who dare to speak against support of the State of Israel and well-known pastors like Charles Stanley and David Jeremiah make sure that television viewers know they are strong supporters of Israel.

AIPAC is working the Christian field very hard, and those who give support to Israel are financially rewarded while those who oppose have their financial support destroyed. Pastor John Hagee has become the darling of the Jewish leadership and the Mormon Glen Beck have become a successful fundraisers for Jewish causes. Both of them have been handsomely rewarded. Beck is not a lifetime Mormon but converted from Roman Catholicism in 1999 when had a substance abuse crisis.

JOHN HAGEE AND CUFI

Christians United For Israel (CUFI) is the strongest Christian group that the Zionist leadership has been able to create. As a mega church leader, John Hagee has attracted millions of American Christians to give money to the State of Israel, pay for lobbyists in Washington D.C. and travel on many tours set up by CUFI to the state of Israel.

In February 2006, more than 400 pastors from all over the United States flew to San Antonio, Texas, where the church Hagee is pastoring is located. He proposed to form a support organization for the State of Israel and became the founder and national chairman for CUFI. In 2007, Hagee called for a women's organization to be formed with its focus on prayer for Israel and CUFI. The women's group was named, Daughters for Zion (DFZ) and is currently headed up by Pastor Lynne Hammond from Minneapolis.

Every time the government of Israel needs some kind of legislation passed in Congress, Hagee activates the contact network of CUFI and millions of American Christians are notified within 24 hours of this critical request. They are told to e-mail and call their senators and congressmen to stand by Israel and vote accordingly. At the same time, bus loads of CUFI members are sent to Washington, D.C. to flood the offices of Congress and make sure that the lawmakers understand the pressure from the American people and vote accordingly. Since the evangelical Christians in the United States make up a large voting bloc, fear is put into each legislator to have a perfect record when it comes to voting for Israel if he wants to be re-elected and get funding from Jewish lobby groups.

CUFI is not a small organization; instead, it is a well funded group that has expanded its influence into every city in the United States. Here are the members of the Executive Board in 2012:

- ❖ Mega pastor, John C. Hagee, Texas
- ❖ Gary Bauer, president of American Values
- ❖ Bishop Keith A. Butler, Michigan
- ❖ David Brog, executive director for CUFI
- ❖ Pastor Happy Caldwell, Arkansas

- ❖ Pastor Jonathan P. Falwell of Thomas Road Baptist Church, Virginia and son to the late pastor Jerry Falwell.
- ❖ Pastor Mac Hammond, Minnesota
- ❖ Michael Little, president and chief operating officer of Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN) founded by Pat Robertson.

Most of these pastors are from mega churches and broadcasting on Christian television, thus they yield a powerful influence on millions of American Christians.

It is interesting that Hagee has divided the United States into 14 regions. Currently in 2012, there are nine directors appointed with five regions without a director. Here are the current directors:

- ❖ Region 2: Randy Neal, former leader of AIPAC, in charge of Arizona, Nevada, and Utah.
- ❖ Region 3: Pastor George Morrison, Colorado, in charge of Colorado, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming.
- ❖ Region 4: Pastor Happy Caldwell, also a member of the executive board, in charge of Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and Hawaii.
- ❖ Region 5: Reverend Billye Brim, a tour guide to Israel, in charge of Alabama, Mississippi, Missouri and Tennessee.
- ❖ Region 6: Stephen Strang, owner and editor of Charisma Magazine from Florida. He is in charge of Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina.

- ❖ Region 8: Pastor Mac Hammond, also a member of the executive board and in charge of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.
- ❖ Region 10: Pastor Ronald A. Domina, New York and in charge of Connecticut, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York.
- ❖ Region 11: Reverend Thomas Peetz from New Hampshire and in charge of Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Rhode Island.
- ❖ Region 14: Pastor Greg Stephens, California and in charge of Southern California.

Regions 1, 7, 9, 12 and 13 have not been staffed as of January 1, 2012. Each director has a chain of command and it is set up to cover a state, by counties and cities. Thousands of people are working the different areas of responsibility, and they are not only used to send out information to pastors and their churches, but also to report back who is supporting Israel and who is not. Once this information has been compiled at headquarters, it is then passed on to AIPAC, which in turn will pass it on to the Mossad and other information groups in Israel.

Any pastor or group that becomes outspoken against Israel and its policies will be put on an anti-Semitic list, and distributed to local groups like Freemasons and other secret societies, which in turn have control over the local media. Slandorous reporting then takes place in order to isolate a dissident or to create such a negative image that the finances dry up for the pastor or the group that is dissenting. Any politician who makes negative statements about Israel or Jews in general will be reported and on the news wires in less than 24 hours. We have witnessed over the years the fortunes of political leaders and candidates rise or fall depending upon the ratings by the Jewish lobby. No American political candidate can expect to win an office if he is opposed by the Jewish lobby.

Dr. Mitchell Bard is an American Jew who is the executive director of the American-Israeli Cooperative Enterprise (AICE). He made the following statement in 2009: "American Jews recognize the importance of support for Israel because of the dire consequences that would follow from the alternative. Despite the fact that Israel is often referred to now as the fourth most powerful country in the world, the perceived threat to Israel is not military defeat, it is annihilation. At the same time, American Jews are frightened of what might happen in the United States if they do not have political power.”⁶

It is also interesting to note that John Hagee has made it very clear in his preaching and speaking at Christian rallies that God has a special plan for the Jewish people and that Christians are not to share Christ with them. God is going to save the Jews by a different plan and Jesus is not part of that plan. Christians are to support Israel with prayer and finances and to put pressure on the American government to undergird Israel at all times.

The Jewish leadership is in love with Hagee and his group since they agree with the Jewish teaching that Jesus is not the Messiah and that the Jews look forward to the real messiah that will come in the future just for them. For this heresy, Hagee has been rewarded handsomely. Public records from 2001 show that his non-profit organization called “Global Evangelism Television” (GETV), received $18.3 million and he was received a salary of $1.25 million. Hagee also has a retirement trust fund that in 2001 was also holding the deed to a $2.1 million 7,969 acre ranch outside Brackettville, with five lodges, a manager’s house, a smoke house, a skeet range and three barns. Hagee and his second wife live in a 5,275 square-foot house with six bedrooms in one of San Antonio’s most exclusive gated communities, which in 2001 was appraised at $688,900.

Over the years Hagee’s income has not dropped, but has increased from year to year. He has become a “prostitute” by selling himself to the Jewish lobby for fame and fortune. The mega pastors in the United States love him, because if they hang out with him, they are also rewarded financially by the Jewish lobby. Thus, these renegade Christian preachers are fleecing the rank and file Christians who are sending in their hard earned money to the Jewish lobby, which in turn gives donations to the preachers. They have sold themselves for filthy lucre and disregarded the words of Jesus:

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” (John 14:6)

AMERICAN JEWISH LOBBY GROUPS

The next largest Jewish lobby group after AIPAC is “The Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations,” consisting of fifty different Jewish organizations. This group is the main contact between the American Jewish community and the executive branch of the U.S. government, directly lobbying the president.

Every day, except Saturday, the Israeli government agency, “The Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs,” prepares a briefing called, “The Daily Alert.” This is an online service that is free and lets you know in advance what is going to happen tomorrow. The purpose for this e-mail service is to give the Israeli government a direct line to American Jews and keep them informed or give them disinformation.

