

Most people do not have a criminal mind and the thought that a government would use germs and viruses as a military weapon is unconscionable. Biological warfare is nothing new and has been practiced for centuries. Besieging armies launched infected bodies over the walls to weaken the defenders and decimate their numbers. With the invention of the microscope and the discovery of germs and bacteria, military commanders eventually realized that something miniscule could be very powerful if used in the right application. The U.S. army gave blankets to the American Indians from small pox victims, knowing that they would be overcome with sickness and death. Even more deadly biological warfare has been taking place since the 1920's, the worst nations being Germany, Japan, Soviet Union and Iraq.

Stephen Strang interviewed Alexandra Rodriguez on February 20, 2020. She is an American teacher who is a member of Faith Assembly in Orlando, Florida.<sup>1</sup> The story begins in September of 2019 when she signed a 10-month teaching contract to teach English at a school in the Chinese city of Wuhan. Many Christians in the United States want to do mission work in China but the only way is to get a secular job and use it as a cover to share the Gospel with the people whom they contact.

THE CITY OF WUHAN

The epicenter of the Coronavirus is the Chinese city of Wuhan, a metropolis of 11 million people. There are a number of American and European corporations with factories in the city. Some of the most well-known factories are Nissan, Honda, General Motors, IBM, Honeywell, Siemens and Wal-Mart. It is also home to a large steel industry.

Wuhan has four scientific and technology parks, 350 research institutes, 1,656 hi-tech enterprises, and two universities. The large state owned Dongfeng Motor Corporation is headquartered in the city, with its factory producing parts for Nissan, Peugeot-Citroen, Renault, and other auto manufacturers. This plant produced 3.5 million automobiles and 450,000 trucks in 2014.

THE STORY OF ALEXANDRA RODRIGUEZ

Alexandra stated that she heard about the Coronavirus toward the end of December 2019. According to the Chinese state-controlled media, it was just a new flu strain and people were encouraged to wash their hands as a precaution.

At this time Alexandra and some American friends decided to vacation in Thailand for ten days. The Chinese did not impose any restriction on them flying out of the city. Wuhan had turned into a ghost city and everything was shut down when she returned on January 21st. She and her friends purchased enough food to last a few weeks and set about contacting the U.S. embassy. Eventually the state department chartered flights for American citizens and she returned home with a short quarantine at a military base.

Alexandra heard rumors that the virus had originated at an exotic meat market. The Chinese government tried to hide the number of people who had gotten sick and it was obvious they were conducting damage control.

Strang also reported that Pastor Frank Amedia, who is working with Chinese Christians, stated that people are seeking out Christians for healing since there is no cure for the virus. Pastor Amedia also reported that the death toll is much higher than what the communist government has stated.

Chinese missionary Dennis Balcombe confirmed that Jesus is active in China and people are defying the government and turning to God in the midst of this crisis because the communists are powerless. People have been healed and the news spreads like wildfire and more people come for prayer. What the Devil meant for evil, God is turning around and something good is coming out of this.

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.”

(Romans 8:28)

“But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.”

(Genesis 50:20)

DOCTOR LI WENLIANG

Dr. Li Wenliang, an ophthalmologist, noticed seven cases among his patients that looked similar to the SARS (Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome) virus which caused a global epidemic in 2003. He sent a message to fellow doctors via a chat group on December 30th, warning them to wear protective clothing to avoid infection. Shortly thereafter the local communist commissar in Wuhan summoned him to the Public Security Bureau. He was accused of “making false comments” that “severely disturbed the social order.” He was given the following written warning: “We solemnly warn you. If you keep being stubborn, with such impertinence, and continue this illegal activity, you will be brought to justice.” There were eight other people in Wuhan who were also accused of “spreading rumors.” Tragically but convenient for the communist government, Dr. Wenliang was subsequently infected with the Coronavirus and died on February 7, 2020. This was a boon for the Chinese government because dead men do not talk.

