We are a Bible centered group of believers desiring to grow in the full knowledge of Jesus Christ without compromise to His Word.

"If sinners will be damned, at least let them leap to hell over our bodies. And if they will perish, let them perish with our arms around their knees, imploring them to stay. If hell must be filled, at least let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let not one go there unwarned and unprayed for."

DO YOUR EMOTIONS RULE YOU?

Dear Friends,

The Holy Spirit was recently instructing me about emotions and how they affect my life. The Bible instructs us to worship God alone and to have no other gods before us. This is not a commandment to keep us down but has been put in place for our protection. Imagine if a person would say, "I am the boss of you and you shall have no other bosses," that would just be out of order and we wouldn't accept it. It is not for humans to be that way, but God is in charge, so He says that to us and He certainly deserves our worship and devotion. However, this first commandment was put in place for our protection in the light of the emotions we experience and the fact that we sometimes let them rule over us.

We all have emotions and for some, they can get really out of control. God has told us that when our emotions are placed in Him, we will be protected from damage in that area. We will not be disappointed at all because we will be protected from hurt by other people. It may hurt a little on the surface but it won't devastate us because our hope is poured into Him because He is our one love. As a result, nothing can disappoint or move us.

"The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies."
(Psalms 18:2-3)

That is how faith is moved when we live in that realm of complete devotion and trust in Jesus. Faith moves because we are completely devoted and are not double minded. Being double minded means we have some fear on the edge because we have other projects going on that we want fulfilled. We have to check ourselves and make sure that our emotions and devotion are completely on the one God who deserves all that worship. So if we have a little fear on the edge, or if we have our own projects, we need to just die to those and focus on the Lord. It's one thing to say that I'm not going to do that anymore but we really don't have the power to have the victory in those areas until we put our whole self, love, worship and emotions on the one true God, and then those things will fall away because who wants something less when they can have God!

Blessings in Christ,

Carole West

We are down to just a few weeks before the 2012 American presidential election and the media is doing its best to whip everyone into a frenzy by releasing news polls that show where the candidates stand. Most people don't know this is part of the campaign strategy of the unseen hands behind the candidates to tell the people how to vote. With their massive campaign of polls, the mass media is essentially saying the election is a foregone conclusion because Obama is going to win, so why even bother to vote? The conclusion is that there is no need for Republican voters to show up at the polls.

In 2009, I wrote an extensive article about Barack Obama entitled, "THE OBAMA ELECTION CHARADE" and later that year wrote another article entitled, "THE PERFECT MANCHURIAN CANDIDATE." In February of 2012 I wrote yet another article entitled, "THE ELECTION CHARADE CONTINUES." After reviewing these three articles, I felt there wasn't a whole lot more to say about the 2012 election. Obama and Romney both have Jewish handlers and it doesn't matter to them who wins the race; each candidate is dedicated to the defense of Israel and putting Israeli interests before American interests. They are deeply connected to the banking industry in New York and none of them poses a threat to the tightening control of the American people.

WHO SHOULD A CHRISTIAN VOTE FOR?

Who should a Christian vote for when your choice is devil number one or devil number two? There isn't a whole lot of difference right? Actually, there are differences that do not depend as much upon the candidates as the political parties they represent. There are a large number of born again Christian leaders in the Republican Party with a very small minority in the Democratic Party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

If you want to know the philosophy of any organization you must ask the following questions:

- 1) Who are the leaders in the organization?
- 2) What are the goals of the organization?
- 3) What people group is targeted by the organization?
- 4) Where does the money come from?

Prior to 1815, there were two major political parties in the United States, the Federalists and the Democratic - Republican Party. The Federalist Party ceased to exist after 1815. There was a power struggle in the Democratic-Republican Party in 1824; the end result was that the party split and the group that pulled out unsuccessfully supported Andrew Jackson for president in 1824. The splinter group was more successful in the 1828 presidential election when Andrew Jackson was elected president and the splinter group officially named itself the Democratic Party.

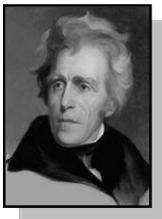

THE ILLUMINATI

Adam Weishaupt sent his agents early to America, and by 1815, most of the freemasonic lodges had been infiltrated by the Illuminati. He was always looking for people that had flawed characters to be recruited by his agents and Andrew Jackson, the 7th President of the United States, was one such man.

At the age of 13 he had been captured by the British and almost died of small pox. His mother and two brothers were killed during the revolutionary war. As a law student in Salisbury, North Carolina, he was known for being a hard drinker who liked to fight and commit vandalism when he was drunk.

He was a politician first in the Tennessee's Constitutional Convention, served briefly in the U.S. Senate and also as a Congressman. After serving as an attorney in 1801, he was able to buy himself a commission in the Tennessee militia and was appointed the rank of colonel. In 1802 he was appointed the rank of major general.

Jackson became a Freemason in 1800 and most likely was recruited by the Illuminati. His deeds as a general and a judge on the Tennessee Supreme Court indicate that he was following the policies of the Illuminati.

He was active as a general during the war of 1812 with the British and repelled an invasion at New Orleans by a British force in 1815. He also fought the Indians with great cruelty and was responsible for the forced removal of large number of Indians from their land. Jackson had a large plantation and owned more than 300 slaves who worked his cotton fields.

As a general, he ordered the execution of numerous of his men for disobeying orders or showing mutinous behavior. Jackson's personal interest was dueling, and he was involved in more than a hundred of them, killing a number of people he challenged. His personal habits were of heavy smoking and drinking.

Jackson was also the president that introduced the "the spoil" system to the federal government, which meant that when a new president took office, all the directors of the different cabinets were fired and the new president brought in his cronies, who in turn could bring in their cronies. This is a guaranteed system to produce corruption that has worked for the last 180 years.

This is the man that the Democrats revere and refer to as the founder of the Democratic Party and set its future policies.