In 1991, a Czechoslovakian born Jew named Robert Maxwell was executed by the Mossad because he had become a liability to the State of Israel. He was a British newspaper tycoon that for many years had worked as a spy for Israel, who did not want the Jewish world population to know that he had been murdered. The official cause of death was listed as a boating accident. Once his body had been recovered from the Canary Islands, it was taken to Israel and given a state funeral.⁷

The average American Christian is not educated when it comes to Jewish activities in America because the regular media does not report on it. I am therefore taking the liberty to go into detail to expose the Jewish lobbying. The following list will give the reader the opportunity to check out these lobbying organizations.

- ❖ The Anti-Defamation League – founded by the Jewish Masonic order of the Independent Order of B’nai B’rith in 1913

- ❖ The Zionist Organization of America – founded in 1897
- ❖ The Israel Policy Forum – founded in 1993

- ❖ Americans for a Safe Israel – founded in 1971
- ❖ American Friends of Likud – the Likud party founded by Menachem Begin in 1973
- ❖ Mercaz-USA – Zionist organization representing conservative Judaism within the World Zionist Organization, Jewish Agency for Israel, American Zionist Movement and the Jewish National Fund. Founding year not listed on their website.
- ❖ Hadassah – Women’s Zionist organization of America founded in 1912.
- ❖ J Street – Left-wing political action committee founded in 2008 by Jeremy Ben Ami, former policy advisor to President Bill Clinton, and policy analyst Daniel Levy. A number of high ranking Israeli military officers and prominent political Israeli leaders are promoting this group. Since they are registered with the U.S. government as an independent PAC, they can collect money without limit and support any political candidate running for office.

POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEES

In the United States, money given to a political candidate must be listed publicly and an individual is limited in the amount they are allowed to donate the campaign of the candidate. The lobby groups tried to circumvent this by starting political action committees (PAC) with no limit to how much a person could give.

On January 21, 2010, the Supreme Court ruled that the federal government could not bar corporations and unions from contributing to political action committees. A political action committee does not have to disclose its donors until after the election is over and thus the voters do not know who is behind a certain PAC. Furthermore, a PAC cannot work with a candidate; they must work independently and have no coordination. Prior to this Supreme Court ruling, there were about 4,600 PACs registered with the Federal Election Committee (FEC). After the ruling there emerged what became known as “Super PACs” where corporations and unions teamed up with individual donors and amassed enormous amounts of money which could be spent on attack ads. The only restraint by the FEC is that a candidate running for an office can have no connection to a PAC. This is circumvented by the lobby group behind a candidate. It creates two organizations, one that works with the candidate on a day to day basis and another one that is in charge of the PAC. The manager of the PAC watches the election campaign to see which candidates are running against the one he is supposed to protect. We saw this in action in Iowa and New Hampshire. As soon as one of the Republican candidates started to surge in the polls, the PACs moved in with attack ads and destroyed the front runner.

A Super PAC controlled by Obama supporters spent millions of dollars in the first two primaries to discredit Mitt Romney with powerful television attack ads even before the general election campaign has started. A Super PAC run by friends of Mitt Romney spent $4 million in Iowa and New Hampshire for attack ads targeting Newt Gingrich. In turn, a Super PAC run by friends of Gingrich is also spending $4 million to counterattack Romney. The main donor behind Gingrich is an American Jew named Sheldon Adelson.⁸

Since the FEC is lax when it comes to policing the Super PACs, it is estimated that donors for the months of December-January will not be filed for the public to see until January 31, 2012, and by that time elections are over in the first three primaries. According to the Sacramento Bee, Super PAC’s have spent $19 million so far in the 2012 presidential election and it is projected that by the end of the presidential race in November, more than $100 million will have been spent by the Super PACs.⁹

There is no way that a third party candidate or individuals have any chance of winning a presidential race because the people behind the Super PACs are buying the election through their money.

It is well known in both the Democratic and Republican parties that the big money in elections comes from American Jews and whoever is able to get the favor of the Jewish lobby will have the greatest chance of winning an election. Even though American Jews only make up about 2.2% of the American population, as a voting bloc they will determine the outcome of all political races that the Jewish leadership deems important to them and Israel.¹⁰ This is not lost on political candidates who work hard to position themselves in the favor of the Jewish lobby.

JEWISH BACKED CANDIDATES IN THE 2012 ELECTION

Mitt Romney is backed financially by two groups: Republican Jews and Mormons. In September 2011, Philip Rosen, former national chairman of American Friends of Likud, hosted a $10,000 per head fundraiser dinner for Romney. There are two prominent American Jews on Romney's foreign policy team, Eliot Cohen, former defense policy advisory board member, and Dan Senor, former spokesman for the Coalition Provisional Authority in Iraq.

With the exception of Sheldon Adelson, there are very few Jewish backers of Newt Gingrich, while Romney has a string of wealthy Jewish supporters.

It is extremely interesting that Kenneth S. Abramowitz, an American Jew, general partner at the venture capital firm NGN-Capital and current national chairman of American Friends of Likud, has given the maximum allowable amount to Gingrich's campaign, but has also given the maximum amount to the Romney and Perry campaigns.

A big power broker in the Republican Party is another American Jew named Fred S. Zeidman.¹¹ In an interview last year he made the following statement: "I love Newt, but I committed to Mitt a year ago. If I had any qualms at all about Romney's sincerity with respect to support for Israel, I wouldn't have signed up in the first place."¹²

Newt Gingrich has a foreign policy team which will appeal to American Jews since there are two prominent right-wing American Jews on the team, David Wurmser, the former Middle East adviser to Vice President Dick Cheney (2003-2007) and Ilan Berman, editor of a journal published by the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs which is a right-wing Israel focused think tank.

The conclusion we can draw from the information presented is that it doesn't matter to the American Jewish leadership if Mitt Romney or Newt Gingrich becomes president since both are controlled by Jewish handlers and have pledged their unflinching support for the State of Israel.

Senator Rick Santorum is a Roman Catholic but he is firmly loyal to the State of Israel. DEBKAfile is an Israeli intelligence briefing that sent the following letter from Santorum:

Dear Patriot:

I am sick of watching President Obama give the cold shoulder to Israel. I am disgusted by the way he has abandoned our friends in the Middle East and handed over former allies to militant Jihadists who hate America. As president, I will put an end to this...

A radical Iranian government that has the stated goal of seeing Israel destroyed is on the verge of having a nuclear weapon. They want to see Israel wiped off the map. They see America as the 'Great Satan.' And they will not rest until we have been destroyed. I want to stop them...

You have to understand though that it's Now or Never to protect Israel. We don't have any time to wait. New Hampshire primary is in 6 days. South Carolina's all important primary happens about a week after that. We can either unite now or have the GOP establishment choose another weak moderate Republican who will lose to Barack Obama in November...

We simply cannot allow that to happen. The future and safety of Israel may depend on it. My name is Rick Santorum, and there will be no greater friend of Israel than me, as President. When I am in the White House, this will be clear; Israel is safe as long as I'm on the job. And terrorists like Iran should be afraid, every single day...

My record of standing with Israel is second to none. I am a conservative in the mold of Ronald Reagan. Like President Reagan, I will defend Israel every single day that I am on the job. I am not just talking here: As a Senator, I passed legislation that protected America from Iran's growing nuclear threat. If you want a President who will stand up for Israel, who will defend our friends in the Middle East and stare down our enemies, then I need you to join my campaign.