CHINA’S BIO-WARFARE LABORATORY

The communist régime in China has been conducting biological warfare research, trying to hide their activities by constructing BioSafety Laboratories which are used to “research virus infection.” The National Biosafety Laboratory Level 4 (BSL-4) was built outside the city of Wuhan in 2015, utilizing French engineers to make sure it was built to specification. The Chinese do not excel in the field of bio-safety and had previously lost control of the SARS virus in Beijing. Molecular biologist Richard H. Ebright raised safety concerns as the Chinese government built a string of biological warfare laboratories.

The BSL-4 lab in Wuhan was conducting research of SARS and Ebola in 2017. Warnings were sent out by a number of international scientists that the lab was not safe enough and loss of containment could lead to a catastrophic effect if a dangerous virus escaped.<sup>2</sup>

Biological warfare is nothing new and a choice weapon to defeat another nation in an undeclared war. It is difficult for the second nation to prove the first nation developed a biological weapon and unleashed it on them.

If China unleashed the Coronavirus upon the United States, they would only do so after creating a vaccine that could be used to protect its own citizens. It is noteworthy that a research team led by Shi Zhengli from the Wuhan BSL-4 laboratory applied for a patent in February 2020 to use "remdesivir," an experimental drug owned by the American company Gilead Sciences. This immediately raised concerns regarding international property rights because it could be used to create a vaccine.

CHINA IS A HOSTILE NATION

Since the end of the Vietnam War in 1975, China has sought to expand its influence throughout the world. Vietnam was pressured by China into giving up its fishing and mineral rights in its own territorial waters. Vietnam quietly began to turn to the United States for support against this Chinese aggression. The strength of its economy and military is due to the heavy trade with the U.S. and American investments in Vietnam.

The United States has defended Taiwan and the small islands which exist between it and China since 1949. The Chinese were rebuffed during the Korean War (1950-1953).

From 2013 to the present day, China has expanded beyond its territory and constructed man-made islands in the South China Sea, going so far as to place troops and aircraft on them and declaring that the South China Sea belongs to China. This infringes on the Philippines and other nations in the region.

China is also clashing with the United States in space as it has launched a number of killer satellites which threaten our satellites. As long as the United States is a world power, China won't be able to expand and they hate us for it.

WHAT THE LORD HAS SHOWN ME

As the Chinese biological scientists worked to perfect a bio-weapon against the United States, they created the Coronavirus. Antibiotics cannot kill viruses because they are structurally unlike and replicate in a different way than bacteria. Most viral illnesses do not need special medication and your immune system will take care of it.

"But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." (Matthew 24:37)

Jesus stated that the end times would be like it was in the days of Noah. Mankind's technology has once again reached the point where we can work at the cellular level. Creating the Coronavirus involves gene splicing, a form of genetic engineering where specific genes are inserted into the genome of a different organism, allowing researchers to splice genes and modify viruses that can target the respiratory system.

The delivery system of the Coronavirus can be fairly simple. How would China infect the United States? Choose a large city and use aerosol containers at points of congestion like airports, train stations, bus depots, shopping malls, and sports venues. The virus is highly contagious and a person can be asymptomatic for two weeks before they begin coughing, showing a fever and experiencing shortness of breath. This means the virus can be spread by an infected person through coughing or skin contact prior to showing any signs of sickness. Thus an asymptomatic person is a walking factory who will spread it to others. This is why governments are mandating quarantines for those infected and the people who are believed to be infected. This is the only way to halt the spread of the virus. Not everyone will die, but the process is lengthy with each person and this contagion period is what makes the Coronavirus so dangerous.

I believe that God allowed the Coronavirus to escape the laboratory in order for the Communist régime to suffer at the hands of its own weapon system. God has turned their evil against them but how many people will die before everything is said and done?

The Chinese New Year was January 25th. This is the biggest holiday in China and can be compared to Christmas in the United States. The Chinese people use this holiday to travel and unite with family. Before the Wuhan quarantine, it is estimated that 5 million from this metropolis traveled throughout China. The scary thing is that the communist government doesn't know how many of its 1.44 billion people are infected and where they are located.