Jackson opened up the Democratic Party for the Illuminati, and if we compare what the Illuminati did in Europe, there is no doubt that these events and policies came from this sinister organization. An op-ed by Jeffrey Lord in The Wall Street Journal on August 13, 2008, reviewed the history of the Democratic Party from around 1840 through 1964 and showed how it has been sanitized to fit the current leadership of the party. This is the history that has been removed:

- There is no reference to the number of Democratic Party platforms supporting slavery. There were six from 1840 through 1860.
- There is no reference to the number of Democratic presidents who owned slaves. There were seven from 1800 through 1861
- There is no reference to the number of Democratic Party platforms that either supported segregation outright or were silent on the subject. There were 20, from 1868 through 1948.
- There is no reference to "Jim Crow" as in "Jim Crow laws," nor is there reference to the role Democrats played in creating them. These were the post-Civil War laws passed enthusiastically by Democrats in that pesky 52-year part of the DNC's missing years. These laws segregated public schools, public transportation, restaurants, rest rooms and public places in general (everything from water coolers to beaches). The reason Rosa Parks became famous is that she sat in the "whites only" front section of a bus, the “whites only” designation which was the direct result of Democrats.

- There is no reference to the formation of the Ku Klux Klan, which, according to Columbia University historian, Eric Foner, became “a military force serving the interests of the Democratic Party.” Nor is there reference to University of North Carolina historian Allen Trelease’s description of the Klan as the “terrorist arm of the Democratic Party.”
- There is no reference to the fact Democrats opposed the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution. The 13th banned slavery. The 14th effectively overturned the infamous 1857 Dred Scott decision (made by Democratic pro-slavery Supreme Court justices) by guaranteeing due process and equal protection to former slaves. The 15th gave black Americans the right to vote.
- There is no reference to the fact that Democrats opposed the Civil Rights Act of 1866. It was passed by the Republican Congress over the veto of President Andrew Johnson, who had been a Democrat before joining Lincoln’s ticket in 1864. The law was designed to provide blacks with the right to own private property, sign contracts, sue and serve as witnesses in a legal proceeding.
- There is no reference to the Democrats’ opposition to the Civil Rights Act of 1875. It was passed by a Republican Congress and signed into law by President Ulysses Grant. The law prohibited racial discrimination in public places and public accommodations.
- There is no reference to the Democrats’ 1904 platform, which devotes a section to “Sectional and Racial Agitation,” claiming the GOP’s protests against segregation and the denial of voting rights to blacks sought to “revive the dead and hateful race and sectional animosities in any part of our common country,” which in turn “means confusion, distraction of business, and the reopening of wounds now happily healed.”

- There is no reference to four Democratic platforms, 1908-20, that are silent on blacks, segregation, lynching and voting rights as racial problems in the country mount. By contrast the GOP platforms of those years specifically addressed “Rights of the Negro” (1908), opposed lynching (in 1912, 1920, 1924, 1928) and, as the New Deal kicked in, spoke out about the dangers of making blacks “wards of the state.”
- There is no reference to the Democratic Convention of 1924, known to history as the “Klanbake.” The 103-ballot convention was held in Madison Square Garden. Hundreds of delegates were members of the Ku Klux Klan, the Klan was so powerful that a plank condemning Klan violence was defeated outright. To celebrate, the Klan staged a rally with 10,000 hooded Klansmen in a New Jersey field directly across the Hudson River from the site of the convention. Attended by hundreds of cheering convention delegates, the rally featured burning crosses and calls for violence against African-Americans and Catholics.
- There is no reference to the fact that it was Democrats who segregated the federal government, at the direction of President Woodrow Wilson upon taking office in 1913. There is a reference to the fact that President Harry Truman integrated the military after World War II.

- There is reference to the fact that Democrats created the Federal Reserve Board, passed labor and child welfare laws, and created Social Security with Wilson's New Freedom and FDR's New Deal. There is no mention that these programs were created as the result of an agreement to ignore segregation and the lynching of blacks. Neither is there a reference to the thousands of local officials, state legislators, state governors, U.S. Congressmen and U.S. Senators who were elected as supporters of slavery and then segregation between 1800 and 1965. Nor is there reference to the deal with the devil that left segregation and lynching as a way of life in return for election support for three post-Civil War Democratic presidents, Grover Cleveland, Woodrow Wilson and Franklin Roosevelt.
- There is no reference that three-fourths of the opposition to the 1964 Civil Rights Bill in the U.S. House came from Democrats, or that 80% of the "nay" vote in the Senate came from Democrats. Certainly there is no reference to the fact that the opposition included future Democratic Senate leader Robert Byrd of West Virginia (a former Klan member) and Tennessee Senator Albert Gore Sr., father of Vice President Al Gore.
- Last but certainly not least, there is no reference to the fact that Birmingham, Ala., Public Safety Commissioner Bull Connor, who infamously unleashed dogs and fire hoses on civil rights protestors, was in fact--yes indeed--a member of both the Democratic National Committee and the Ku Klux Klan.

Reading the DNC's official "Party History" of the Democrats and the race issue and civil rights is not unlike reading, "In Through the Looking Glass:"

" 'When I use a word,' Humpty Dumpty said, in rather a scornful tone, 'it means just what I choose it to mean--neither more nor less.' "

Here's this line from the DNC: "With the election of Harry Truman, Democrats began the fight to bring down the final barriers of race . . ." Truman, of course, was elected in 1948, and to his great credit he did in fact, along with then-Minneapolis Mayor Hubert Humphrey, begin to push the Democrats towards a pro-civil-rights stance. This culminated in the passage of the 1960's civil rights laws legislation that redid what had been done by Republicans a hundred years earlier but undone by the Democrats' support for segregation. But the notion that "Democrats began to bring down the final barriers of race" raises the obvious questions. What were these barriers doing there in the first place? And who exactly was responsible for creating them?

(1) Acknowledges that slavery is incompatible with the basic founding principles recognized in the Declaration of Independence that all men are created equal;

(2) acknowledges the fundamental injustice, cruelty, brutality, and inhumanity of slavery and Jim Crow;

(3) apologizes to African Americans on behalf of the people of the United States, for the wrongs committed against them and their ancestors who suffered under slavery and Jim Crow; and

(4) expresses its commitment to rectify the lingering consequences of the misdeeds committed against African Americans under slavery and Jim Crow and to stop the occurrence of human rights violations in the future.

What word is missing here?

You got it. The word "Democrat." Never mentioned anywhere. As with the DNC website, all these terrible things--somehow, apparently, it seems, so they keep hearing--happened. Ms. Pelosi, Mr. Cohen and their fellow House Democrats just can't understand how. But, you know, whatever. They are sorry. Really.

Are they? Let's take them up on this.

After all those Democratic platforms and conventions that championed slavery and segregation, what do you think the chances are they will use the occasion of Mr. Obama's nomination to have the Democratic platform formally apologize for the active, frequently violent and decidedly official support of the Democratic Party for slavery, segregation, lynching, the Ku Klux Klan and all the rest?

