PART 13: THE FIRST ADAM

In the history of mankind, the Bible talks about two Adam's, with each being unique and different from all other humans.

THE FIRST ADAM

This man had no human parents. He was a created from scratch by the Creator, Jesus Christ. Colossians 1:12-19; Hebrews 1:1-3

Adam was not created as a baby but a fully grown man. Genesis 2:7-17

Eve was also created, but instead of starting from scratch, Jesus performed surgery on Adam and used one of his ribs to create a full grown woman. Adam and Eve were never children. Genesis 2:21-25

Both Adam and Eve were created sinless and had full access to Jesus, who frequently appeared to them, talked with them and gave them instructions. Genesis 2:15-17, 3: 8-13

They were given a free will to obey or disobey Jesus, so He placed a testing object in the Garden. Genesis 2:16-17

It was placed there in order for Satan to have something with which to tempt them. Genesis 3:1-7

Once Adam and Eve sinned, they lost their innocence, their spirits died, and they became corrupted by sin; this corruption was passed on to the entire human race. Romans 5:12

Instead of destroying them, God made a covenant with Adam and Eve about a future redemption. Genesis 3:14-20

This covenant was made through the shedding of blood and God covering their bodies with coats of skins. Genesis 3:21

Thus, the blood sacrifices were instituted and carried on until the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross. Genesis 4:1-5; Hebrews 9:22-26