Once the Chinese government realized they were facing an epidemic, they restricted access to the provinces around Wuhan and the city itself. No one is working, public and private transportation have been shut down, and the stores are empty of food as 60 million Chinese remain under quarantine.

Infected people are put into the back of army trucks and carted off. The hospitals are overloaded and even the makeshift hospitals are at full capacity as well. There are no funerals as the government has taken over all crematories and reportedly are incinerating dead bodies round the clock. As of February 22, the unofficial death toll in China from the Coronavirus is more than 50,000 persons.

China's military has shut the doors to apartment houses (there are no single homes), some doors of metal have been welded shut. Smuggled phone videos show people being manhandled, thrown to the floor, and then into the back of a police van.

GOD HAS SEEN THEIR WORKS

When Mau Tse Tung and his communist hordes took power in 1949, the first decree from this butcher was that all Christian missionaries had to leave China at once. All Christian churches were shuttered and then the persecution began in earnest. Blood ran freely in the death camps from pastors, church leaders and members. Mau Tse Tung would oversee the murder of 80 million people before his death.

President Xi Jinping and the current communist leadership continue to persecute and spill the blood of God's people. I believe the cup of suffering is full and God is using this catastrophic event in China to unseat the communists. God is going to get honor from President Xi by removing him from power just like He did with Pharaoh.

"And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen." (Exodus 14:17)

We need to pray for the people of China, believers and unbelievers alike, as millions will possibly die from the Coronavirus. What a horror it would be for an unsaved person to die from a virulent epidemic and find himself in hell!

THE ANTICHRIST

For many years I have stated that the Antichrist will arrive on the world scene as a savior and lead the nations in recovery from a catastrophic event. The general consensus for a long time was that nuclear war between the United States and the Soviet Union be that event. Both nations would be destroyed and the Man of Sin would help the world rise from ashes and rebuild. The Soviet Union dissolved in 1991, and while Russia is still a nuclear power, Vladimir Putin won't go that route.

The prophet Daniel received a revelation from God that this future global leader will come to power through peace and flattery.

"Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time." (Daniel 11:20-24)

Modern biological warfare has been refined due to our knowledge of DNA and our ability to perform gene splicing. This ability is used to change the way food crops are grown as most of the products we buy in the stores are genetically modified organisms (GMO).

Researchers at the biological warfare laboratories are now able to use the latest techniques to develop designer viruses that are difficult to stop and will infect people on a large scale.

Different biologists in the United States have pointed out that the Coronavirus is much stronger than a regular flu virus, it is highly contagious, and a person can be asymptomatic for up to two weeks. This is a nightmare scenario as people can unknowingly infect others. It is difficult and expensive to check if someone had been infected with the Coronavirus prior to being symptomatic.

It would be a catastrophe if Covid-19 causes a pandemic that sees millions of people die. Hospitals would be overcrowded and many doctors, nurses, and hospital workers would be sick as well. Food supplies would eventually run out and political leaders in different nations would be powerless to help.

If this were to happen, Satan would certainly have the Man of Sin introduced on worldwide television as a person who could solve this crisis. It would be pointed out that that this man has supernatural power and the technical knowledge to solve this predicament. Given this man is the Antichrist, he will demand that every nation yield their sovereignty to a new global federation. This is exactly what the Bible says.

"And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain." (Daniel 11:31-39)

No temple exists since the Roman tore it down in A.D. 70 but the components have been manufactured and are currently stored in warehouses around Jerusalem. With modern machinery, a pre-fabricated temple could be erected in less than a week.

Both the prophet Daniel and the apostle Paul mention the temple in Jerusalem will be desecrated and Paul goes on to name the culprit as the Antichrist.

"Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God." (2

Thessalonians 2:1-4)

Jesus told us the Son of Perdition will have supernatural powers provided by Satan.

"And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." (Revelation 13:2)

The Coronavirus could be a dress rehearsal for a future event to bring the Antichrist on the scene or it could be the real thing. Unless we receive a direct revelation from the Holy Spirit, we can only examine past and current events and compare them with what the Bible says.