Better yet, do you think they'll pass a resolution promising to use the funds raised from all those Jefferson-Jackson Day fundraisers to pay reparations for slavery? (Did I mention that while the DNC discusses party co-founders Jefferson and Jackson, it neglects to mention that between them the two owned an estimated 360 slaves?)

Will the NAACP and other groups seeking reparations from nongovernmental entities for their role in supporting slavery (companies like Aetna, Wachovia and Chase along with educational institutions like Brown University) finally zero in on the prime historical mover behind some of the worst chapters in American history? Will they sue the Democrats?

The Democrats are poised to nominate a black man for president of the United States. But will they apologize for slavery? Will they start paying reparations not from tax dollars but from their own dollars for what they have done?

Do they have the guts to publicly admit what serious history records of their deeds? Are they capable of running a campaign without playing the race card as they have played it for the better part of two centuries? Can they even escape the race psychology that has indelibly branded them as America's Party of Race?

Or, when it comes to their own responsibility for race relations in America, will they order up more of what, under the circumstances, is a very appropriate word for the DNC website?"¹

WHO ARE THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS?

The leadership of the Democratic Party since the 1900's has consisted of wealthy east coast families. The Kennedy's are one such family who hold a socialistic/Marxist view. There has never been a poor Democratic national leader, as a matter of fact, the majority of them are multimillionaires. All of them have made fortunes in the business world or inherited their wealth. Barack Obama became wealthy by the time he was elected senator from the state of Illinois and Nancy Pelosi and her husband are wealthy business people from the San Francisco Area. Dianne Feinstein and Barbara Boxer are two American Jewish senators from California, both are multimillionaires and so is Senator Harry Reid from Nevada.

There is nothing wrong with working hard and becoming rich but why are all these prosperous people leaders in a party that wants to strip the wealthy of their fortunes and distribute them to the working class? There is only one answer that makes sense and that is that they will exempt themselves if they succeed in forcing these policies on other people. This is how business was and still is run in Russia, China, Cuba, Vietnam and other socialist/Marxist dictatorships.

If we look behind these leaders, there are other groups behind the scenes with their own leaders, who are not generally known to the American people. First, there is a number of American Jewish organizations that are part of the Democratic machine like the World Jewish Congress, the American Jewish Congress, B'nai B'rith and a number of lesser known Jewish organizations. This explains why most American Jews always vote democratic. Then there is the media and entertainment industry with Hollywood at the center. Since most of the people running it in the United States are Jewish it should not come as a surprise that money is flowing into the coffers of the Democratic Party from these people and corporations, including Hollywood stars coming out to endorse democratic candidates and policies. Since the media and entertainment industry is a promoter of a sleazy lifestyle, it makes sense for them to support a party that rejects the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Jesus Christ, and makes money through moral filth.

Then there is another group of organizations called labor unions. Since the early part of the 20th century, they have been controlled by criminals from the Italian and Jewish mafia. Some of the most well-known leaders were Jimmy Hoffa, Bugsy Siegel, Lucky Luciano, Arnold Rothstein, Frank Costello, Carlo Gambino and Vito Genovese.

These mafias or crime syndicates control the Long Shore Union, the Teamsters and a majority of other American labor unions. Chicago is famous for the grip the mafia has on the Democratic Party machine. Let's not forget the gambling industry in Atlantic City, Las Vegas and Reno and a number of other American cities. The American pornography industry is in the hands of the Jewish mafia and centered in Hollywood. Prostitution and drugs are controlled by the different mafias, including the Mexican and South American mafias which are making inroads into the United States.

Thus the different mafia's in the United States are funneling money to the Democratic Party through the labor unions since they deem it to be more lenient toward their criminal activities.

There is also the National Education Association (NEA) is responsible for the deterioration of the American Public schools and the National Organization of Women (NOW) is a hard core promoter of abortions with its liberation of women agenda. Both of these groups are solidly behind the Democratic Party.

Most of the politically active homosexuals are deeply involved in the Democratic Party and there are a number of very militant homosexual organizations that are putting a lot of pressure on Democratic political leaders. Gay & Lesbian Activist Alliance (GLAA), Gay Activist Alliance (GAA) and Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD) are some of the better known militant homosexual groups.

Another small but vocal and militant group is the American Atheists who have aligned themselves with the Democratic Party.

Each of these groups has been able to put some of its members into local and national leadership of the Democratic Party.

WHAT ARE THE GOALS?

The major goal of the Democratic Party is one that was set by the Illuminati some 200 years ago and that would be to turn the United States into a socialistic/Marxist dictatorship, which in time could be merged with other similar nations and form the platform from which the Antichrist can rule.

One such step to a socialist/Marxist society is to socialize the medical establishment and force every doctor and nurse to work for the government in a measured health care system.

You might remember that in the mid 1990's President Clinton commissioned his wife to push for a federal government health care system but it was met with too much resistance and the effort failed. However, with Obama in the White House, the race has been on to create a national health care system. With the Democratic Party controlling both the Senate and the House of Representatives, it became reality as the Democratic Party machine steamrolled the Republican lawmakers. The people in America are in for a rude awakening with “Obama care” as a new law.

The Democratic leaders were finally able to gloat how every American will have access to good health care. What they didn’t tell the American people is that the cost will be astronomical and they had to make cuts somewhere.

Steven Rattner is a top Democrat strategist who served as Obama’s lead auto-industry advisor who believes there must be death panels, which will determine how long care is to be given to terminally ill patients or injured persons with a small chance of surviving. He wrote that the Obama-health-care plan cannot survive financially, unless death panels are created, that will determine when a patient is to be terminated through the humane methods of starvation or a dose of lethal medication.²

If you think this line of thinking is far out, you need only examine the Swedish health care system to see that they have death panels and terminally ill patients are killed in order to save money.

A socialist/Marxist society cannot exist in a nation with a strong Christian church proclaiming biblical truth. Karl Marx recognized this fact and his disciples took great steps to root out the Christians in the Soviet Union and all the Eastern European communist nations from 1945 until 1990. China is known for its systematic persecution of Christians and so is Vietnam, Laos, Cuba and North Korea.

The Democratic Party cannot yet outright persecute Christians and hold them in prison, so a soft method has been used. Using the judicial system in the United States, where the judges are controlled mostly through membership in Freemasonic lodges, lawsuits were brought against prayer and Bible reading in public schools. A 1962 Supreme Court ruling stated that teacher led prayer and Bible reading was forbidden in public schools.