I need you to join me today. Right now. Not tomorrow or next week. If we are going to win this race, I need your support. The future of our country and possibly the very existence of the state of Israel depends on what folks like you do in the next 72 hours." ¹³

This letter was sent out to American Jewish voters and was never intended to be shown to non-Jewish Americans. Reading this letter it gives the impression that Senator Santorum is not running for President of the United States, but of Israel. Santorum is not lying about his strong feelings for the State of Israel. In 2003, he started to push a bill that would cut funding for American universities where professors or students criticized Israel in class or open forums. Well funded Jewish lobbyists worked hard with Santorum to get this bill on the Senate floor under Title IX of the Higher Education Act.

Santorum proposed in this bill that it was anti-Semitic to criticize Israel; however, his statement did not make it into the final version.

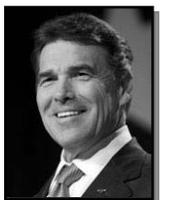

Rupert Murdoch is an Australian born Jew who is a billionaire media mogul and owns News Corporation, the parent company for Fox News, The Wall Street Journal, New York Post and many more newspapers in different nations. On January 2, 2012, he endorsed Santorum for president via Twitter, an online real-time information network, and called the socially conservative Santorum to be the only candidate with genuine big vision for the country.

As far as the American Jewish leaders are concerned, it doesn't matter if the Roman Catholic wins the presidency; Santorum will be their man in the White House.

Former governor Sarah Palin is a regular on Fox News Television, broke rank with Murdoch and issued a statement on January 17, 2012 that she was endorsing Gingrich in the South Carolina primary election. Her husband Todd had previously endorsed Gingrich.

Texas governor Rick Perry has not been doing too well in the primary elections so far and most likely will be forced to drop out. Perry is well aware that he will never be elected if he is not blessed by the Jewish establishment. The Jerusalem Post (JP) stated in an article posted August 15, 2011, that Perry has visited Israel more times than any of the other candidates.¹⁴ The JP was bragging about that in the fall of 2011, eighty one American congressmen are scheduled to visit Israel. The JP is concerned that Perry might be pushing a Christian agenda if he is elected president, but he was defended by Fred Zeidman, who claims to have known Perry for decades and had Perry in his home for dinners on many occasions. Zeidman stated that he does not remember Perry as being quite as devout of a Christian as he seems to be now but this might have been something he could have missed in his meetings with Perry. Zeidman also stated that before he endorsed Romney, he had checked with Perry to see if he was going to run for president, and at that time Perry had said no.

According to the JP, Perry is a devout Methodist who has always been attracted to Israel. When he was elected agriculture commissioner of Texas in 1991, one of his first public acts was to create the Texas-Israel Exchange.

On December 7, 2011, Rick Perry spoke at the 2012 Republican Presidential Candidates Forum in Washington D.C., which was hosted by the Republican Jewish Coalition. Perry told the audience that even if all foreign aid would be cut off as he had proposed in his campaign, Israel would still receive its annual handout of some 6 billion dollars. He said: "America long ago ended the traditional foreign aid to Israel. Strategic defensive aid to Israel is what we will continue to be focused on, and I will assure you one thing: strategic defensive aid, strategic aid in all forms under a Perry administration will increase to Israel. Israel policy is not just a box that I check off for a campaign. It is a very deeply personal issue for me."¹⁵

Perry went so far as to express support for a possible preemptive attack on Iran by Israel. When that happens, there will be an outcry from the nations in the world and it would be important that the U.S. stands firmly with Israel.

Rick Perry must have forgotten about the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, when the Japanese government decided it was prudent to preemptively attack the American fleet at Pearl Harbor in order to safeguard against future attacks by the U.S. on Japan. No American at that time accepted the attack as a legal move by Japan to protect itself; instead, the U.S. reacted to this attack as an act of war and declared war on Japan.

The location of the American embassy in Tel Aviv has been a sore point for the Israeli government as well as for the American Jewish leadership. Since Israel militarily annexed all of East Jerusalem in the 1967 war and proclaimed Jerusalem to be its capitol, the United States has steadfastly refused to move the American embassy to Jerusalem.

At a dinner meeting for American Jews in New York in the month of September, 2011, Perry declared that when he becomes the president, anyone who wants to work for the State Department will have to be prepared to work in Jerusalem. With this statement he inferred that he would move the embassy as soon as he became president. He then told the audience to tell their relatives and friends in Israel that help was on the way.

WHAT ABOUT RON PAUL?

In the January 6, 2012 issue of Forward, there was an article about Ron Paul with the headline, "Impact of Paul's Isolationist Stance on GOP Seen (Mostly) as Limited." Here are some excerpts from this article:

...Once disregarded as marginal and unimportant, Paul, a staunch opponent of American military involvements abroad, is beginning to draw attention. And while no one expects him to win the Republican nomination, his surge is seen as a problem in itself.

Extremists embrace his anti-government views, said Abraham Foxman, national director of the Anti-Defamation League, so at the end, he legitimizes extreme views on U.S. aid to Israel and he legitimizes extreme views that are not only racist and homophobic but also anti-Israel and at times anti-Semitic....

...While Paul's views on domestic and international issues are a source of concern for most in the Jewish community, critics point to his writings from the 1980s and '90s as no less of a problem. A newsletter called The Ron Paul Political Report included recurring extreme racist comments and anti-Israel rhetoric, as well as endorsement of conspiracy theories that Israel was behind the 1993 terror attack on New York's World Trade Center.

Paul's campaign attempted to distance the candidate from his namesake publication, saying he did not write or authorize the articles in it....

...Now, with daily mentions in the press, Ron Paul's surge has Jewish activists edgy....

...The Republican Jewish Coalition refused to invite Paul to a candidates' forum it hosted on December 7. Matt Brooks¹⁶ explained that Paul was left out because he was 'outside the mainstream.' Democrats dismissed this gesture as insufficient, David Harris, president and CEO of the National Jewish Democratic Council, called on the Jewish Republicans to speak more forcefully against Paul, whom he called a "clear and present danger."

"...They (the Democrats) are a very clever organization,' responded RJC board member, Ari Fleischer¹⁷. 'Nothing will make them happier than seeing us waste our money on a candidate who isn't going anywhere.'

...while Paul is a 'ferocious isolationist, whose views are a disaster to Israel, there is no chance his candidacy will go much further than Iowa...

...Dissenting from the conventional wisdom, Beinart¹⁸ wrote in a December 27 article in the on-line Daily Beast, "The dominant storyline at the Republican convention will be figuring out how to appease Paul sufficiently to ensure that he doesn't launch a third party bid. And in so doing, the GOP will legitimize its isolationist wing in a way it hasn't since 9/11."¹⁹

Ron Paul is the only "horse" in the presidency race that is not controlled by the American Jewish leaders but they believe he will never become the president, let alone become the Republican candidate in the 2012 race, however, they are worried and concerned that his ideas will spread to voters in the Republican Party which can possibly cause damage to the program run by the American Jewish leadership. Ron Paul is a liability to the Jewish Republicans, while he is considered a godsend by the Democrats. Large numbers of Republicans will be fed up with the party after the convention, particularly Tea Party members. If Ron Paul is not on the ballot, they might do a write-in campaign and every vote for Ron Paul will be a vote taken away from the Republican candidate and a bonus to Barack Obama.

THE CANDIDATES THAT QUIT

The most well known candidate to quit was Herman Cain, the black American businessman. Cain had not been associated with American Jewish leaders and was considered unfit according to Jewish standards. Cain had several skeletons in his closet from adulterous relationships with women. Once he began to surge in the polls, the American Jewish controlled media dug up his past and on December 3, 2011 he announced that he was no longer in the race to become president.