We should be asking God to hold back the powers of the Antichrist and give us more time to preach the Gospel and see additional people saved.

THE DEEP STATE

During the Trump presidency we have heard about “The Deep State.” President Trump has brought to the surface the truth that there is a cabal of evil people working behind the scenes in Washington D.C. They don’t care which political party is in power, their goal is simply to shape American policies and they act for the most part with impunity.

The Deep State people are controlled by the unseen world government whose sole purpose is to prepare the world for a global dictator. This hidden government within the legitimately elected government has long term goals, so much so that when they get old, they are replaced with younger people, causing this Deep State to exist from decade to decade.

NAZIS AND BIOLOGICAL WARFARE

The Deep State wanted to connect with the people who had worked to develop biological warfare in Nazi Germany and Japan. American Counter Intelligence Corps (Army CIC) agents followed the invading soldiers into Germany at the end of the war in 1945. Kurt Blome was a high-ranking Nazi scientist who was of particular interest because of his research in virology. He was in charge of biological warfare and had his own research laboratory, which was surrounded by a ten foot wall and guarded by a SS detachment.<sup>3</sup>

Inside were cold rooms, incubators, deep freezers, and steam chambers. Thousands of men and women were infected with viruses, germs, exposed to nerve gas, etc. The horrible suffering inflicted on these victims cannot adequately be told with words but they will have their say at the Great White Throne Judgment.

Blome was arrested by CIC agents on May 17, 1945. Secretary of War Henry Stimson knew the Japanese also had an advanced biological warfare program and he ordered the U.S. military to protect Blome and bring him to the United States under Operation Paperclip so he could work in the American biological warfare department.

He was put on trial at the post-war trials in Nuremberg and found not guilty even though he ordered thousands of prisoners to be gassed, injected and abused. Two months after his acquittal, Blome was interviewed by American biological warfare experts from Camp Detrick in Maryland but was considered “too dirty” to be brought to the United States. He was hired in 1951 by the U.S. Army Chemical Corps, ostensibly to work on chemical warfare, but it was a cover for his real work biological warfare.

Ira Baldwin was a professor at the University of Wisconsin who was in charge of the Department of Bacteriology. In 1943 he was asked by the Army to head up what became known as the U.S. Army Biological Warfare Laboratories at Camp Detrick, Maryland. One of the agents produced at Detrick was anthrax, a highly infectious bacterium that causes fever, chest pain, shortness of breath, diarrhea, nausea and vomiting. The mortality rate of weaponized anthrax is 50-80%.

Once Kurt Blome finished working for the American biological warfare program, he opened a private medical office and continued to operate as a private doctor in West Germany. He died in 1969.

JAPAN

Germany capitulated on May 8, 1945, which effectively ended the war in Europe, but Japan refused to surrender until August 6, 1945, when the United States dropped an atomic bomb on the Japanese city of Hiroshima killing some 166,000 Japanese civilians. Three days later a second atomic bomb was dropped on Nagasaki, killing some 35,000 people and injuring thousands more who died later due to radioactive poisoning.

Emperor Hirohito ordered the Japanese Supreme Council for the Direction of the War to accept the terms of surrender presented by the United States. The Japanese military leaders did not want to surrender and Hirohito announced on the radio that he was surrendering on August 15, 1945.

The first American forces arrived in Japan on August 28th to begin the occupation and the formal surrender ceremony took place on September 2nd on the USS Missouri battleship. The ceremony was presided over by General Douglas MacArthur.

SEARCH FOR JAPANESE BIO-WARFARE LAB

Just like it was done in Germany, CIC agents began searching for Japanese war criminals, and as they started to round up and interrogate Japanese officers, they discovered that Japan also had a secret biological warfare program located in the Japanese occupied Manchuria. The bio-warfare laboratory was named "Unit 731."