Since that time, numerous lawsuits have been filed by different groups and argued by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) that has removed the Ten Commandments from display in public schools and government buildings. Public displays of crosses have also been removed because the courts have ruled them to be unconstitutional on public land.

In 1973, the Supreme Court ruled that abortion upon demand is legal in the United States. Many of these court cases were directly or indirectly supported by the Democratic Party through their agents.

The 2012 Democratic administration in California in October of 2012 passed a ban on psychotherapy aimed at making gay or lesbian teenagers straight. It is now a felony for a mental health practitioner to counsel a homosexual to turn away from a sinful lifestyle and go back to a normal sex life.

Let’s not forget that the Clinton administration started to push for homosexuals to be able to serve openly in the armed forces and freely proclaim their deviate lifestyle. It was the Obama administration that broke the final barrier and now any soldier can openly be a homosexual and practice his sexual deviation while in service of the nation.

The future agenda for the Democratic Party is to legalize prostitution, marijuana and other recreational drugs, child pornography and sex between adults and children. You might think that I’m joking but the North American Man/Boy Love Association (NAMBLA) is a pedophile and pederasty advocacy organization in the United States that works to abolish age of consent laws criminalizing adult sexual involvement with minors. This organization is lobbying the Democratic Party to take up their cause. Add to this hate laws which are used against Christian preachers who challenge the immoral lifestyles of homosexuals and other sexual deviants.

If you want to find out where the Democratic Party stands in 2012, you need only revisit their convention in Charlotte, North Carolina this year. When the platform was presented to the delegates, all references to God had been removed. The Romney campaign picked up on this and made it an issue so that Obama intervened and forced the committee to re-write the platform and insert the name of God. When this was presented to the delegates for ratification, more than half stood and screamed out their disapproval. Obama did not do this because he loves God; he did this to take away a point from his presidential challenger.

Furthermore, when the Democratic convention began in Charlotte, 56 Christian Churches wanted to show Christian love to the delegates and had put together small baskets with Carolina Pralines, a letter of welcome and also offered help in transportation. The Democratic National Committee (DNC) strongly rejected this act of hospitality and declared that the values of the Democratic Party were opposed to the stand the Christian churches had on homosexuality, abortion and women's rights.

One week prior to the convention, 100 churches in the Charlotte area sponsored a prayer rally that was attended by some 9,000 Christians. They were told to pray that God would have an influence on the Democratic convention. Obviously, even if God sent the Holy Spirit to speak to the leadership and the delegates, they refused to listen, and instead hardened their hearts in defiance against God.

Once the convention was underway, 200 Muslims showed up at the convention site and asked for permission to pray. Without hesitation, the DNC leadership welcomed them with open arms.

WHAT PEOPLE GROUPS ARE TARGETED?

The DNC leadership knows that strong Christians will not vote for them. Independent thinking Americans will not vote for them either and therefore they are targeting members of different labor unions, people on welfare, Jews, women in general, the black community, the Latino community and young people attending colleges and universities. In California, it is interesting to see that people living in the big coastal cities are mostly democrats, while people living in the inland are mostly republicans. Thus we can see the liberal education in public schools have produced a segment that is liberal and leaning toward socialism/Marxism.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY COME FROM?

I have dealt with this issue in previous articles listed in the beginning of this write up, but I want to repeat that the money comes from labor unions, rich American Jewish billionaires like George Soros, Bill Gates, the movie stars in Hollywood and American Jewish bankers and industrialists.

AS A CHRISTIAN, WHAT CAN YOU DO?

Currently many prominent black American pastors are speaking up and urging their people to leave the Democratic Party. They are using strong language and telling their people that the values of the Democratic Party are in total opposition to what the Bible teaches.

If you examine the facts I have brought out, there is no way a born again believer in Christ can embrace the Democratic platform and vote for any of their candidates. Every sin that Satan has promoted for the last 7,000 years has been adopted by the people who make up the Democratic Party and they are working hard to make it mandatory to be "politically correct" and join them. Although the Republican Party is not a Christian party, it has a large Christian membership that has been able to insert Christian values into the platform. If you are an honest Christian and willing to find the truth, check out what I have presented and you will see the truth. Then you will have to make a decision to stand against the people of Satan or join them?

"Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." (Matthew 7:13-20)

HOW TO CARE FOR YOUR HEALTH, WEALTH AND PURPOSE IN A POST-ORWELLIAN USA

Heinz R. Gisel

Do you let others decide what car you must buy? Of course not; it's not even up for debate how you spend your own money, right? Well then how is it possible that we tacitly accept the government to legislate what food we are allowed to eat, what chemicals are added to our tap water, and even what we can and cannot grow in our gardens? Not that we have ever authorized the government to meddle with our dinner plate, but it's just that we let them do it with impunity. When we behave like sheeple, the wolves become ever more brazen; but there the analogue ends. When wolves are fed, they go away; but not a bureaucracy whose sole objective it is to expand and enforce its power.

Now if the media has successfully hoodwinked you into believing you have the free choice of eating and drinking what you want, then consider that EPA, FDA, USDA, FTC, DHS, SEC, U.S. Congress, and the President have ruled otherwise, where no statute exists, and simply act according to their own devices with no compunction!

You may be proselytized by the media that your supermarket sells all of the food that the people want and the customer is king. But it's not just about what you can buy; it's also about what you can't. For example, you won't find raw milk at any supermarket. Just go to a farmer or a co-op, right? Not in the land of the hijacked American Dream. There the "understaffed" FDA will mobilize any number of armed agents to illegally raid such places of unadulterated produce trading at gunpoint, destroy the corpus delicti, and then later claim it was "contaminated" without providing evidence. [1]

Yes, this is the same agency that ruled GMO (genetically modified) food does not need labeling, because "it is no different than conventional food." [2] One might ask: if it is no different, why is it modified? Doesn't the term "modified" mean, by definition, that it is different? And if it is not different, why is it patented? Even President Obama knows GMO is different, so much so that he made the explicit – yet unfulfilled – campaign promise to label GMO foods. [3] Getting back to the supermarket, you won't find any GMO products at all, because you are not entitled to know [4] and the food industry bows to the FDA. It is noteworthy that the regulatory agencies protect the food industry and not the consumer. As a result, Americans are not deemed worthy to know what they feed their families. They are forced to unknowingly eat foods that most other countries consider toxic and prohibit their sales. [5] Engaging logical reasoning, one would think your elected congress members would draft some legislation to protect the U.S. consumer. [6] But "logic" and "ethics" are alien terms on Capitol Hill. Monsanto et al. have bought them and declared their use as “Anti-American!” Instead of protecting the health of Americans, the U.S. State Department coaxes other countries into Monsanto’s Global Food Control agenda. It is using its embassies [7] to spy on corruptible politicians, and if that doesn’t work, they threaten a trade war and coerce the WTO. [8]