Several leading conservative newspapers and republican leaders encouraged Congresswoman Michele Bachman to get out of the presidential race after trailing badly behind the other candidates. She also attended the same meeting as Perry of the Republican Jewish Coalition 2012 Presidential Candidates Forum, but spoke very briefly. She told the audience that when she was 18 years old she moved to Israel and worked on a Kibbutz.²⁰ She told the Jewish audience that once she had been elected president, her first foreign trip as the president would be to Israel where she hoped to deliver a speech at the Knesset (Israeli parliament). She also stated that on the day she was inaugurated as president, she would order the American embassy in Tel Aviv to be moved to Jerusalem but she withdrew from the race on January 4, 2012.

Former Governor Jon Huntsman of Utah tried to attack Romney, even though both of them belong to the Mormon Church. Huntsman served as a Mormon missionary to Taiwan when he was in his 20's doing the normal two year program. Despite being a Republican, he accepted Barack Obama's nomination to become ambassador to China in 2009. He did not have an extensive connection with the American Jewish leadership and therefore did not receive much financial backing and withdrew from the race on January 16, 2012.

Former Governor Gary Johnson of New Mexico withdrew from the race on December 28, 2011.

Former Governor Tim Pawlenty of Minnesota withdrew from the race on August 14, 2011.

Governor Rick Perry of Texas withdrew from the race on January 19, 2012.

ROMNEY & THE MORMON CONNECTION

I lived in Salt Lake City, Utah from 1963 to 1969 and had many encounters with Mormons. I worked for the Utah State Highway Department and had many friends who were either in the Utah National Guard or the Army and Air Force Reserves. From time to time some of them would be gone for a while when they were on a mission. These were young men who were dedicated to the Mormon Church but they were also fierce patriots. Many times I heard them talk about a prophecy given to Joseph Smith, that in the end times the United States would be in great danger and forces from Utah would come to rescue the nation. They believed that this was a true prophecy and that the Mormon Church and the Utah National Guard would be the force that would march on Washington D.C. and rescue the nation.

Glen Beck has hinted many times that Barack Obama is destroying the Constitution that it is now hanging by a thread. As a Mormon he has been taught this doctrine about saving the United States, and when I heard this and remembered what I heard when I lived in Utah, I decided to look into this and here is what I found out. The prophecy is known in Mormon circles as “The White Horse Prophecy.” Two of Joseph Smith’s followers heard him speak of this in 1843 but it was not written down until the 1850’s. With the death of Joseph Smith in 1844, the movement was split and the son and widow of Joseph Smith went to Missouri, while the very militant Brigham Young led his group out west and came to Salt Lake City. In 1855, Brigham Young created the official version of the prophecy which read: “When the Constitution of the United States hangs, as it were, upon a single thread, they [the American citizens] will have to call for the Mormon Elders to save it from utter destruction; and they will step forth and do it.”

Beck began to speak about this prophecy shortly after the last presidential election. On November 14, 2008, he told Bill O’Reilly on that he felt the Constitution was hanging in the balance, it was hanging by a thread and that the American people needed to wake up.

On November 8, 2008 the people in California voted with a great majority to pass what was called “Proposition 8,” which stated that marriage is between one man and one woman. The moving power behind this campaign came from the Ladder Day Saints (LDS) in Salt Lake City. The Mormon hierarchy made sure that all the stakes²¹ in California were activated and there was ample funding for the petition to be passed. As Christians we are elated that this proposition passed but it could not have been done without the Mormons and the Roman Catholic Church.

Is it possible that the LDS leadership in Salt Lake City has determined that this is the moment Joseph Smith prophesied about and Mitt Romney is the man to lead the charge of saving the Constitution? After all, Mitt Romney has served as a Mormon Bishop for a stake and he is a qualified Mormon elder.

WHAT ABOUT BARACK OBAMA?

According to an article in the American Jewish newspaper, “Forward,” in December 23, 2011, top Jewish fundraisers from President Obama’s 2008 campaign are staying with him but he has lost some of his Jewish staff. Obama’s main Jewish handlers who set the policies when he took office have left him. The first one to leave was White House Chief of Staff Rahm Emanuel, on October 1, 2010, when he moved back to Chicago and ran for the mayor’s office. Even though he had not legally resided in Chicago, a judge ruled in his favor, and he won with the help of the Chicago Jewish Democratic “machine.” Senior White House Advisor David Axelrod also resigned on January 28, 2011 and moved back to Chicago.

But it was the resignation of the American Jew, Dennis Ross, from the National Security Office (NSO), that indicated that the American Jews were putting pressure on Obama and signaling that they were not happy with his performance in the White House. Here is an excerpt:

The abrupt resignation, late last week, of the Obama Administration’s senior Middle East adviser Dennis Ross poses more of a problem for the President’s reelection campaign than it does for prospects of securing peace between Israel and the ²¹ The word “stake” is used by Mormons to identify a territory with a Mormon church building as the center for all Mormons living in this territory.

Palestinians. The ‘peace process,’ after all, has long been dead; President Obama’s Special Envoy Sen. George Mitchell’s resignation last May suggesting he saw no good purpose served by pretending otherwise. And nobody in the Middle East – or anywhere else – believed that it could be revived by Ross, whose signature approach is to avoid the U.S. pressuring Israel to take steps its government is unwilling to take.”

(It’s precisely the absence of such pressure that prompted the Palestinians to walk away from U.S. peace efforts and go to the U.N.) But the Israeli-Palestinian issue wasn’t Ross’ priority concern on joining the Obama Administration, and it’s unlikely to have been a major determinant of his decision to quit.

The significance of Ross abandoning Obama was quickly grasped by hawkish Israel advocates in Washington, such as former Bush Administration Middle East point-man Elliott Abrams. Writing on his blog at the Council on Foreign Relations, Abrams noted:

With the diplomacy frozen, Ross’s departure is not a diplomatic problem for the White House; it is instead a problem for the Obama re-election campaign. For Ross was the only official in whom most American Jewish leaders had confidence... [viewing] his role as the assurance that a steady, experienced, pro-Israel hand was on or near the tiller... He was the person to whom they reached out, or who reached out to them and comforted them [when they expressed anxiety over the Administration’s handling of Israel] ; he explained that things were not so bad really and that the President really cared about all this and had the warmest concern about Israel. No one else in this administration can now fill that role, as the President enters an election year with a powerful need to maintain the 78 percent support he had last time in the Jewish community.

Abrams is clearly onto something: It was not Ross’ (decidedly mixed) diplomatic track record that first prompted Team Obama to bring him on board. After all, there was no diplomacy to be done when Ross was hired in the summer of 2008 to help get candidate Obama elected. He was named as a foreign policy adviser to the campaign at a moment when some senior figures in the pro-Israel establishment were expressing unease over the extent of Obama’s commitment to Israel. A quick survey of comments in the Jewish communal press from 2008 underscores Abrams’ claim that the involvement of Ross – who, after serving as the Clinton Administration’s Mideast Special Envoy, had headed up the Washington Institute for Near East Policy (WINEP), a hawkish pro-Israel think-tank created in 1985 by the flagship Israel lobbying organization AIPAC (America Israel Public Affairs Committee) – was viewed by many as a kind of pro-Israel “kosher certificate” for the Obama campaign.”²²

There have been reports that Obama has lost Jewish funders due to his Middle East policies, but when the newspaper, “Forward,” analysed a list of elite bundlers²³ from the election campaign in the 2008 race, it showed that most of them were still staying with Obama in December 2011. Forward went on to say that they do not support Obama and are only reporting what is happening in the Jewish American community.