The CIC worked closely with the Office for Strategic Services (OSS), which was later renamed the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in 1947. Information about a possible Japanese warfare laboratory was sent to the command of the Biological Warfare Laboratories at Camp Detrick. Unit 731 had been run by General Shiro Ishii and

CIC agents wanted to find him before the Soviets did.<sup>4</sup>

Ironically, Joseph Stalin declared war on Japan on August 8, 1945 in order to gain as much territory as possible from Japan. The Soviets attacked with a million soldiers and forced their way into Manchuria, which was defended by seven hundred thousand Japanese soldiers.

UNIT 731

Japan had attacked and defeated the Chinese army and controlled most of Manchuria by 1936. This area is located in the northeastern part of China, bordering Russia to the north and Korea to the east. At this time Korea was occupied by Japan.

The Japanese army cleared an area adjacent to the city of Harbin. Eight Chinese villages were leveled and its inhabitants were driven out to make ready a four square mile compound. A total of three thousand Japanese scientists and staff members lived in housing units on the compound that was guarded by Japanese soldiers. This place was officially called the "Epidemic Prevention and Water Purification Bureau" but to those in the Japanese government, it was simply known as Unit 731.

While General Ishii was a soldier, he was also a medical doctor and he requested people that could function as test subjects. Japanese army units moved out into the Manchurian countryside and began rounding up locals who were resisting the occupation. Unit 731 had a total of 12,000 men and women as unwilling test subjects, some of which were captured Chinese soldiers, criminals from local prisons, and people from mental hospitals.

General Ishii codenamed every person as a log entry since they were all destined to die from the following experiments:

- ❖ The effect of putting someone into a chamber filled with poison gas. Once they were dead, the lungs would be studied to determine what strength of poison gas was needed on the battlefield.
- ❖ How much electric current was needed to kill a person? Prisoners were electrocuted with gradually increasing voltages until they died.
- ❖ People were hung upside down to find out how long it would take for them to choke to death.
- ❖ People were locked into high-pressure chambers and pressure was increased until their eyes popped out.
- ❖ People were put in centrifuges and spun faster and faster until they died.
- ❖ Large numbers of prisoners were infected with anthrax, syphilis, different plagues, cholera and a number of other diseases.
- ❖ Women were raped to produce children on which vivisections were performed.<sup>5</sup>
- ❖ People were tied to posts and flame throwers were tested on them.
- ❖ Some people were slowly chilled in freezers to analyze the progress of hypothermia.
- ❖ Air was injected into the veins of prisoners to provoke embolism, mimicking a blood clot, to see how long a person could live.

- ❖ People were injected with animal blood to determine the kind of effect it would have on a human body.
- ❖ Some of the prisoners were tied to a gurney and dissected alive.
- ❖ Other prisoners were tied to a gurney and then an arm or leg was amputated so Unit 731 could time how long it took for a human being to die from blood loss.
- ❖ Groups of men, women and children were tied to stakes with their buttocks and legs bare. Bombs filled with anthrax were then detonated from a distance and the infected shrapnel would injure their exposed skin. They were observed while they slowly died over the course of a week.

All of this data was recorded by the torturers masquerading as “scientists.” All these sadistic experiments were methodically recorded for future reference.

Members of Unit 731 also removed tissue from dead prisoners and mounted them on microscope slides for future reference. They bred plague infested fleas in large laboratory buildings which were released in Chinese villages to measure their lethality.

General Ishii realized by 1945 that the Japanese were losing the war. He ordered the remaining prisoners killed and then Japanese soldiers destroyed every building on the compound so that there was no evidence of their atrocities. Yet Ishii kept the records from all the sordid experiments as a bargaining chip.

AMERICAN BIOLOGISTS

General Ishii was able to secure military transportation back to Japan before its surrender. He shed his uniform and returned to his hometown. CIC agents did not find him until <sup>5</sup> Vivisection is the practice of performing live surgery, usually without anesthesia, for the purpose of experimentation or scientific research.

---

January 17, 1946, when the local Japanese police arrested him and turned him over to the CIC.

He was one of the world's worst war criminals, but instead of standing trial for his crimes against humanity, he was brought to Tokyo and allowed to live in the home of his daughter.