Back home at the supermarket, you will be challenged to find a food that is free of GMO ingredients; but consider that almost all packaged foods contain soy and/or corn. You can bet that if the label doesn’t say “certified organic”, the soy is “roundup-ready” [9] Monsanto owned, including soy sauce, tofu, “soy milk”, etc. Corn is another mainly BT crop (Bio-Technology) that is ubiquitous, not only in packaged foods, but also in farm animal feeds! You may think that food will always be cheap because you haven’t noticed inflationary pricing; but the food industry is fighting cost pressure by quietly replacing healthy ingredients with those of lower quality, such as oils with the omnipresent canola, which – you guessed it – is GMO oil. [10] Some labels try to avoid the term canola, but “vegetable oil” means just that. If you have indeed found a food that has none of those nasties, then your next challenge are the sugars. Sugar beets are now USDA cleared GMO [11], but more than likely your product contains the cheaper HFCS, an ill-fated term now laundered to “corn sugar”, but, nonetheless, a product linked to serious health concerns and obesity. [12] The U.S. corn refiners have muscled their way into every food store shelf: bread, soups, condiments, salad dressings, all canned foods, and even fish and beans. Why? Because it is cheap! Remember, corn is the most heavily government subsidized crop in the U.S. If you try to exercise your delusionary right to choose in the candy and bakery isles, you are out of luck. Hershey’s, for instance, forces GMO chocolate down your throat while they export the non-GMO to Europe and elsewhere. [13] They obviously consider the U.S. consumer to be ignorant, buying anything as long as it’s cheap.

Of course, GMO is not the only onerous foodstuff. If you can stand the sickening odor of chemical preservatives in the bakery isle, you may go on to read the labels, provided you have a college degree in chemistry and muster an “A” in spelling. If you pick up a candy with a list of 30 to 50 ingredients [14] that you can’t pronounce, you may wonder if these are safe. You are not alone. The FDA doesn’t know either, and doesn’t want to know. [15] The FDA is probably the last health authority in the developed world that doesn’t know of the dangers of mercury in dentistry tooth fillings. Obviously, the agency’s commissioner Margaret Hamburg is still being lobbied by the top purveyor of amalgam in the U.S., Henry Schein, where she was paid as a director. [16] But the revolving door is a standard operating procedure in D.C.; for example, it is hard to keep track if an official is working for the USDA or Monsanto, so it is not surprising that the USDA’s rulings seem to come from a desk at the “We Own the Food” giant. But it makes no difference anyways, the USDA let’s Monsanto regulate itself: if Monsanto says it is safe, it is safe. So much for the fox guarding the hens!

Neither the FDA nor the USDA seemed concerned with antibiotics, steroids and growth hormones in the CAVO pork and beef and the concentration camp factory poultry. The U.S. consumer doesn’t seem to care either. The cheapest meat in the world justifies personal health and ecological damage of epic proportions [17], a fact that is exhibited in America’s highest healthcare cost in the world. So why is there silence on Capitol Hill? Well, remember the hoopla of the health care overhaul bill, aka Obama care, which the house and senate ratified without reading while absolving themselves? They didn’t need to read it because it made no difference. Virtually all elected officials are owned by the “special interest” major corporations, who are financing their reelection and promise them a lucrative future after their terms end. With six registered lobbyists preying on every elected member on Capitol Hill, it is not surprising that the senators and representatives only remember you when election time nears. Once in office, they have to return the favor to the ones who financed their campaign and promised them employment when their term is over.

Interestingly though, the same U.S. consumers, who don't care about the government tampering with their livelihood, keep electing the same politicians time and again while expecting a different outcome! This fact emboldens the incumbents to focus on power-grab while the sheeple are numbed into believing their vote makes a difference. The MSM (mainstream media) assume a pivotal role in manipulating the masses and at no other time has this become more blatantly obvious than in this pre-election cycle. The virtual abolition of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights in a hastily passed NDAA – aka “the indefinite detention” act – [18] was all but completely ignored by the MSM while it extensively reported on such things as if Lindsey Lohan showed up on time at her court date. Another disturbing manipulation of facts is the MSM's rendition of the presidential candidates. The networks have united in disliking Ron Paul, and that fact justifies gross distortion of poll numbers, outright lies in commentaries, and marginalizing the candidate.

Moreover, the MSM is not only feeding on the corrupt system, it is actively promoting it. Here again, the sheeple believe mistakenly that their opinion and subscription counts; but the MSM is financed by the very same contenders who buy the politicians. There are two ways to verify this fact: compare the content to the ads, and compare foreign news with the cherry-picked, spoon-fed “news” the U.S. networks want you to succumb to. As a result, when your constitutional rights are trampled on by government arrogance, don't expect the MSM to step in, unless you are a minority and none of their advertisers are adversely implicated.

For example, we are all involuntarily mass-drugged with fluoridated drinking water, despite the fact that the highly toxic chemical is not approved by the FDA and there is abundant scientific evidence to the adverse health impacts.[19] However, the MSM is completely mute on this topic. Why so? Because the promoter of this scheme is the American Dental Association, which hypocritically claims that fluoride added to tap water reduces cavities. Obviously, the self-serving politicians were quickly convinced. Apparently, no one questioned their motives, like: why are dentists eager to reduce their business? If lawmakers did their job and investigated the matter, they would have quickly learned that the cavity rate in the developed world that does not fluoridate the water is actually lower and they have no incidence of fluorosis, the ugly yellow-stained teeth that skyrocketed in the U.S. when fluoridation was introduced.[20]

The absurdity of many schizophrenic FDA rulings has been a subject of ridicule in the alternative media while the MSM fails to report on their unwarranted armed raids on organic farms and dietary supplement companies. If you are a visitor to websites or a consumer of natural food supplements, you may have noticed the mandatory disclaimer: “This Product is Not Intended to Diagnose, Treat, Cure or Prevent any Disease.” So the vendors of anything natural are lying by decree. The FDA is denying that anything but a pharmaceutical can “cure” and “prevent” disease. But the agency's definition of a drug is the apex of obscurity. Recently, they sent a warning letter to a company selling shelled walnuts: “We have determined that your walnut products are promoted for conditions that cause them to be drugs because these products are intended for use in the prevention, mitigation, and treatment of disease...Because of these intended uses, your walnut products are drugs...” [21] The motives are clear; the FDA protects the pharmaceutical industry who is financing them. And as these companies are considered too big to fail, they will amass more power and so will the politicians and the media. The U.S. will enforce its sinister Total Food Control agenda through the WTO, the World Bank, and its embassies. At home they will further intimidate the consumer and systematically attempt to eliminate any critics, whistleblowers, and non-conformists. The handwriting on the wall is evident: the recent passing of the NDAA, the pending bill to curb the Internet, and the DHS's definition of "domestic terror suspects", which includes anyone who stores food for more than 7 days, and anyone who grows food on their property for their own consumption.