According to “Forward,” Republican affiliated groups like the Emergency Committee for Israel and the Republican Jewish Coalition have been working hard to drive a wedge between American Jews and Obama over Israel and Iran.

Alan Solov, a former chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Organizations, who is also a major Obama fundraiser, claims that the support for Obama is still there. But nine of the top fundraisers for Obama are not able to raise funds this time since they have been appointed ambassadors by Obama to different nations and federal employees are prohibited to raise money for political candidates. ²⁵ Another Jewish top bundler for Obama, Julius Genachoski, was appointed chairman of the Federal Communication Commission (FCC) on June 29, 2008, and can no longer raise funds for Obama. ²⁶

A JEWISH SUPER PAC AGAINST OBAMA

The Emergency Committee for Israel (ECI) recently accused Barack Obama of having a “blame Israel first” policy in full page media ads in the United States. This group of Jews is very upset with Obama over his policies in the Middle East, specifically with the aspect of statehood for the Palestinians. As a result ECI formed a Super PAC in July 2010 to go after Obama in the general election of 2012.

William Kristol, an American Jew, is the guiding hand behind this Super PAC. He was the Chief of Staff for Vice President Dan Quale from 1989-1993 and is currently a political commentator on Fox News and was a supporter of Sarah Palin, when she was the vice-presidential running mate of John McCain in the 2008 election. Other board members are Gary Bauer, a Christian evangelical and Rachel Abrams, the wife of Elliott Abrams, who was a player in the Iran/Contra affair during the Reagan presidency, served as National Security Advisor for President George W. Bush 2005-2009. The group’s executive director is Noah Pollak, a former editor of the Jewish journal, “Azure.”

William Kristol

Bob Turner

Here is an interesting note: ECI’s Super PAC spent $25,000 on the distribution of a flyer for the Republican candidate, Bob Turner, who was running in a special election to replace the disgraced Jewish congressman Anthony Weiner, who invoked the wrath of the American Jewish leadership and became a liability for the Democratic Party. Weiner lost the election in a New York precinct that never had voted in a Republican and the majority of people living in this precinct are Jewish.

In the 2008 election, 78% of the American Jews voted for Obama.

SUMMARY

Aside from a wild card like Ron Paul, there are Jewish handlers controlling Rick Santorum, Mitt Romney and Newt Gingrich; these are the three “horses” left in the Republican primary elections. History has shown us that the World Government prefers corrupt and immoral political leaders because they are easier to control through blackmail. Rick Santorum is married, and as a Catholic he has been devoted to his wife and their seven children.

Mitt Romney is a practicing Mormon who is married with five sons. The Mormon doctrine teaches that if a Mormon man has been married to a woman that was a virgin at the time of marriage, and that their marriage was solemnized in a Mormon temple, that man would become a god in the next life. It is highly unlikely that Romney would mess up his future aspiration to become a god and thus his marriage is solid.

As the Jewish leadership looks at these three men my guess is that they would prefer Gingrich since he is known to have a problem with women just like Bill Clinton did. Gingrich was born 1943 and was raised a Lutheran. He became a Southern Baptist during his college years and converted to Roman Catholicism in 2009. He has been married three times, and committed adultery during the first two marriages. When Gingrich was part of the congressional investigation into the Monica Lewinsky affair by President Bill Clinton, he was simultaneously involved in sex outside marriage. If he is chosen as the Republican candidate, he will be facing Obama. It is like an owner of two horses, each horse having its own handlers. As far as the owner is concerned, it doesn't matter which horse wins since he owns them both, but each team will be competing against the other and that could cause a nasty fight.

The people watching the race are deceived into believing this is a genuine competition and are lured to place bets on the horses, not knowing that the race is rigged and they will lose their money. The Jewish leadership will be happy as long as they control both teams in the coming election charade to dupe the American people. As of January 14, 2012, they have lined up the following Christian leaders to back Gingrich:

- ❖ Pastor Tim LaHaye, a Southern Baptist and the author of the “Left Behind” series. He has been appointed national co-chair in the Gingrich Faith Leaders Coalition.

- ❖ George Barna, Christian marketing and research
- ❖ Dr. Jim Garlow, a California pastor who worked for Proposition 8
- ❖ Congressman J.C. Watts
- ❖ Don Wildmon of the American Family Association
- ❖ Mat Staver, founder and chairman of Liberty Counsel

WHAT ABOUT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE?

As far as the Jewish American leadership is concerned, the American people are irrelevant. What is important is that the Jewish dream of a world messiah will be implemented, and in order for this to happen, the Jews must have a secure Israel with its capitol of Jerusalem. The American people are peons, laborers and what the Communists coined, “useful idiots.” We are to work and pay taxes, furnish soldiers who will fight the wars for Israel, supply young women and men for the television and movie productions and not to question the moral views held by the Jewish elite.

Since the Jewish leadership controls the media, finances, healthcare industry, pharmaceutical industry and the U.S. government, ordinary Americans have no voice. There are no national pastors who dare to speak out. Billy Graham was bought many years ago and I certainly don't expect Bill Hybels or Rick Warren to rock the boat. All the Christian television and radio networks are in the control of Christian Zionists. America and the world have been sold into slavery to a group of people who have mastered the control of the world.

There is only one hope and that is a national revival. The Tea Party will not be able to save our nation nor will an armed uprising by the people. Only if a number of God's people come together and start to repent on behalf of our nation and seek the Lord is there any hope. Are you willing to repent and seek the Lord? A move of God never starts with a mass of people; it starts with one person at a time. You are the key!

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.” (2 Chronicles 7:14)

As believers in Christ we have lost the knowledge that God is working in the supernatural, and when we see things on earth that are impossible to fix in the natural, God can do it in the supernatural. During the reign of King Hezekiah in Jerusalem, the king of Assyria came with a large army and surrounded Jerusalem. He sent a messenger that stood outside the walls of the city and told the people that it was futile to resist and should surrender at once. When the message was brought to Hezekiah, he rent his clothing, covered himself with sackcloth and went to the house of the Lord.

“So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.” (2 Kings 19:5-7)

Then King Hezekiah received a letter from the king of Assyria which contained great threats, so Hezekiah went to the Lord in prayer and said:

“And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. LORD, bow down thine ear, and hear:

open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God. Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.” (2 Kings 19:14-19)