During a four week time period, "scientists" from Fort Detrick interviewed him to find out if he would share his records with them. Ishii's daughter would reveal years later in a press interview that Dr. Edwin Hill, the leader of the biologists from Fort Detrick, begged Ishii for his files from Unit 731 and wanted this information kept from the Soviet's at all costs. Ishii was promised immunity if he turned over all his records.

General Douglas MacArthur stated the following: "The value to the U.S. of Japanese biological weapons data is of such importance to national security as to far outweigh the value accruing from war-crimes prosecution."<sup>6</sup>

The International Military Tribunal for the Far East was ready to convene and General MacArthur signed a secret decree granting amnesty to Ishii and all his staff at Unit 731.

General MacArthur served under the democratic president Harry S. Truman. The Deep State that was running Fort Detrick did not care about human rights, torture and death of innocent people; they were salivating about the data from Unit 731 and most Americans don't know about this dirty deal. This type of mentality still exists in the depths of government today.

AMERICAN ATROCITIES

Once General Ishii had been granted immunity, he furnished the records from Unit 731. He had ordered his men to hide them in Shinto temples and mountain retreats throughout Japan. Ishii and his men turned over some 15,000 microscope slides which contained a sliver of tissue from a kidney, liver, spleen or another organ from the person killed. There were slides from prisoners who had been infected with anthrax, botulism, bubonic plague, cholera, dysentery, small pox, typhoid, tuberculosis, gangrene and syphilis. The samples were taken in the dying moments since Ishii believed such a sample to be more valuable than one taken from a dead body. He did not care that cutting a piece of flesh from a dying person was painful.

Once the slides arrived at Fort Detrick, Dr. Edwin Hill and the other biologists reported that they greatly supplemented and amplified American research into biological warfare. It was stated that this could never had been done in the United States because of the ethics attached to human experimentation.

The doctors and scientists at Unit 731 were deemed too dirty to be brought to the United States and were employed at laboratories and detention centers in other nations in Eastern Asia, where there were no ethical violations about experimenting on human beings who were still alive. This method of using offsite locations is still in use today. After the September 11, 2001 attack on the United States, President George W. Bush authorized the CIA to set up detention centers in Poland, Morocco and Egypt. As the CIA hunted down and arrested "terrorists," they were brought to black sites where they were tortured and sometimes killed by the information extraction methods.

It is interesting that the Soviets managed to track down twelve personnel from Unit 731 who never made it out of Manchuria. They were charged with war crimes and sentenced to prison. However, in return for their freedom, they agreed to help the Soviets in their own quest for bio-warfare research.

It was brought out that Kurt Blome and Shiro Ishii knew of each other's work. German U-boats traveled to Japan and exchanged information as well as biological material. The last U-Boat that left Japan in May of 1945 arrived to a occupied Germany.

Shiro Ishii's whereabouts from 1947 to 1958 are unknown to the public. He appeared on August 17, 1958 for a reunion of Unit 731 members and gave a farewell speech. He died on October 9, 1959 from cancer at the age of 67.

The United States of America is supposed to be the land of the free and the home of the brave. How does that match up with making deals with war criminals that tortured and killed their victims to acquire bio-warfare data?

BIOLOGICAL WARFARE TESTING

Have you ever heard the proverb about wanting to have your cake and eat it too? It literally means you cannot simultaneously retain your cake and eat it. Once the cake is eaten, it is gone. Bio-warfare and the associated research is like that proverb. They are ethically incompatible. It is not merely enough to have biological warfare labs, testing must also take place to see how it can be successfully applied on humanity.

The Deep State ordered a test in 1950 with the city of San Francisco as the testing ground. From September 20 to 27, 1950, navy ships equipped with dispensers began spraying into the sea fog a mixture of Serratia marcescens and Bacillus globigii bacteria. The navy had set up 43 locations throughout the city to monitor that enough bacteria had been sprayed to cover all 800,000 residents of the city. Eleven patients were admitted to Stanford Hospital by October 11, 1950, all having rare urinary tract infections. One of them later died. There were also people coming down with pneumonia.