Whenever you turn on the TV in the U.S., you are urged to go shopping to support the economy, and the sheeple seem to listen. This distraction is engineered to keep you from questioning your own purpose of being, and to keep you compliant. Thomas Jefferson saw this clearly:

"If people let the government decide what foods they eat and medicines they take, their bodies will soon be in as sorry a state as the souls who live under tyranny."

Remember, you are an individual with your very own intellect, unique talents and will. You are not sheeple! Some life principles never change: you reap what you sow – more than you sow – later than you sow!

Darl Dinger

My Bible has been my road map
It has been my way of life.
It has been my hope and happiness,

For it has shown me how to live,
And the path tells me where to go.
It has been my dictionary for things
That Jesus wants me to know.

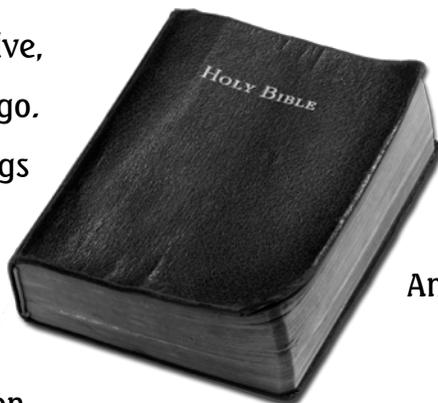

It told me who my father is
And it told me of His son.
It helped me fight my battles,
For the victories I have won.

It told me of my Heavenly home,
How Jesus would lead the way,
It has taught me how to be faithful,
And of how I would meet Him someday.

Then Satan tried to blind me
So my Bible I couldn't read.
He tried to cause me to forget.
So that Jesus words I would not heed

For a time he was successful
I believed all of his lies.
Until God's only son
Opened up my sinful eyes.

He died on an old wooden cross
For the truth that I would heed.
He suffered such awful pain
So that I would not have to bleed.

So if you are reading this poem
And your life is full of sin,
Get down on your knees and repent
And Jesus will make you whole again.

The pleasures of this world
Are not worth the cost.
You don't want to spend eternity in hell
And be numbered with the lost.

So dear friend let me tell you,
Read your Bible every day.
And let Jesus be your shepherd
And let Him lead the way.

Yes the time as we know it
It is ending very fast.
Soon you will hear the trumpet sound
Jesus is finally coming at last.

Christian Dynamics Course 1

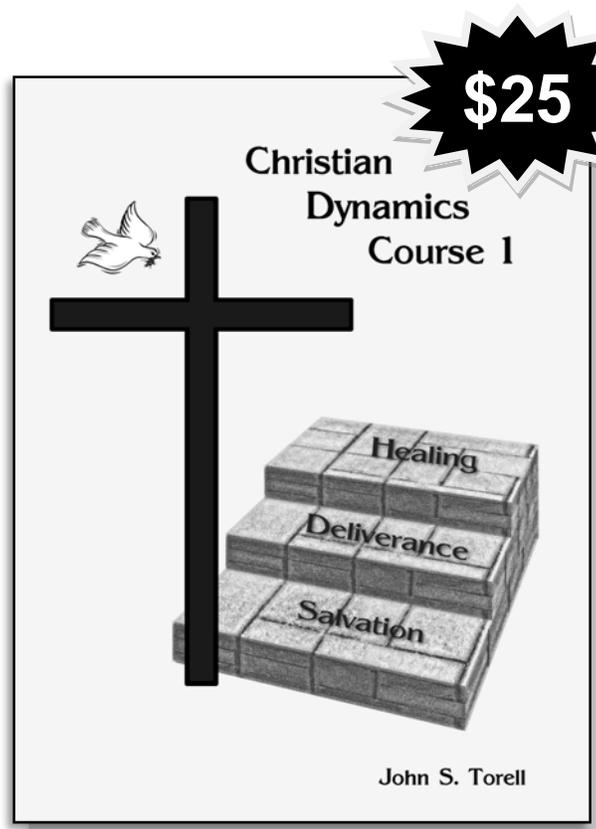

Salvation, Deliverance & Healing

"My husband has locked himself in the bathroom and is going to kill himself!" These were the frantic words spoken by a friend named Glenda as I was ready to enter a Southern Baptist Church on a Sunday morning in 1970 in San Rafael, California. My heart almost stopped as I heard these words because Jim was the worship leader in the church and a staff member at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary where I was a first year student. They were really good friends to my wife and I and now he was going to kill himself? As a young Christian, I knew very little about spiritual warfare and wondered how I could save my friend.

I rushed over to Jim and Glenda's apartment and found to my great joy that Jim was still alive but very distraught. I told him about a book I had just read about demons and asked him to come with me to my apartment to get the book so he could read it and get some help. Jim grabbed me in a bear hug when we arrived at my apartment and said he was not leaving until I had cast out the demons in him. I was shocked since all I had ever done was read a book about it. As we knelt in front of a couch and called upon the Lord, I was again stunned when Jim lifted the couch in the air and foam came out of his mouth. There was no time for fear so I began to command the demons to leave. Jim collapsed on the floor after a fierce battle and I thought he was dead. I laid my hands on him and as I prayed the Holy Spirit fell on him and he got up and screamed, "Praise God, I am free!"