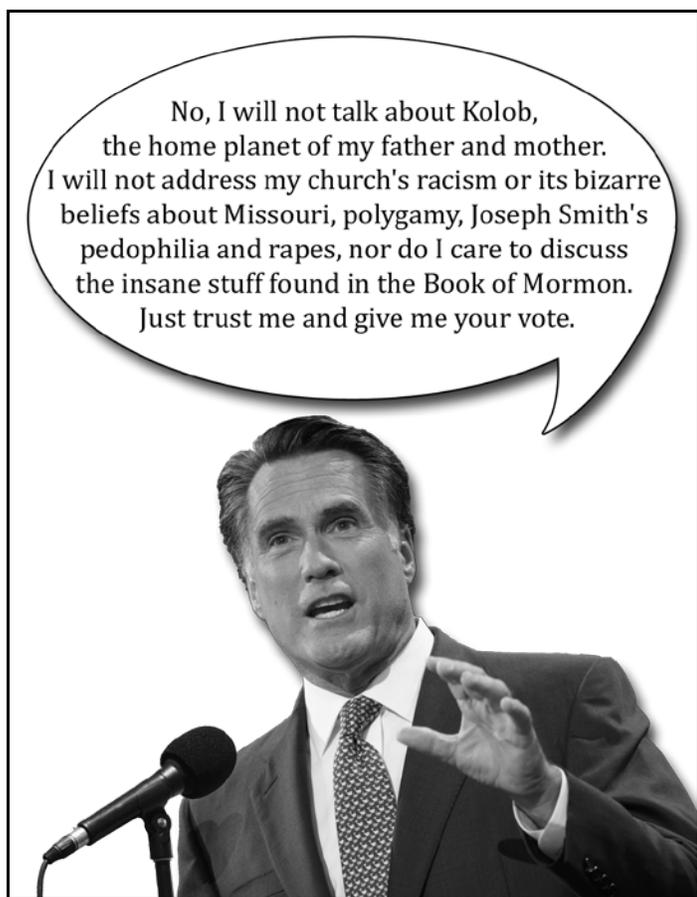

God heard the prayer of Hezekiah and sent a message to the king through the prophet Isaiah:

“For I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.” (2 Kings 19:34-37)

The situation in the United States is looking grim. Our nation has been taken over by evil forces that are working day and night to bring us down and to set the Antichrist on the throne. Hezekiah could do nothing in the flesh but had to rely completely on God. The believers in Christ in the United States are powerless against the forces which have taken over our nation but there is a God and He is able to turn the table on these evil people. Let us pray and repent like Hezekiah did and ask God to clean out the evil men in our nation. God has a commando squad of angels that is fully capable of handling all the evil Satan has assembled. Dear God, lose you're your angels of death and bring justice to all evil men and women in our land, who refuses to accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior:

“He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.”

(Ezekiel 9:1-6)

LORD, DO YOU LOVE ME?

Joe DiCarlo

Encouragement came to me in an unexpected way recently and I'd like to share it with you. I have been going to the courthouse steps recently to attend trustee's sales and acquire properties for a client. There, I've met a man and his son, both of whom facilitate those sales each weekday. John, the father, is also an ordained minister and he and his son, Jim, are Christian men whose devotion to the Lord, passion for the scriptures, and hunger to serve the Lord is exemplary.

The first sale that I attended last November proved to be more than a chance encounter with these two trustee sale "criers" as they are called. God has used people to convey His truth to me many times in my life, but this was more of a "divine appointment." You see, just prior to meeting John and Jim, I had been seeking a specific answer from God concerning a gift of the Holy Spirit that should characterize all believers. I had been asking God to teach me how to experience a deeper love for Him and for my fellow man. Since the first day I met these two men, I've genuinely liked them and enjoyed their lively exchanges about scripture, biblical principles, life experiences, and John's knowledge of the Koine Greek language of the New Testament.

We started going to a local café when time permitted after the trustee sales, and after many interesting exchanges, I decided to share with John my desire for a deeper level of love for God and others. John is one of the most intelligent men I've met in my life, and that doesn't get in the way of his deep love for the Lord and willingness to be used of God as is sometimes the case with those who pursue intellectualism purely for ego gratification. When I expressed this desire, he looked down at the table and said that he was going to share something with me, and when he looked up, I could see that he was quite somber and genuine about whatever he was about to share. "I was taken to Calvary by the Lord," he said. My jaw dropped about a quarter of an inch as I sat momentarily speechless. Finally, I ventured, "You mean the literal event, the one 2,000 years ago?" He nodded. What followed was his true and very personal account of an event in his life so astounding that it left me deeply touched, more than a little stunned, and greatly encouraged about God's willingness to show us His unchanging love in a deeper way.

It turned out that John, too, despite having ministered to others for years, once struggled with having affirmation from the Lord that he was truly loved by God. At the two-year mark of his Christian walk, he desperately needed to know that his Sunday school ministry was something pleasing to God and not merely an example of "faking it." Finally, he was unable to continue without an affirmation to his own burning question: "Lord, do You love me?" He told me of the day that he was driving his car on Highway 49, weeping and praying fervently that the Lord would answer that ache that we all feel at times to know God's love for us. "I was driving one second at Hwy 80 near Auburn, and the next second I was at Calvary" he said. "I was given a viewpoint just above the crowd's heads. There were many people gathered there that day, and there was fine dust in the air where I stood very close to the cross on which Jesus was hanging." My jaw dropped another quarter of an inch as I whispered a couple of words that came to me that our Lord spoke concerning that day: "I thirst." He continued: "All of the pictures or other renditions of Jesus Christ you've ever seen, including Mel Gibson's movie depiction...none of them are even close. The crown of thorns were cruel and pushed deeply into his flesh. Every inch of his body was covered in blood except for his fingertips and his eyes."

I immediately thought of the testimony of little Colton Burpo in his book, "Heaven is for Real," that a recent musical guest at our church, Jim Miller, shared with us. It seems that little Colton was most enraptured with Jesus' eyes in his description of our Lord. Despite the fact that my throat was tightening and tears were starting to well in both my eyes and John's, I somehow managed to ask him what the Lord's eyes looked like. He responded: "He looked at me...no...He looked in me." John was silent for a few seconds, obviously once again experiencing that life changing moment as though it had just happened. Regaining his voice, he continued: "I found myself driving again and had to pull over. I had only been a few minutes at the place where Christ was being crucified, but when I looked around, I was now in Truckee, which should have taken an hour and a half to drive. I've never doubted His love for me since that day. Nobody can ever convince me that Jesus Christ doesn't love me."

The connections that God makes personally, even indirectly among His children using testimonies such as John's, shatters all human barriers born of pretentiousness, embarrassment, pride, and other sins that seek to stand between the Lord and His love for His children. This newly acquainted brother in the Lord did more for me that morning that he may ever know as Jesus spoke through his testimony to me of God's love. I have shared it with you in the hope that encouragement might come to all who hear of this great gift that was given to a humble pastor in a small town.

I won't attempt to qualify or compare his testimony with reminders of how Jesus appeared to the disciples on the road to Emmaus (Did not our hearts burn within us) or of how Paul was transported (whether in the body or out, I know not) to the third heaven because I'm convinced that what this dear brother of mine experienced and had the courage to share with me was genuinely of God, and I know that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He can reveal himself to anyone He chooses, and in any way that He chooses to do so.

May God bless you richly as you seek a deeper love for Him and others. It is clearer than ever why His greatest commandments are that you should love the Lord your God and that you should love your neighbor as yourself.

ARE YOU SPIRITUALLY DEAD?

Louise Carter

One morning I found a newspaper
Slipped through a crack in my door,
It was completely different
Than any I'd seen before.

I just couldn't help but weep,
So many names of those I loved.
Who now had fallen asleep.

I slowly read each page again;
Was there anyone I did miss?
And there to my surprise
My name was on the list.

Now, someone please tell me
Who would do such a thing?
I was totally shocked
When I read my name.

I read it over once again
And then I read it twice,
What a strange feeling swept over me
The author was Jesus Christ!

Then I read the piece at the end of the page
And I trembled at what he said.
You may still be among the living
But you are spiritually dead.

How long has it been since my words thrilled you?
How long since you praised my name?
You can be alive to the sounds of the world
Believe me it isn't the same.

How long has it been since you fell to your knees
And prayed 'til the answer came through,
And that saved so close to the gates of hell
Can he really depend on you?