During the 1977 Senate sub-committee hearings, the army disclosed that they had directed the navy to do the testing and that no local government officials were told about it.<sup>7</sup>

CAN'T TRUST THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

The Army admitted in the 1977 Senate sub-committee that it had conducted many biological tests on the American people.

1. From 1949-1969, open-air tests of biological agents were conducted 239 times.

A live bacterium was used in 80 of these tests. It turned out that the bacteria was not harmless and caused sickness among the people that could not be explained.
2. In the 1950's, Army biological warfare researchers sprayed Serratia bacteria over the cities of Panama City and Key West in Florida. The army did not release any data as to how many people became sick.<sup>8</sup>
3. Also in the 1950's Army biological researchers released zinc cadmium sulfide – a cancer causing agent – from aircraft over Minnesota and other Midwestern states to determine how it would spread in the air. Particles were detected more than 1,000 miles away in the state of New York. If there was a follow up, it was never

4. A favorite trick of the army at that time was to have a spraying dispenser in the back of a car and then have a serviceman drive the car on the street. This was done in the cities of San Francisco, New York, Washington D.C. and on roads in Pennsylvania. The agent used was Bacillus globigii; no data is available as to how many people got sick.
5. In 1966 military planners wondered what would happen if a foreign government spread bacteria in the subway systems. Glass containers that looked like light bulbs were filled with Bacillus subtilis which the government thought would be harmless. Then army agents dressed as civilians went to the subway in midtown Manhattan and broke them on the tracks. Testing different stations along the subway, they found that the pathogen travelled for miles through the subway system.<sup>9</sup>
6. Bacillus globigii was released into the air at Washington's National Airport. It was also released at the Greyhound bus depot in May of 1965 as a controlled experiment involving 130 bus riders, traveling to 39 cities in seven states. No data was ever released regarding how many people became sick from this experiment.

These are the only the known testing programs. It stands to reason that there were more such experiments that were not disclosed.

DUGWAY PROVING GROUND

Dugway Proving Ground is a U.S. Army facility in Utah, 85 miles southwest of Salt Lake City. The base tested different forms of anthrax. It was also used to test weapons of mass destruction like nerve gas, with some 500,000 lbs. of nerve gas released into the air. According to Army records, there were 332 open-air tests of biological weapons, including 74 dirty bomb tests, when normal bombs were loaded with radioactive material to see how far it would spread and the damage it would do to enemy soldiers.

On March 13, 1968 the Army conducted nerve gas testing. An artillery shell loaded with nerve gas was tested on an open pit and 160 gallons of nerve gas was released and allowed to evaporate. At the same time, an Air Force plane was used to spray nerve gas over an open range area where testing stations had been set up.

I lived in Salt Lake City at the time and remember the local television station reporting 6,000 sheep had suddenly died on range land west of Salt Lake City. There were a lot of denials at first, but eventually the Army confessed they had been testing nerve gases and some of it had gotten away from them and spread over a sheep ranch.

TOKYO SUBWAY SARIN GAS ATTACK

Members of the Japanese cult movement Aum Shinrikyo released sarin gas on March 20, 1995 on three of the lines of the Tokyo subway system during rush hour. Sarin is a deadly nerve gas that is liquid until released into the air. Thirteen people died immediately and some fifty others were severely injured with a number of them dying later on. Thousands of others began to suffer vision problems and some people lost part of their vision permanently.

The Japanese government took swift action and arrested some 200 members of the sect. Thirteen of the top leadership were sentenced to death and executed, while the rest received long prison sentences.

This should serve as a warning to governments that biological and chemical warfare agents can be obtained and released by non-government groups or individuals.

Iran Is Spreading the Corona virus to a Host of Neighboring Countries - David D. Kirkpatrick

Religious pilgrims, migrant workers, businessmen, soldiers and clerics all flow constantly across Iran's frontiers into countries with weak and ineffective governments and fragile health systems. Now Iran is emerging as the second focal point after China for the spread of the Corona virus. Cases in Iraq, Afghanistan, Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Lebanon, the UAE, and Canada have all been traced to Iran.