This is how I was thrust into a deliverance ministry. I purchased every book I could find on demons and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. As my wife and I prayed for people, our skill level increased and so did the anointing from God. During our travels we ran into Satan worshippers, learned about the world government and for the next 40 years I have recorded what I learned. This practical handbook is the culmination of my life's work and will give you a solid understanding of salvation, how to pray for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and how to have a close relationship with God the Father and His Son, Jesus. You will also learn the blessings God has for those who obey His Word and the curses that come upon those who disobey it. You will learn the difference between demon possession and oppression and how to handle demonic problems. In short, this book is the manual that I never had.

Thousands of people over the years have had their lives changed as they moved from defeat to victory and the same can happen for you!

The Kabbalah Booklets

Exposing the hidden secrets of the future World Government!

Have you ever wondered what motivates the people who make up the World Government? What religion do they embrace? This is important because religion is a foundational building block behind every political movement. It is true of Communism, Nazism and Fascism. Do you know that all three of these violent movements have the same religion? Furthermore, it is the same religion that inspired these Satanic movements which is also the religion of the people in the World Government. In this series of booklets you will learn how the diabolical Kabbalah was started in the days of Moses, more than five thousand years ago by men who rebelled against God. This secret religion among the twelve tribes of Israel burned like a smoldering fire under the surface and it was King Solomon who fanned the fire some 900 years before Christ and made it into the refined system we see today. As we approach the coming of the Antichrist and the Mark of the Beast, it should be of utmost importance to know about the religion of this coming world dictator. The knowledge you gain about this evil religion will help you resist the Mark of the Beast and the oppression that is going to come on this earth.

THE KABBALAH - Book 1: Sabbatai Sevi

Sabbatai Sevi proclaimed to be the messiah in the year 1666, but unlike Jesus, he lived an immoral life, and the Kabbalah teaches that through his sinful life and death through sickness, he opened the door for salvation for them that believe on him. Striving to live a sinful life is not the nature of God, but of the Devil, and the complete opposite of what the Bible teaches of Jesus, who was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life and died on the cross for our sins.

The messiah concept found in the Kabbalah is actually “Satan’s gospel” and the core belief of the people in charge of the coming World Government. If you don’t understand this concept, you will be deceived by the Antichrist system and might even be assured to take the Mark of the Beast by apostate church leaders and the media.

THE KABBALAH - Book 2: Jacob Frank

For thousands of years people believed the earth was flat and the center of the universe, and anyone who challenged these assumptions was arrested, tried and put to death by the Roman Catholic Church. So what happens today when someone makes an assertion that is considered anti-Semitic but can be proven otherwise? Few Gentiles know about a Jew named Jacob Frank in the 18th century who was deeply educated in the Kabbalah and believed he was the reincarnation of Sabbatai Sevi. He believed in nihilism and advocated overthrowing every national government, executing every king and eradicating every trace of Christianity. He strove to destroy God’s laws and lived in total sin.

While Frank was never able to put his revolutionary ideas into practice, his writings did become the foundation for the scourges of Communism, Nazism and Fascism and someday they will also be used by the Antichrist. The millions that were killed during the Second World War and the communist takeovers of Russia, China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Cuba are a direct result of Frank's writings. Their blood cries out for truth concerning this demonized man so that so that future generations can be warned about this hellish future.

THE KABBALAH - Book 3: The Rothschild Family

A successful revolution requires a lot of money, but when the goal is to subdue the world and put it under a dictatorship, entire financial systems must be taken over. The Kabbalistic leadership wants to take dominion of the earth and rule it with their messiah and they need to control the banking system to achieve this objective. The Fugger family was promoted in the 14th century but they did not protect their wealth. Jewish traders became very wealthy during the next two centuries as they operated in all nations and supplied warring armies but there was no centralized control that could be projected over the banking systems of different nations.

Meyer Amschel was selected to be the founding father of a global banking family. He was sly and deceitful and intensely loyal to the Jewish cause that is spelled out in the Talmud and the Kabbalah. The Kabbalistic leadership invested funds and coins which Amschel used to build a fairly strong banking house in Frankfurt and his five sons proved to be more shrewd than their father. In less than 50 years the Rothschild family had penetrated the financial markets in Austria, Germany, France, England, Italy and Spain. This is the story of the Rothschild's, who through the Kabbalistic leadership were able to set the policies in these nations and achieve a monopoly that is unrivaled today.

THE KABBALAH - Book 4: The Stealth Takeover of the United States

The Kabbalistic Jews learned through the Rothschild takeover of the European banking system to disguise themselves and find Gentiles who are willing to do their bidding. Another lesson they learned was that it is impossible for any nation or group of people to take control of the world through military power. The only way to succeed is to take control of the different nations monetary systems and forge them into a global banking and trade system. Once this has been achieved, food is the ultimate weapon since no one can live without it.

The stealth takeover of the United States was done by Gentile businessmen, lawyers, elected political leaders, educators, Christian ministers and military commanders who were willing to carry out orders that included shooting on the American people to make them comply. This book takes you from 1828 until 1907 and shows the treason, sellouts and the rape of the American people that were carried out in such a remarkable way that no one could resist it and survive.

God was also carrying out a parallel program through D.L. Moody and R.A. Torrey, who were used to bring millions of people in the United States and England to Christ and hindered the ultimate goal of the Jewish world leaders of ushering in their new world order. Ironically, the same tactics employed more than a hundred years ago are still being foisted upon us today and the old adage is still true that those who don't know their history are doomed to repeat it.

THE KABBALAH - Book 5: The Rise of the Illuminati

Most people interested in prophecy and the Mark of the Beast will invariably come across a mysterious organization called the Illuminati. A great deal has been written about this secretive group but how much of it is truth? Who was Adam Weishaupt and why did he create the Illuminati? To answer that question we must examine his political viewpoints that were formulated upon writings of Plato, Jacob Frank and the Kabbalah. Utilizing this information along with historical facts that have been preserved in various the libraries of France, England and the United States will present a picture of his mindset and intentions toward humanity.

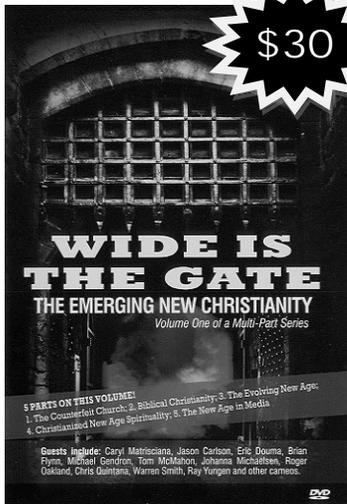

While the Illuminati fomented revolution in France that resulted in widespread death and destruction, God simultaneously worked upon John Wesley, George Whitefield and Jonathan Edwards, who became lightning rods for a revival that would touch the entire world. Weishaupt had similar plans for revolution in England and the American colonies, but these three men were instrumental in thwarting this effort and you will be inspired to learn about God's intervention in human affairs.