I've carried you through many a trial
So heed the words I've said,
The world is a lost and lonely place
If you are spiritually dead.

Christian Dynamics Course 1

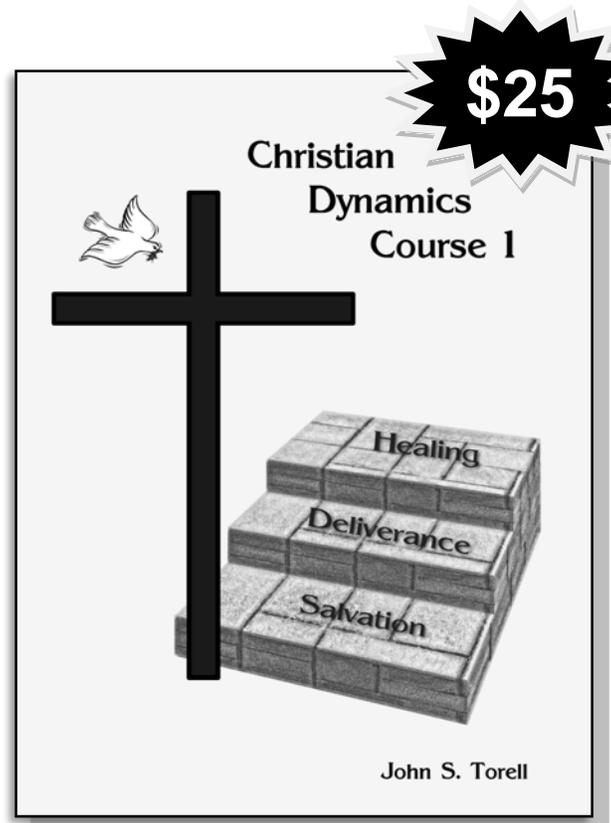

Salvation, Deliverance & Healing

"My husband has locked himself in the bathroom and is going to kill himself!" These were the frantic words spoken by a friend named Glenda as I was ready to enter a Southern Baptist Church on a Sunday morning in 1970 in San Rafael, California. My heart almost stopped as I heard these words because Jim was the worship leader in the church and a staff member at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary where I was a first year student. They were really good friends to my wife and I and now he was going to kill himself? As a young Christian, I knew very little about spiritual warfare and wondered how I could save my friend.

I rushed over to Jim and Glenda's apartment and found to my great joy that Jim was still alive but very distraught. I told him about a book I had just read about demons and asked him to come with me to my apartment to get the book so he could read it and get some help. Jim grabbed me in a bear hug when we arrived at my apartment and said he was not leaving until I had cast out the demons in him. I was shocked since all I had ever done was read a book about it. As we knelt in front of a couch and called upon the Lord, I was again stunned when Jim lifted the couch in the air and foam came out of his mouth. There was no time for fear so I began to command the demons to leave. Jim collapsed on the floor after a fierce battle and I thought he was dead. I laid my hands on him and as I prayed the Holy Spirit fell on him and he got up and screamed, "Praise God, I am free!"

This is how I was thrust into a deliverance ministry. I purchased every book I could find on demons and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. As my wife and I prayed for people, our skill level increased and so did the anointing from God. During our travels we ran into Satan worshippers, learned about the world government and for the next 40 years I have recorded what I learned. This practical handbook is the culmination of my life's work and will give you a solid understanding of salvation, how to pray for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and how to have a close relationship with God the Father and His Son, Jesus. You will also learn the blessings God has for those who obey His Word and the curses that come upon those who disobey it. You will learn the difference between demon possession and oppression and how to handle demonic problems. In short, this book is the manual that I never had.

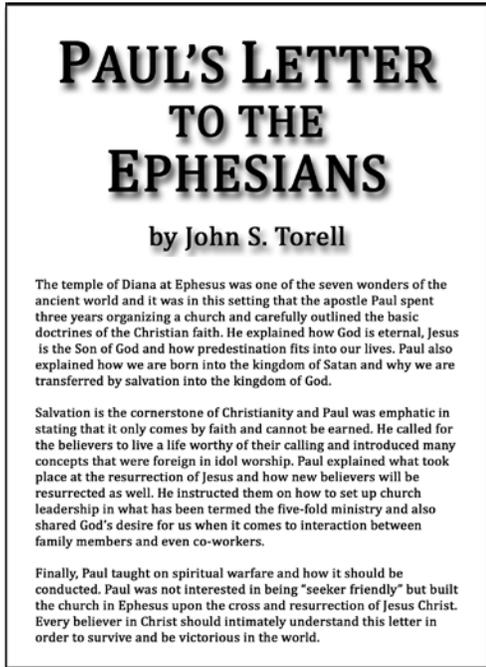

Thousands of people over the years have had their lives changed as they moved from defeat to victory and the same can happen for you!

PAUL'S LETTER TO THE EPHESIANS

NEW SERMON SERIES FROM PASTOR JOHN S. TORELL
FEATURING 10 MESSAGES ON PAUL'S LETTER TO THE EPHESIANS

See the back page for ordering details.

The people in Ephesus had converted to Christ from the worship of Diana and the apostle Paul was concerned with how the new Christians were going to live in a decadent pagan society. The temple of Diana was one of the seven wonders of the ancient world and it was in this setting that the Paul spent three years organizing a church and carefully outlined the basic doctrines of the Christian faith. He explained how God is eternal, Jesus is the Son of God and how predestination fits into our lives. Paul also explained how we are born into the kingdom of Satan and why we are transferred by salvation into the kingdom of God.

Salvation is the cornerstone of Christianity and Paul was emphatic in stating that it only comes by faith and cannot be earned. He called for the believers to live a life worthy of their calling and introduced many concepts that were foreign in idol worship. Paul explained what took place at the resurrection of Jesus and how new believers will be resurrected as well. He instructed them on how to set up church leadership in what has been termed the five-fold ministry and also shared God's desire for us when it comes to interaction between family members and co-workers.

Finally, Paul taught on spiritual warfare and how it should be conducted. He was not interested in being "seeker friendly" but built the church in Ephesus upon the cross and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Every believer in Christ should intimately understand this letter in order to survive and be victorious in the world.

THE KABALLAH BOOKLETS

Have you ever wondered what motivates the people who make up the World Government? What religion do they embrace? This is important because religion is a foundational building block behind every political movement. It is true of Communism, Nazism and Fascism. Do you know that all three of these violent movements have the same religion? Furthermore, it is the same religion that inspired these Satanic movements which is also the religion of the people in the World Government. In this series of booklets you will learn how the diabolical Kaballah was started in the days of Moses, more than five thousand years ago by men who rebelled against God. This secret religion among the twelve tribes of Israel burned like a smoldering fire under the surface and it was King Solomon who fanned the fire some 900 years before Christ and made it into the refined system we see today. As we approach the coming of the Antichrist and the Mark of the Beast, it should be of utmost importance to know about the religion of this coming world dictator. This series will teach you the following:

- What Kaballists believe
- Who is their god?
- The plans and goal of this god
- How the Kaballah already affects many aspects of your life

The knowledge you gain about this evil religion will help you resist the Mark of the Beast and the oppression that is going to come on this earth.

THE KABALLAH - Book 1: Sabbatai Sevi

Sabbatai Sevi proclaimed to be the messiah in the year 1666, but unlike Jesus, he lived an immoral life, and the Kabbalah teaches that through his sinful life and death through sickness, he opened the door for salvation for them that believe on him. Striving to live a sinful life is not the nature of God, but of the Devil, and the complete opposite of what the Bible teaches of Jesus, who was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and died on the cross for our sins.