In January alone, 30,000 people returned to Afghanistan from Iran, and hundreds of others continue to make the pilgrimage to Qom, the site of the outbreak, every week, Afghan officials say. Iranians were ignoring official urgings to stay away from hospitals for fear of spreading the disease, instead crowding into emergency rooms to get themselves tested. (New York Times)<sup>13</sup>

University of Toronto scientists and doctors have published a research paper estimating that up to 18,000 people are infected with coronavirus in Iran. Researchers focused on volume of travel from Iran to other countries and proven cases of infected people arriving in other countries, such as Lebanon and Canada. (Radio Farda)<sup>14</sup>

The spread of the Corona virus in Iran has dominated Iranian media. The epicenter of the disease is the holy city of Qom, the seat of most religious seminaries and religious centers. The Corona virus and the institutional failure to cope with it may spark the next wave of protest against the régime, given its policy of concealing the truth. Corona virus Will Hammer Iran's Economy - Esfandiyar Batmanghelidj

Iraq and Turkey have closed their borders with Iran and canceled air travel. These restrictions will hammer the Iranian economy, following 18 months of deep recession triggered by U.S. sanctions. The rial has lost 7% of its value since officials announced the first two Corona virus deaths on Feb. 19.

In the early days of the outbreak, Iran kept up flights to China when other countries were cancelling them. Much was made of the fact that Iranian exporters were shipping hygiene supplies to China, helping Beijing in a moment of need. Ali Shariati, of the Iranian Chamber of Commerce, tweeted: “For our national interest we maintained Mahan Air flights to China and sent them two million masks. Now we have corona virus and no masks....Isn’t it beautiful? (Bloomberg)<sup>16</sup>

SUMMARY

The different governments of the world do not want reveal they are involved in biological warfare testing and that they have deadly pathogens in their arsenals. It should not come as a surprise that China has bio-warfare labs and that they had planned to use it on the United States because of President Trump’s aggressive trade war that has caused an economic slowdown in China. I believe the communistic régime wanted to retaliate without officially declaring war.

The different intelligence services in Russia, China, and Iran know about the American biological warfare program, including the use of nerve gases. In order to deter the United States, they produced their own weapons and thus the world’s population is living in a precarious environment where one mistake opens the door for death like with the Coronavirus.

President Trump held a briefing from the White House on February 26, 2020 where he had a number of health care officials speak, including people from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). While they did not address the issue of biological warfare, they discussed the outbreak of the Coronavirus and steps which need to be taken to protect the American people.

It is obvious that the Trump administration and the democratic leadership have no interest in discussing biological warfare. They want the American people ignorant about the matter since it would prompt questions and reveal dirty secrets that both political parties don’t want brought to light.

I have introduced information that will give you an understanding about the hidden agenda of the world government and how it affects us. There might not be a pandemic and this crisis will go away. The Word of God is true and someday there will a catastrophic event that will open the door for the Antichrist to come to power, and once that door is open, it can never be closed.

We will enter what the Bible calls the “Great Tribulation.”

The time of the Antichrist will come to an end when Jesus returns to settle the score and set up His millennial kingdom.

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.” (Revelation 19:11-21)

Until that day, we must stand on the promises of Jesus, believing and claiming them in the faith. As Christians we can stand on this promise from Jesus:

“And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.” (Mark 16:17-20)

AS THE DAYS OF NOAH

Jesus Christ is going to return someday and set up His kingdom. This will be followed by the Great White Throne Judgment, the destruction of the universe, and the creation of new heaven and a new earth. The only thing we don't know is when this will occur.

Jesus told us that if we watched for certain signs, we would be able to tell how close we were to the Second Coming. He said life on earth would revert back to the way it was in the days of Noah before the flood.

In the year 2000, the Holy Spirit began to bring the following words to Pastor John's attention... But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. (Matt. 24:37)

Jesus warned us that life on earth would revert back to the way it was in the days of Noah. Would it not be prudent to find out what life was like before the flood? That is the key to unlocking what events will take place during the end times.