A number of people have asked me why I have named this series of booklets after the Kabbalah. The answer is that the Kabbalah is the religion that Satan created for his final rule on this world, which the Bible calls the Great Tribulation. During this period, the Devil will rule the world through a man, which the Bible calls for the Antichrist. At his side he will have a religious leader that the Bible calls the False Prophet and he is going to be the high priest of the Kabbalistic religion that will be forced on all people living at that time. The religion of the Jewish leadership that makes up the World Government is the Kabbalah and this also holds true for the Gentiles who make up the leadership in the Illuminati, which in turn controls the Masonic Orders around the world. The extreme devotion to the Kabbalah by these men and women is the glue that Satan uses to hold his organization together down through the centuries as a generation passes away and a new one takes over.

Once there were two Church choices, Roman Catholicism and Protestantism, but in recent decades Christianity has been redefined giving rise to unprecedented quasi-Christian spiritual philosophies and practices.

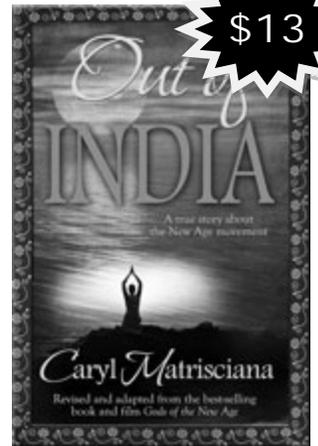

Claiming to be “revivals” are these the counterfeits Jesus warned would occur before His return? (Luke 18:8) Many so-called Christian leaders are introducing innovative teachings based on new Bible translations and paraphrases that alter the timeless truths of Holy Scripture. A more progressive spirituality, with roots in eastern mysticism, is replacing faith in God’s Word. This “New Christian Spirituality” poses as a more relevant “New Gospel” for today’s postmodern culture that prefers subjective and emotional feelings, rather than absolute truths.

Biblical Truth is the foundation for knowing God, His promises and prophecies. At Pentecost, the Church was given the Holy Spirit of Truth to be guided into all Truth. Jesus Christ, Who is Truth Incarnate, taught that after His death, resurrection and ascension to Heaven, He would bring His Church to His Father’s house before returning with them to govern the world for a 1000 year Kingdom period. Biblical faith trusts God’s promise to fulfill these prophecies. However many within the Emerging, Seeker-friendly, Purpose Driven, New Apostolic, Roman Catholic, Protestant, Reformed, neo-Evangelical, Charismatic and Pentecostal Churches deny many teachings and Prophecies in God’s Word as literal Truth.

Many promote the false gospel of transforming the world for the common good, encouraging a “working together,” and bringing about social justice on planet earth. Through modern marketing techniques and business management skills a global agenda of faith, commerce and government is being orchestrated for churches to partner with other faiths for world peace and unity. This man-made utopia will usher in the reign of Antichrist and his kingdom, preceding the coming of the True Jesus Christ and the True Kingdom of God on earth.

Caryl Matrisciana, author of “Out of India: A True Story about The New Age Movement” interviews friends, well-known authors and experts to examine the intrusion of the 60’s and 70’s New Age Movement, steeped in its pagan eastern mysticism, and traces its morphing over the last four decades from its repackaging as the Self Help Psychology,

Wholistic Health Movements of the 80’s, to its Seeker Friendly, Mega Church appearance in the 90’s, to its coming out in the 21st century as The New Spirituality. Its slick reinvention of “new truth” shows itself off today as a new “Emerging” Christianity, a Vintage, Ancient Future Movement that is supposedly taking us back to our “Christian” origins in the Desert Fathers of 300 years after Christ. Sadly, that “taking back” does not go back far enough. Missing is a return to the Early Church’s foundation, birthed in Jerusalem, at Pentecost, 40 days after the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who at that time, filled His Believers with His Holy Spirit and instructions to go out, preach the Gospel and make disciples.

Today’s new brand of Christianity has a different gospel and is targeting thousands of the younger generation with a so-called hip, cool, experiential spirituality, much of which is embracing the mysticism of Roman Catholicism with its ecumenical philosophy of uniting people from all faiths to work together and bring about a new world of peace and harmony. This notion dovetails with the heart of New Age thinking and the utopian ideals of many world religions who all await their religious leaders and dreams of world domination.

The dangerous result of this new spirituality in the church is bringing about the rise of today’s “Christianized” occultism. It’s stretching its tentacles around the souls of unsuspecting youth, setting them up for the lie that subjective emotions of “power” and “experience” are “feelings” to be held higher than an objective walk in the Christian Faith, based in Truth found in the Pure Word of God. The Holy Bible is presented as unattainable truth: “stuffy”, “dry” and “churchy.”

The Bible warns of great heresy and apostasy in the church of the last days. It foretells of false teachers, prophets, doctrines of lying spirits and their signs and wonders. For 2,000 years, since the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, the Bible has been attacked. Alongside the Apostolic Church, based on the teachings of Jesus Christ and his apostles, counterfeit Christian heretics, apostate denominations and false movements have proliferated. Ecclesiastes 1:9 says, “There’s no new thing under the sun.”

Learn what Scripture teaches about the times we live in, the ways in which Christians are being seduced away from Biblical Truth, and the methods used by the New Spirituality to usher in the counterfeit Kingdom of God on earth. Jesus said, “My Kingdom is not of this world” (John 18:36) and “Narrow is the Way which leadeth unto life and few there be that find it.” (Matthew 7:14)

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Born and raised in India, Caryl Matrisciana saw firsthand the effects that Hinduism had on the people of that nation. After leaving India as a young adult, she became involved in the counter-culture New Age movement, only to find that the elements of Hinduism and the New Age were very much the same. Later as a Christian, Caryl discovered that this same spirituality had entered the Christian church through various avenues unbeknownst to most people.

“When I was twenty years old, my family returned from India, where I was born and lived for most of my life, to England, our homeland. It was during the turbulent sixties, and I was about to be introduced to a movement that didn’t even have a name yet. How could I have possibly known then that the strange and mystical religion I had been surrounded by in India would someday be at the heart of a spirituality that would influence millions around the world?”