The messiah concept found in the Kabbalah is actually “Satan’s gospel” and the core belief of the people in charge of the coming World Government. If you don’t understand this concept, you will be deceived by the Antichrist system and might even be assured to take the Mark of the Beast by apostate church leaders and the media.

THE KABALLAH - Book 2: Jacob Frank

For thousands of years people believed the earth was flat and the center of the universe, and anyone who challenged these assumptions was arrested, tried and put to death by the Roman Catholic Church. So what happens today when someone makes an assertion that is considered anti-Semitic but can be proven otherwise? Few Gentiles know about a Jew named Jacob Frank in the 18th century who was deeply educated in the Kabbalah and believed he was the reincarnation of Sabbatai Sevi. He believed in nihilism and advocated overthrowing every national government, executing every king and eradicating every trace of Christianity. He strove to destroy God's laws and lived in total sin.

While Frank was never able to put his revolutionary ideas into practice, his writings did become the foundation for the scourges of Communism, Nazism and Fascism and someday they will also be used by the Antichrist. The millions that were killed during the Second World War and the communist takeovers of Russia, China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Cuba are a direct result of Frank's writings. Their blood cries out for truth concerning this demonized man so that so that future generations can be warned about this hellish future.

THE KABALLAH - Book 3: The Rothschild Family

A successful revolution requires a lot of money, but when the goal is to subdue the world and put it under a dictatorship, entire financial systems must be taken over. The Kabbalistic leadership wants to take dominion of the earth and rule it with their messiah and they need to control the banking system to achieve this objective. The Fugger family was promoted in the 14th century but they did not protect their wealth. Jewish traders became very wealthy during the next two centuries as they operated in all nations and supplied warring armies but there was no centralized control that could be projected over the banking systems of different nations.

Meyer Amschel was selected to be the founding father of a global banking family. He was sly and deceitful and intensely loyal to the Jewish cause that is spelled out in the Talmud and the Kabbalah. The Kabbalistic leadership invested funds and coins which Amschel used to build a fairly strong banking house in Frankfurt and his five sons proved to be more shrewd than their father. In less than 50 years the Rothschild family had penetrated the financial markets in Austria, Germany, France, England, Italy and Spain. This is the story of the Rothschild's, who through the Kabbalistic leadership were able to set the policies in these nations and achieve a monopoly that is unrivaled today.

THE KABALLAH - Book 4: The Stealth Takeover of the United States

The Kabbalistic Jews learned through the Rothschild takeover of the European banking system to disguise themselves and find Gentiles who are willing to do their bidding. Another lesson they learned was that it is impossible for any nation or group of people to take control of the world through military power. The only way to succeed is to take control of the different nations monetary systems and forge them into a global banking and trade system. Once this has been achieved, food is the ultimate weapon since no one can live without it.

The stealth takeover of the United States was done by Gentile businessmen, lawyers, elected political leaders, educators, Christian ministers and military commanders who were willing to carry out orders that included shooting on the American people to make them comply. This book takes you from 1828 until 1907 and shows the treason, sellouts and the rape of the American people that were carried out in such a remarkable way that no one could resist it and survive.

God was also carrying out a parallel program through D.L. Moody and R.A. Torrey, who were used to bring millions of people in the United States and England to Christ and hindered the ultimate goal of the Jewish world leaders of ushering in their new world order. Ironically, the same tactics employed more than a hundred years ago are still being foisted upon us today and the old adage is still true that those who don't know their history are doomed to repeat it.

BILL CHACON

Reality

One night in Vietnam under a Saturday sky, lit up with incoming rockets near my compound, I felt my life could end at any minute. I looked up at the lonely foreign sky feeling thousands of miles from my loved ones and cried out to God that I would seek and serve Him if He got me through Vietnam.

God kept His side of the bargain but I didn't. I came home safe and sound and pursued my dreams. I received a bronze star on my departure from the army. I graduated with a college degree. And I was honored by meeting Elvis Presley and working as one of his security guards, all of which I never dreamed possible.

However, nothing seemed fulfilling to me, especially when I came close to Sunny West, Elvis' personal bodyguard. He told me about all the Cadillac's and gifts from Elvis, yet no one in his organization seemed happy. As a matter of fact, even Elvis, who had achieved fame and fortune seemed miserable!

I would lay at night and ask God, "What's life all about? Are you even there?" The following songs are testimonies of my struggles to find happiness and fulfillment and purpose in my life. This only happened when I realized God was there all the time, waiting for me to come to the "reality" of His love and saving grace, which come to us through His death on the cross.

The "reality" is that Jesus Christ is real and I could never earn God's love by anything I tried to do. I simply had to accept His gift. My prayer is that I can give back something to Him through these songs, small as that is, for all He has given me and that others may find Him to be "reality" too because God's gift is for all who will receive it.

THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIANITY

John S. Torell

The average Christian is not familiar with their Bible and possesses almost no historical knowledge regarding the birth of Christianity because most churches in the United States emphasize contemporary worship, a short sermonette and lots of social activities. This series of messages will educate you about the struggle that the early church faced in breaking away from Judaism.

The Talmud was so deeply ingrained in the apostles that they ignored the words of Jesus to evangelize the whole world because Gentiles were considered unclean and likened to animals. It would take some time before the church leaders finally lined up with their departed Master and understood that the Second Covenant is for the Jews and Gentiles alike.

But this didn't put a stop to misunderstandings about circumcision and what parts of the God's law applied to the Gentiles who were ignorant of the Old Testament and didn't have access to the scrolls in the synagogues.

Eventually it became necessary to hold a special conference in Jerusalem and straighten out what should be done with the Christian Gentiles. Their ruling was man's attempt to solve a spiritual problem in the flesh and it would be years later before the doctrine of the Christian church was finally written that corrected the errors from this conference and established the Christian faith.

THE STRECKER MEMORANDUM

Dr. Robert Strecker refutes, with documented evidence, virtually everything the so-called experts and Government reports have told you about AIDS. He asserts in no uncertain terms that AIDS is a man-made disease, AIDS is not a homosexual disease, AIDS is not a venereal disease, AIDS can be carried by mosquitos, and there can never be a vaccine. Dr. Strecker shows how AIDS was predicted, requested, created, deployed and works very well!

Although decades have passed and untold billions have been spent in research, cancer is still with us, the second major cause of death in America. The most dreaded fear that all oncologists, virologists and immunologists live with is that someday cancer in one form or another will become a contagious disease, transferable from one person to another.

AIDS has now made that fear a reality, and if you think you're safe because you're not gay or promiscuous, or because you're not sexually active, then you had better watch this video very carefully until you fully understand what Dr. Strecker is telling you as he takes you step by step and shows you how this dreaded disease was actually man-made. Condoms can't prevent it and there won't ever be a vaccine.

Dr. Robert B. Strecker practices internal medicine and gastroenterology; he is a trained pathologist and holds a Ph.D. in pharmacology. Dr. Strecker and his brother, Ted, were preparing a proposal for a health maintenance organization (HMO) for the Security Pacific Bank of California. They needed to know the long-term financial effects of insuring the treatment of AIDS patients. In as much as this information was not readily available in 1983, both brothers began researching the medical literature to learn what they could about this relatively new disease. The information they uncovered was so startling and hard to believe that it would dramatically alter both their lives and lead them on a five-year quest culminating with the creation of The Strecker Memorandum video.
